

HUSKERS REBOUND TO TAKE K-STATE 25-9

tercepted Sicks' pass and after a beautiful downfield drive, went over from the two. He missed the try from placement.

In the same quarter, Eddie Schwartzkopf, Lincoln sophomore sprawled on Seelye's fumble on the Wildcat 24 and Butch Luther scampered over on the next play. Hopp again failed at placement.

In the fourth quarter, Rohrig flung a high hard one to Bob DeFruiter who raced six yards to the corner of the end zone. Rohrig added Nebraska's first extra point.

The timer had his gun in the air and most of the 15,000 spectators here began filing for the exits when Kansas State staged a desperate rally that netted one touchdown. Seelye passed to Barnhardt from the Husker 13. Nichols, in the game's dying moments, missed the try for extra point.

A last minute passing attack against a Husker team sprinkled with third stringers scored for the K-Staters. The Nebraskans got out of a hole after the Wildcats had a pass ruled complete because of interference on Duwe by Ken Simmons. Hermie Rohrig punted a 77 yarder from his 12 to the K-State 11.

But Seelye tossed a long one to Peters for 38 yards, and on the next play the K-Staters recovered after Bob DeFruiter fumbled a pass he had intercepted. Seelye tossed to Peters for five, then to Barnhardt for the touchdown. The attempted kick by Nichols was wide, and the game ended soon afterward.

Rohrig got off two kicks of over 75 yards, as he, Luther, Hopp and DeFruiter were the best Husker backs.

The forward wall turned in a fine performance, especially in the second half. The alert Husker backs were covering most of the Wildcat passes until the final march, allowing them a 500 average on completions. Alfson, Ed Schwartzkopf, Burruss, Abel, Preston, Seeman and Kahler were line standouts.

Kent Duwe, soph fullback, was the big offensive noise for the Wildcats. Duwe was consistently plunging thru the Husker line for nice gains. Seelye was tossing fine passes, while Beezley, Weiner, Hamlin and Crumbaker looked good in the line. The K-Staters outgained N. U. statistically but couldn't cash in on their chances while Nebraska was hopping on every opportunity.

Nebraska was rather badly outplayed in the statistics but played for the breaks and that was what paid off—in touchdowns. Lineups and summary:

The Huskers won again yesterday, and once again the boys came back to their old opportunist habits...they were outwined, and outyared both in the air and on the ground, but they let K-State make the mistakes, and then cashed in on them...like three years ago when the Huskers won 40-0 at Lincoln...that 80 yard punt return of Hermie Rohrig's was a beaut...Hermie had some wonderful blocking as he caught the ball on his own 20 toward the west sideline, then swung over to the east side and sprinted on to the goal.

Sophomores were the boys who recovered those two fumbles that set up scores for the Huskers... Eddie Schwartzkopf recovered Melvin Seelye's bobble on the K-State 24, and Butch Luther scored the third touchdown on a reverse again...the boys just couldn't be away from those scoring reverses more than a week, and today's was the fourth reverse the Huskers had used to score...remember they skipped against Baylor...and Luther is now Husker high point scorer with 18 points, all three touchdowns having come on reverses...Kent Duwe, that fine sophomore plunger lived up to his reputation yesterday...on the K-Staters march to a field goal he got 36 yards thru the line.

However, it was his fumble which was recovered by soph Ken Simmons which gave NU the opportunity for their fourth touchdown...Rohrig passed to Knight, then to DeFruiter for the last score...it came after two minutes were gone in the fourth quarter.

The other touchdown came when Hopp intercepted a pass early in the second half and got to the K-State 40...He plunged over from the two with six and one-half minutes gone and then two minutes later the Huskers had recovered their other fumble and scored... that makes the second Saturday in a row Nebraska has scored two touchdowns in the third quarter in less than nine minutes.

K-State is the first team to score against Nebraska on a pass...Seelye passed to Barnhardt over the Husker goal...K-State gained 115 yards on passes, quite a few of them when the Huskers had reserves in the secondary... the backs in when K-State scored were third stringers with the exception of Hermie Rohrig...how-

Beta's win golf, tennis I-M titles

Beta Theta Pi players won both the intramural tennis and golf championships last week as Beta players beat the Deltas in the tennis finals, and the Phi Deltas in golf finals.

Leon Davis, Hastings red-head star, captained the Beta's throughout the season as they beat Sigma Nu in the first round, Delta Upsilon in the second round, the Sig Alphas in the semi-finals, and the Deltas in the finals. Keith Howard played No. 2 for the team, and George Cackle was third man.

Davis wins. Davis beat Ed Dosek and Howard beat Dick Gellatly in the first two matches of the finals, so the tussle between Cackle and Jack Cates of the Deltas was called off after a set since the Beta's had the title cinched. The Deltas beat Chi Phi in the first round, the Kappa Sigs in the second and Phi Sigma Kappa in the semi-finals.

The Sig Alphas beat the Phi Sigs for third place. The golf team came through to a 7 1/2 to 1 1/2 win over the Phi Deltas in the finals. Only three men needed to win for the Beta's, a fourth match being called off since the winners had an unsurmountable lead at the end of three matches.

Wiedmann wins. Jack Wiedmann, the Beta's No. 1, beat Chuck Oldfather, Phi Delt, 2 to 1; Sid Held, Beta No. 3 won 3 points and lost none to Charley Harris, while Frank Vette won 2 1/2 and lost a half to Phil Anwyl. Jack Hyland, Beta No. 2, and Harmann Goetze, Phi Delt's second best, didn't play.

The Beta's won their way to the finals by beating the ATO's, the Alpha Sigma Phi's, and the Sig Alphas. The Phi Deltas had won from the Kappa Sigs, DU's and Sigma Nu's.

ever, there's a guy named Paul Christman coming up Saturday, and the Huskers will do well to be on guard...Butch Luther, instead of running smoothly as in the first four games, was rocking when he carried the ball today...it makes him much harder to stop...Luther did some fine ball carrying...and Eddie Schwartzkopf was in there again today...besides recovering that fumble he was in on the play practically every time a K-Stater was stopped.

Nebraska ball starts at Ag

Practice for Nebraska ball, first team sport for ag coeds, has been held every night this week at the student activities building with good attendance at each session. Mrs. Jean Danielson, women's physical education instructor on ag campus, said yesterday.

Monday, girls who have attended at least one of the practices will be assigned to teams and a tournament will be held. Mrs. Danielson said, as she announced the organization of the ag women's intramural sports program. Any girls who wish to play but have not been to practice can attend either tonight or Friday evening between 5 and 6 at the activities building.

Tournament games will be played between 5:15 and 6 Monday and Tuesday evenings. The bulletin board in the building will carry team assignments and game schedules Monday.

Tennis and ping pong tournaments are also scheduled for the girls, with this evening the deadline for entering. There will be both beginners' and veterans' divisions, the physical education instructor stated.

Ping pong tables and paddles are available in the activities building for the use of both men and women students, Mrs. Danielson said.

Gopher game makes Cuban NU fan; writes for pep song

Nebraska U's latest synthetic alumnus is from Habana, Cuba, in the form of one Luis Cereijo, who was so affected by the broadcast of Nebraska's victory over Minnesota, that he wrote a letter to the Nebraska athletic department.

The letter, which follows here, tells in itself more than a story could. Mr. Cereijo got the song for which he asked—"Dear Old Nebraska U" from the athletic department. It's good to know that the Huskers' good old song rates up there at least in Cereijo's opinion, with those of Northwestern, Yale, Notre Dame and Southern Cal, which are sung throught the country.

And if you are ever inclined to think the Huskers haven't any spirit—well, just get out Cereijo's letter and read it. It follows: Luis Cereijo Padre Varela Street 917, Habana, Cuba.

Havana, October 14th, 1939. Director of Athletics At Nebraska University Lincoln, Nebraska.

Dear sir:— Though I take the liberty of addressing you without mentioning your name I beg you to forgive me for it and when you do it I'll be satisfied. I write this letter to you with the purpose to obtain the college marches of Nebraska University especially "Dear Old Nebraska" for I am making a collection of the most famous Universities in U.S.A. and I have pointed Nebraska to join in my collection. I have already got to my collection "Go. U. Northwestern" from Northwestern U.; "Victory March" from Notre Dame; "Fight On" from Southern California U.; "Boola Boola" from Yale U. and I hope the next will be Nebraska college marches.

I like very much football and in sport I like it the best. I enjoyed last Saturday October 7th hearing through the C.B.S. how the "Cornhuskers" of Nebraska defeated the always mighty and powerful eleven of Minnesota 6-0 oh boy! that game made a glorious day on Nebraska U. history. Yeah siree! to push a powerful team of big mastodontes as mighty Minnesota back to crash and fall on bitter defeat is not an easy job, you have to fight each minute, each second, each moment of game, fight hard even to have yourself be brought out of game on a stretcher because if you don't have your eyes wide opened a minute, there is the loss of your game!

I am a boy twenty years old, I played foot-ball here with the friends around town and though I am not a critic, sport-writer or else, I know the "Cornhuskers" of Nebraska had to fight hard every inches of the field to lead this game to a final score of 6-0. That's why Nebraska ought to be proud of their "Cornhuskers". I hope I will get some others games of Nebraska and then I will pray for your victory. I anxious expect your kindly reply and let you know that here far away Nebraska University have the admiration of a foot-ball admirer

Affectionately yours, Luis Cereijo (Signed)

Luther, Weekes, Grace score as white frosh dump Greenies

Amen-coached squad piles up 2 touchdowns, goal over Mills boys in contest on new practice field

With Dick Luther, Cambridge; Ernie Weekes of Omaha Central and Eugene Grace, Neligh, doing the scoring, the Amen coached frosh defeated the green shirt freshman team 17-0 Friday afternoon. Bob Mills coached the losers in the tilt, which was played on the new practice field.

The first scoring play in the game was a field goal, which Luther kicked early in the second quarter, booting the ball at a difficult angle from the 24 yard line.

Luther rushes pass. Shortly after making the field goal, Luther rushed an attempted pass by the green shirts, and Johnny Goodsell, Omaha, recovered on the Green 11 yard stripe. The first touchdown of the game resulted from a surprise play, in which a placekick was faked; Bradley passing to Weekes to make the score. Luther's placekick was good for the extra point.

In the third period, the Greens made a bad pass from center, giving the Whites the ball on the Green 20. After several line smashes, Grace plunged over for the second touchdown. Luther converted again. The Whites outclassed the Greens in every quarter and for most of three periods the ball was deep in the Green territory. The passing of Dale Bradley, former Bethany ace, was outstanding.

The lineup and summary of the game:

Whites	Greens
Grace	Kathol
Bordy	Hennings
Roberts	Johannes
Pahl	(C) Sauer
Irick	R. Bradley
Goodsell	McNutt
