Tennis, golf teams play

Squads meet Cyclones at Iowa State today

Nebraska's tennis and golf entries in the Big Six meet at Ames this week end will take their first warmup on the Iowa State campus today.

Both the netsters and golfers placed second in last years conference play with Harold Rundle runnerup for individual net honors. Billy Craig last years golf champ has already been beaten by Husker Bill Mowbray in competition this spring and Mowbray is out to repeat his feat this weekend.

Lindsay chief threat.

Chief threat to Rundle's annexing the tennis crown comes in the person of Oklahoma's Lindsay. The Sooners won the team championship last season.

Makeup of the Nebraska tennis crew includes Harold Rundle, Bill Reedy, Irv Kuklin, James Hems-worth, and Don Schulz. On the invading golf team will be Bill Mowbray, Don Anderson, Don Million, Paul Jones, Jim Beltzer, and Wally Spomer. Facing the Husker linksmen will probably be Billy Hall, Russel Viquain, Tom Hoak and Walt Neumann, Don Beresford, Bruce Griffing, William Buren, Bob Menze and Joe Martin are the Ames tennis hopes.

Big Six tennis entries:

Kansas State—Richard Gray, Robert Thornburrow, Alanson Foreman, Robert Hammond.

Oklahoma—Ed Lindsay, Walter Mead, E. P. Litchfield, Gene Reop, John Powell.

Iowa State—Don Beresford, Bruce Griffing, William Buren, Bob Menze, Joe Martin.

Nebraska—Harold Rundle, Irving Kuklin, William Reedy, Don Schulz, James Hems-worth.

Missouri—Arthur Dreyer, William Jolly, Stacy Haines, Louis Gerdes.

Kansas C.—Howard Engleman, Blaine Ribbard, Kermit Franks, Harold Sinning.

Dobson to represent Council on Athletic Board

Adna Dobson, Lincoln junior, was elected as Student council representative on the Athletic Board of Control at the council meeting last night.

Dobson has won two major letters at guard on the Husker football team, and is in the running for a starters' position next fall.

Raymond Hall wins

Carrie Belle Raymond Hall won the girls intramural archery tournament from the Western Nebraska team, 330 to 241.

SAE's win softball title over Sig Eps

Osborn pitches 3-0 shutout as allows three men to reach base

Sigma Alpha Epsilon, already winners of the Jack Best trophy, added another feather to their hats as they took a well-played 3-0 game from the Sig Eps, second high team in intramural competition to win the Greek softball championships.

Osborn, chucking for the winners, saw only three men reach base, and only one of them, Bors, get as far as second for the Sig Eps. Meanwhile, the Sig Alpha scored once in the first and twice in the last innings, as Bruce Duncan, Smith and Osborn counted the tallies. Only one other man, Williams, reached first against Sig Ep Pitcher Bill Kovanda.

Other players for the winners were Rimbers, Brown, Guthery, Huston, De Wolf and Wellinger, while Searle, Oslund, Elliott, Eynon, Schroff, Morris, McCorkindale, and Tonbenberg completed the Sig Ep lineup.

The ATO's won third place honors in the softball competition, as they walloped the Phi Psi's 14-4. Sid White pitched for the winners against Warren Radtke of the Phi Psi's. Big inning for the ATO's came in the fourth when they added their last eight runs.

The losers got one each in the second and fourth and two in the third. Stiner, Harnsberger, Phelps, Judy, Selzer, Keith Sturdevant, Ball and O'Connell were others in the Phi Psi lineup, while Davis, Bayse, Stastny, Laughlin, McKee, Metheny, Oder, F. Egley and Cather played for the ATO's behind White.

Frosh beat Ag boys, 8-0

Three hurlers blank foes with four hits

Three freshman hurlers, Heid, Truscott and Schleusner, allowed but four hits, two by Gableman, farmer center-fielder, as the yearlings whitewashed the Ag College boys, 8-0.

Sooners need to win meets today, Friday to remain in title race

Lloyd Schmadeke to take mound for Nebraska against Deal or Morris; invaders boast five hitters with better than .300 averages; game to start at 4

Oklahoma's slugging baseball squad arrived in Lincoln yesterday for two games with the Huskers, this afternoon and Friday. Taking two from Iowa State Monday and Tuesday by scores of 6 to 2 and 4 to 3, Coach Lawrence "Jap" Haskell's team must win both tilts here in order to stay within arithmetical range of the league-leading Missouri Tigers.

The Sooners are pointing toward their crucial championship series at Norman May 22 and 23 with Missouri. On the other hand Coach Wilbur Knight's Huskers who have won four in a row must win at least one game to occupy the number 2 position in the Big Six providing Missouri wins two from the Sooners.

Three are hurlers.

Coach Haskell has three hurlers, Jim Pope, R. B. Deal, Jr., and John Heath, all capable of going nine innings. Warren "Lefty" Morris, diminutive southpaw who held the Tigers to two hits at Columbia last year and yet lost, has been bothered with a sore arm but may be able to take his turn on the mound.

Oklahoma boasts five .300 or better hitters in sophomore short-stop Jerry Crosby, who leads the team with a .413 average, right fielder-basketball star Her Schef-ler, with .366, second baseman Joe Gullege with .340, catcher Lasater with .326, and third baseman Shinn, with .307. Roy Myer, first baseman, who has a .298 mark, leads the team in runs batted in with 16.

Gullege ready.

Gullege, who claims he "can catch anything," has been out of the lineup for some time with the measles, but will be ready for duty today.

Coach Knight of the Huskers will probably start Pitcher Lloyd Schmadeke today, and Rube Denning Friday. Schmad has won three, and Denning two games for the Huskers. Brune and Harris will carry the relief duties. Harlan Muth, who has been alternating with Frankie Rubino at first, will get the call there today.

Haskell will probably start Hurler Deal, with Morris a possibility. For relief duty the Sooners have southpaws Harold Parks and Jerome Whitsel. The starting time is 4 o'clock.
