Helen Menken is in her third year as star of "Second Husband" to be heard over KFAB Tuesday nights at 6:30... Miss Menken came to radio after a long stage experience... She is equally skilled in modern comedy and Shakespeare... In "Second Husband" she is "Brenda Cummings," a young widow with two children who remarried...

Highlights for Saturday... "Gang Busters" provides a dramatic vehicle for the initial fall program at 7 p. m. . . . It is the story of a gang, operating in Boston, which chose dramatically to strike at theaters when film hits were creating silver streams pouring into the box offices, using a line in a film as a signal to begin a carefully planned robbery...

DANCE SPOTS . . . Name bands play weekend swing music

Pinky Tomlin, well known orchestra leader and author of such song hits as "The Object of Everybody's Affections," comes to King's ballroom Friday night. Pinky and his orchestra have just completed a six months engagement at the Biltmore Bowl in Los Angeles, and for ten months were featured with Eddie Cantor on the Texaco radio program, over a nation-wide hook up.

The same night at the Turnpike, Lawrence Welk will swing out with his "champagne music." Fresh from bookings at the Edgewater Beach hotel in Chicago and at the Chicago theater, Welk and his orchestra will furnish a real treat to Lincolnites.

Saturday evening in the Union ballroom Fizz Powell and his popular seven-piece local "jam" orchestra gives students a chance to express their jitterbugging instinct. "Fizz" promises "a square deal in music" to those attending the Union's Saturday night dance.

"Waltz King" premieres at 7:30 Saturday night...

For the benefit of dancers and those stay-at-homes who enjoy a little swing over the weekend... Friday night bands: Eddy Duchin, 9:30; Shep Fields, 10:45; Wayne King, 11; Leighton Noble, 11:30;... For Saturday night: Harry James 10:45; Wayne King, 11; Jack Jenny, 11:30...

MOVIES . . . Heifetz stars at Varsity in music show

Music takes the entertainment spotlight this week as the Lincoln theatres open a week of new entertainment features today and tomorrow.

United Artists' long awaited story of music and opportunity on New York's east side brings Jascha Heifetz and his violin to the screen in "They Shall Have Music" opening today at the Varsity. "Honeymoon in Bali," the first of the Fred MacMurray and Madeleine Carroll romantic comedies to be released since last season's "Cafe Society," opens today at the Stuart.

'Mazie's' successor at Stuart.

Another mystery comedy film, a sequel to "Mazie," is now playing at the Stuart. "Fast and Furious," starring Ann Southern and Franchot Tone, is a murder story set against the background of a seaside vacation resort. Miss Southern plays the part of Tone's wife who helps her husband solve a murder in which he is implicated. "The Old Maid," the vehicle which may win Bette Davis another academy award, has been held over for another week. It moves to the Liberty today.

Tomorrow two of last season's bigger pictures will be brought back to the Kiva when "Love Affair" with Charles Boyer and Irene Dunne, and "Blockade" with Henry Fonda and Madeleine Carroll opens for one week.
