The DAILY NEBRASKAN

Official Newspaper Of More Than 7,000 Students

Z-408

5

Vol. 39, No. 32.

Lincoln, Nebraska

Council to fill Three NU pub board seat faculty men win elections

Ferguson, Cochran, Walker honored by national association

Three faculty members from the university were elected to offices of the American Inter-Professional Institute at the convention held by that organization on Oct. 27 and 28 at Des Moines.

Vice-president of the institute is Dean O. J. Ferguson of the college of engineering. Prof. Gayle C. Walker of the school of jour-nalism was re-elected national editor of the Quarterly, the official magazine of the organization. Reelected also as executive secretary was Prof. Roy E. Cochran of the history department.

Members of the delegation from Lincoln attending the convention were Prof. and Mrs. H. J. Kesner, Prof. and Mrs. Cochran and Prof. Walker. Dean Ferguson was a delegate but was unable to attend.

Mizzou trip rates sliced

Two-way chair-car tickets total $10.05

Fans who wish to support the team for the Nebraska-Missouri game at Columbia, this Saturday, may obtain transportation via the Missouri Pacific lines.

A round trip rail fare from Lincoln to Columbia has been reduced to $10.05 for tickets good in chaircars and coaches. Fare for Pullman accommodations is $16.75, plus a charge for space occupied.

the trip:

Lw Lincoln-Mo. Pacific-4:15 p. m. or 11:15 p. m. Ar. Kansas City-Mo. Pacific-4. Kas. City-Wabash Ry.-11.55 p. m. or 7.15 a. m. Lv. Kas. City-Wabash Ry.-Ar. Columbia-Wabash Ry.-5.15 a. m. or 12.55 noon

Return schedule is available,

leaving Columbia right after the final gun:

Ly. Columbia-Wabash Ry - 5:25 p. m

Student Council will elect a new member of the publications board and formulate final plans for the fall election at their meeting this afternoon at 5.

The vacancy on the publications board is that of a student member, and was provisionally filled for meetings of the board after the regularly elected member was ruled ineligible.

Election of the 1939 Nebraska Sweetheart, Honorary Colonel, and junior and senior class presidents will be held Nov. 18 with the Student Council in charge.

Hager moves deadline back

All yearbook photos must be in Nov. 26

Orval Hager, editor of the Cornhusker, announced yesterday that the deadline for senior, junior, sorority and fraternity pictures will be extended until Nov. 25. He explained that due to the many requests for extension received on vocation from organization presidents, the Cornhusker felt "obligated" to postpone the deadline. All proofs must be returned by Nov. 26.

Do not delay.

The yearbook editor warned all those students who will benefit from the deadline extension that they should not postpone having their pictures taken until the week before the deadline. He pointed out that the Townsend studios, which are taking the pictures, would not be able to accomodate all students if a rush occurs just before Nov. 25.

The numbers of pictures taken up to now are as follows: seniors, us a charge for space occupied. 181; juniors, 180; sororities. 475, Two schedules are offered for and fraternities, 437.

Arms robbers called before federal jury

Pep clubs plan party for Nov. 11

Students to elect new pep queen at door; Dusty Roades will play

First annual homecoming carnival dance will be held Saturday, Nov. 11, at the Union, when Dusty Roades will play for a party sponsored by the Corn Cobs and Tassels

Highlight of the affair will be the election of next year's pep queen. Candidates for the election will be drawn from the campus at large. The pep queen is to be elected by persons attending the dance and will be presented that evening.

Tickets for the affair are now on sale, Admission is 85 cents a couple in the advance sale, and one dollar at the door. Tickets can be obtained from Corn Cobs and Tassels,

Taylor speaks

Nu-Meds sponsor forum for future nurses tonight

Miss Agnes Taylor, director of Miss Agnes Taylor, director of nurses training at Lincoln General hursitel will speak on "Nursing hospital, will speak on "Nursing forum to be held today at 7:15 p. m. in parlors XYZ of the Union. to be judged

Miss Taylor will discuss the various aspects of nursing which she believes every student should know before deciding to enter nursing as a vocation. Any person attending the vocation may ask questions which Miss Taylor will attempt to answer after she finishes her discussion.

The forum is sponsored by the Nu-Med society and will be preceded by a dinner for members of this organization. Miss Taylor's talk and the following discussion serve as the regular meeting will of the Nu-Meds for this month.

Another vocational forum will be held tomorrow for prospective artists, at which Leonard Thiessen, artist, decorator, and editor of the weekly art column in the Omaha World-Herald, will speak. His topic will be "Art as a Vocation." This meeting, open to all interested, will be held in Gallery A of Morrill at 7 p.m.

Over 150 attend honors banquet

Wednesday, November 1, 1939

Frank Fogarty explains plus values of business at tenth annual bizad recognition get-to-gether

Counsellors plan dinner

Over 600 expected at annual coed affair

pected to attend the annual Coed quet program included novelty Counsellors dinner scheduled for 5:45 p. m. tomorrow evening in the Union ballroom.

Guests at the affair will include Dean Helen Hosp, Elsie Ford Piper, the building of the American civili-and Miss Letta Clark. Coed Coun-zation. sellors will take their little sisters to the dinner, and sorority actives the building of the individual comwill take their sorority daughters according to tradition.

program will be the tap dancing hobby group and group singing is planned. General chairman of the dinner is Jane DeLatour. Other chairmen are Faith Medlar, program, Ruth Grosvenor, tickets, and June Bierbower, publicity.

Kosmet men go into second review session

Kosmet Klub will judge eight of the 25 entries in its Fall Revue tonight. Verdict of the judging committee, headed by Grant Thomas, will determine the 14 entries which will be permitted to present their skits at the Revue on Nov. 18.

The schedule for judging is as follows

S .
	Tonight.
-60	-Gamma Phi Beta.
30-	-Kappa Alpha Theta.
00-	-Kappa Delta,
30-	-Kappa Kappa Gamma.
00-	-Phi Mu.
80-	-Chi Phi.
00-	-Delta Upsilon.
244	Kanna Merma

More than 150 students and faculty members of the college of business administration attended the tenth annual recognition banquet sponsored each year by that college last night. Highlights of the night's banquet program was an address by Frank Fogarty, commissioner of the Omaha Chamber of Commerce, on "The Plus Values of a Business Career." Be-More than 600 Coeds are ex- sides Fogarty's address the bannumbers by a German band.

The plus values of a business career, the Omahan explained, lie in:

1. The business man's part in

2. The business man's part in munity.

3. The business man's part in Appearing on the entertainment the building of the welfare of the rogram will be the tap dancing community through various employment and other programs.

Moral greatness,

Discussing the importance of the business man, Fogarty declared that his moral greatness is his sense of responsibility to the employees, to the stockholders and to the public.

Man's secret of success lies in knowing his equipment, knowing his opportunities, in persistant trying and in working like the devil, periphrased the speaker.

Purpose of the banquet each fall is to grant recognition to the students outstanding in the bizad college during the previous year.

Largest single award was given to William Bevans Williams, Lincoln senior, who won the John E. Miller graduate fellowship. This $500 fellowship is annually awarded to the senior in business administration who makes the highest record and plans to do graduate work. The fellowship is given by the Cooper foundation of Lincoln.

Individual awards.

Other individual awards went to Erle M. Constable, Paul J. Bstandig, and Irene E. Sellers, all of whom graduated last June, Constable won the Alpha Kappa Psi

Ar. Kas. City-Wabash Ry. - 9:30 p. m. Lv. Kas. City-Mo. Pacific-11:59 p. m. Ar. Lincoln-Mo. Pacific- 7:30 a. m.

Tickets will go on sale Friday, Nov. 3, day of departure. Return both of Lincoln, who are charged is limited to reaching Lincoln prior by the government with breaking to midnight, Monday, Nov. 6. Additional information may be secured from the Missouri Pacific matic pistols last winter. lines ticket office.

THE WEATHER

for today, it seems that November | federal government, however, has is starting the winter months out decided to bring trial against the right.

A federal grand jury met Tuesday morning to consider the cases of Paul Leudtke and Abe Poska, and entering into Nebraska hall and stealing two .45 calibre auto-are charged with entering organ-ized campus houses last winter to act properly With colder weather forecast and stealing various articles. The in charm school two on the federal charge.

Hendricks describes school with no text books, exams

A new type of school which employs no text books, no recitations, no lesson assignments, roll call, grades-not even examinationswas described by Dr. B. Clifford Hendricks of the department of chemistry at a recent meeting of the college of arts and sciences faculty.

Dr. Hendricks spent five weeks last summer as a science curriculum staff member of the college workshop sponsored by the University of Chicago. In this capacity he had an opportunity of observing the success of an educational program which is designed primarily to help high school and college teachers solve perplexing and changing problems.

Adult education

"The workshop may possibly be termed a new form of adult education," Dr. Hendricks declared. "In it we have what may appropriately be called an educational retreat, in which the teacher gets

(See SCHOOLS, page 2.)

Journal and Star.

Coeds learn how

Do you wonder what to do when the meat is tough at a dinner? Well, act like it isn't. Do you have trouble seeing other guests because of a "garden" effect in the middle of the table? Do you know when it is correct to eat chicken with your fingers?

Answers to these and many other questions were given at charm school last night when Miss Edna Snyder, assistant professor of home economics, spoke on table manners. A "lovely" dinner was served by Ben Alice Day and Betty Dunn to illustrate the talk notable for a very obvious Charm school will have its next meeting two weeks from last night at Hovland-Swanson for a style show of moderate priced college girl clothes.

First indoor rally follows pictures

First indoor rally of the year will be held tomorrow night in the Union ballroom immediately following the showing of the Nebraska-Kansas State football pictures.

Game Captain Bill Herrmann and Biff Jones will predict the outcome of Saturday's game against retreat, in which the teacher gets away from the local scene of his DR. B. CLIFFORD HENDRICKS Missouri. The freshman band, Corn Cobs, Tassels and cheernew schooling methods leaders will take part in the rally. the security of home, and papa

Thursday Evening. 7:00—Sigma Kappa. 7:30—Towne Club. 8:00—Raymond Hall. 8:30—Phi Kappa Psi. 9:00—Sigma Alpha Epsilos 9:50—Sigma Chi. 10:00-Sigma No. 10:30-Sigma Phi Epsilon.

Johnny Cox and his eleven piece orchestra will furnish music for the Revue, which will be presented at 3 p. m., Nov. 18, at the Liberty theater. The Nebraska-Pittsburgh game will be broadcast before the start of the show and at intervals during the program.

itizenship prize, annually awarded to the senior student ranking highest in professional subjects and student activities during the first seven semesters of the college (See HONORS page 2)

ROTC parades Thursday

First ROTC parade of the year will be Thursday, Nov. 2. Companies are to form at 5 p. m. on the new athletic fields. Guides will form on company flags.

Hallowe'en-and evil ones, alias pledges, haunt campus

In the erie night of the Hallo- and mamma, when they see a we'en moon, witches and black ghosts hold their annual convention in the haunted house among 31, ring doorbells, soap windows, the pines, and the "devil rides the earth that weird night." Thus runs the tradition.

The Nebraska campus has its spooks, too, in more ways than one. But Hallowe'en does not take account of those strange people that make timid freshmen long for weird figure on the dim-lit paths cats ride above trees and roofs on by the library. Hallowe'en spooks long broom sticks, goblins play are those that seem to haunt frapranks on unsuspecting victims, ternity houses all the week before. and on that spooky night of Oct.

pull ticktacks on the panes of helpless friends, move haystacks to front yards, and upset those back yard unmentionables.

The Sammy house Monday night was plunged suddenly into blackness and the astonished actives, in meeting, were locked in the chapter room, Spooks? No. Witchcraft was debunked when the actives who escaped through windows caught the unwary pledges.

Union waiters cowed behind the counters when a host of whiterobbed figures glided silently, with a few suppressed giggles, into the grill. As they passed out and down the street, pedestrians shuddered and ran for security. Ghosts? No. Chi Omega pledges on a sneak, with actives hot on their trail.

See SPOOKS page 2)