Kansas Staters are backing Bernie Weimer, junior guard as the best lineman in the Big Six... however, maybe they'd better reserve comment before he faces four guys named Alfson, Ed Schwartzkopf, Mons' and Abel... the Wildcats do have a strong line this year, and it ought to be a battle royal up front Saturday... Down Kansas way they're razzing big Gil Duggan, Oklahoma tackle, for socking little Denzil Gibbins in the Sooner-KU game... Duggan did it in front of the KU bench and when the Jays booed him he just laughed... we hope for Mr. Duggan's sake he doesn't start socking Huskers when the Sooners play here... at least he won't be laughing about it... Kansas, however, had no fault to find with the hospitality of the Sooner boys... treated them swell... outside of the game, of course... John McDermott scored a touchdown for Detroit U. as the Titans won over North Carolina State Saturday... it was Detroit's fullback, tho, and not this page's football reporter, and the Husker ball player... all of which reminds us of the late-lamented Pansy bowl game... where are you yearbookies?... we hate to call people cowards, but...

Bill DeCorrevont wears No. 25... Whitney Martin says eleven Minnesotans are playing in the National Professional loop... they're most numerous, and next comes ex-Huskers with eight... they are Russ Thompson, Bernie Masterson and Les McDonald with the Chicago Bears... Bernie Scherer with the Pitt Pirates... Sam Francis with the Brooklyn Dodgers... Charley Brock, Green Bay, center... Ted Doyle, another Pitt Pirate, and Lloyd Cardwell with Detroit round out the eight... Minnesota should be getting sick of Nebraska... they have lost two games, one to a Husker team... the other one was to Ohio, coached by Francis Schmidt, a Husker graduate.

HUSKER, WILDCAT GAME TO HEADLINE CONFERENCE SLATE

Frosh run K-State plays against varsity in Wednesday's practice

Nebraska and Kansas State head the Big Six attractions of the week with their game at Manhattan this Saturday. Missouri, conquerors of the Aggies last week will face Coach Jim Yeager's Cyclones, while Oklahoma goes out of the conference to play the Oklahoma Aggies, Kansas U. is idle this week.

Coach Brown had a blackboard session on the field last night to demonstrate the Kansas State offense and defense as well as individual plays. Later the freshmen padded with members of the third and fourth teams ran plays against the first and second and Abel guards; Burruss, center; and Petsch, Luther, Dobson, Rohrig, Rohn and Hopp all working in the backfield. Abel was in for Warren Alfson, who was in sweat clothes.

Rohrig and Knight also were still working out in sweat clothes, but are expected to be ready by the end of the week.

Francis is out of the game for sure with a shoulder injury.

Nebraska devoted most of their offensive work to the ground. The Scarlet drilled mainly on power plays, spinners and reverses. They were also taking time out to stress and correct individual assignments.

ATO's meet Farm House this evening

Two teams to play off tie for first place in greek League 3

By Harl Hunt.

By dint of their 7-6 victory over the Phi Gams, ATO tonight will play Farm House for the championship of League 4.

Although ATO's only loss this season has been to the Farm House aggregation, the strength of the two teams is about par. On the other hand, the Farmers lone defeat has been to the Phi Gams, who in turn lost to ATO in a play-off of a tie.

Fitz stars.

Both teams use a wide open passing game, and each has scored most of their touchdowns on passes. Most proficient receiver on the Farm House squad is Don Fitz, who plays quite a bit of basketball for the Scarlet and the Cream during the winter months. John Fitzgibbon is usually on the throwing end, and this combination has gained a lot of ground for the Farmers this fall.

Winner to semifinals.

Winner of this joust will meet the Phi Psi's in the semifinals of the league playoffs next week as the Phi Deltas meet the Beta's.

The probable starting lineups:

Farm House	ATO
Mayfield	Jungman
Fitz	Miller
Peterson	Davis
Bacon	Kuppinger
Fidler	Christie
Gooding	Pearson
Fitzgibbon	White
Nelson	James
Davis	Metheny

Track-minded freshmen, varsity athletes now going through fall paces for Coach Weir

The east side of Memorial Stadium these days is the scene of much track activity, what with Ed Weir having returned from Europe and 41 frosh and varsity men are working out.

Track interest in the state has been given a boost by the Huskers winning the Big Six title, and the Junior AAU crown here last summer, and the turnout this fall has been encouraging.

Littler working.

Among the men working out is Gene "Red" Littler, national junior AAU 200 meter sprint champion. Red, who will take his first year of varsity competition for the Huskers, had a year at Compton Junior College in California before transferring here. He finished second to USC's Mickey Anderson by an eyelash in the junior 100 meter dash last summer.

Harold Hunt, who bettered 13 feet on several occasions last year as a freshman, and who placed in the junior AAU pole vault event, is another promising first year man. Hunt, who hails from North Platte, holds the state high school pole vault record.

Wright ready.

Then there is Lloyd Wright, who tied Eddie Toribio of Oklahoma for the 100 yard dash title in the Big Six track meet at Ames last spring. Wright is a junior this year, and hails from Beatrice.

Jim Dixon, a quartermiler from Blair; hurdler Carl Ousley, Ralph Worden, a hurdler; LeRoy Walker, and Al Kuper are other experienced men reporting.

Walker and Kuper are distance men, a 1 along with sophomores Bill Cook and Dale Garrels compose the Huskers' two-mile crew which is competing this fall. Cook who won the first two mile race he ever ran, and Garrels, a Doane transfer, promise to add strength to Ed Weir's track teams.

Smutz a prospect.

Among other men who will be sophomores this year are Bill

Smutz, Pawnee City hurdler and quarter-miler Warren Radtke from Council Bluffs, both of whom competed in last summer's AAU meet. Jack Bengler, another sprinter who will help Ed Weir in presenting a formidable sprint relay team this year, is another AAU competitor.

Then there is Harold Brooks, who as a freshman last year was one of the most promising milers Nebraska ever had. Some more sophomores are miler Arden Kersey, hurdler Millard Cluck, and javelin man Maynard Swartz, out of competition last year because of a bad knee.

Ginn here.

Among the freshmen reporting is Bob Ginn, Madison runner who set a new state record in the half mile last spring in the state high track meet. Chuck Oldfather, who won a freshman numeral at Harvard last year as a quarter miler is reporting as is big Charley Hoffman, Lincoln high weight man of last spring. Clyde Taylor, Lexington hurdling star is another outstanding new man. Don Morris, best sprint man of the state last year, is reporting, too. He hails from Scottsbluff.

Other men out are John Kinney, B'l Johnson, Ernest Price, May-ard Swartz, Orin Ruhlow, Harold Rundle, Jerry Dunlap, Steve Lyons, Harlan Culwell, Jim Bogan, Herb Glover, Dale Nannen, Irvin Goldstein, Ed Muir, Dean Clawson, Bob Irvin, Lin Paralle, George Borgens, Dean Schroeder.

A number of men, letter men or otherwise, are not out because of schoolwork, employment, and football work.
