Editorially Speaking

Last Call, Please

Today The Daily prints its second war ballot, Friday noon all the ballots will be collected, counted, tabulated, and will be announced in Sunday's paper. Results of the entire poll will also be forwarded to the California Daily Bruin whose editor had the brilliant idea of collecting current campus sentiments towards war and neutrality from every college in the country.

We ask that students and members of the faculty who have not already filled out the poll to do so and drop it in a campus mail box—there's one in every building.

Response to the first poll which was printed several days ago was encouraging—some-what contrary to the lethargy publicized about the Nebraska campus as a whole. The poll was given no previous publicity. Yet about 75 ballots were returned the first day. More have trickled in since then. With a campus here listing more than 6,000 students, however, much is yet left to be desired.

So this is your last call. Deposit your ballots in any campus mail box or bring to The Daily's offices. Help give Nebraska a vote as nearly representative as possible.

Just Comment—

The Daily Nebraskan is definitely on the air. At 11 o'clock every night over K. F. O. R. comes the headlines of tomorrow. It's the dream and ambition of every editor to make some stride toward progress. He soon finds most of his ideas without merit or finance, gets his "ears knocked down," and gets put in his place quickly. We hope this program does not suffer the fate of most ideas.

Chris Peterson

I guess I conducted a one man crime wave today. Got a ticket for over-parking.

Since that time I have been brooding. This is supposed to be a democracy, but I say no. Every darn cop in the country is in the arrestocracy.

Course there is one thing good that we can say about them, especially the traffic cop. He whistles at his work. But so does a fellow with adenoids.

Then too, I may not be so bad off. I know a girl who is wanted by the police—and the firemen, and the soldiers too.

Have you ever noticed. Policemen never arrest many women. Perhaps this is the reason. To say the least is not the woman's way of doing it.

I like our police force in Blair. Someone rottenegged one of the town's leading citizens. The police chief and the other two men on the force spent two weeks looking for the guilty hen.

Well, I feel as blue as a nudist in Iceland over the whole thing.

DIRECTORY LISTS READY FOR CHECKING.

Beginning Monday proof lists for the 1939-40 student directory were placed on display in Temple and ag hall for inspection by students. The section posted Monday contained the names of all university students whose surnames began with the letters A-F inclusive. All students whose names are included in this section should inspect the list immediately and verify the spelling of their names and the accuracy of their address, and telephone number, year in college and Greek letter affiliations. The first section will be taken off display next Wednesday and be replaced by the section which contains students' surnames which begin with the letters G-L inclusive.

Next Friday the M-C-R list of names will be posted and the following Monday the final section containing surnames beginning with the letters S-Z will be posted for inspection. All sections of the proof list will be left on display for only two days. Therefore all students should inspect the section containing their names immediately after that section is posted.

would make a good fort for any man's war. Perhaps it would be wise to install a couple good 75s while the side is torn out.

On the Daily Nebraskan staff, the most unpopular person is the proofreader who lets those glaring boners go by. This week, however, our circulation manager is running close by for the honors, it seems. If you fail to get your paper, call the office at any time.
