

Farm House Beta,s clash today

Game decides I-M grid champions

Fitzgibbon to Fitz, Tallman to Held passing pairs meet

The 1939 fraternity intramural touch football championship is at stake this afternoon as Farm House goes against Beta Theta Pi at 4 west of the coliseum.

The Beta's came through their League 1 schedule unscathed, and beat Phi Delta Theta, League 3 winners, in the semi-finals Monday. The Phi Deltas dethroned the Sig Eps, last year's winners, in taking League 3.

Farm House has lost but one game, that in League 4 play to the Phi Gams, 7-0. However, they came through to the title in that tough league and beat the Phi Psi's, League 2 winners, Monday.

The Beta's won golf and tennis titles last week and would like nothing better than to sweep the fall sports titles, but will have a tough battle against Farm House, who won the title in what many thought to be the stiffest league, though Norm Davis, a fine back is out because of a knee injury.

Lineups:

Beta's	Farm House
Held	Mayfield
Huffman	Fitz
Kube	Peterson
Schoen	Bacon
Hager	Pider
Peters	Gooding
Stoddard	Fitzgibbon
Tallman	Nelson
Huwaldt	Gardner

Tappa Kegga beats 330's by 6-0 score

Tappa Kegga won a hard earned victory over 330 Club in league 2 of Barb football yesterday, the final score being 6-0. The score came when Dale Moore intercepted a pass and ran over for a touchdown.

In the same league Union took a 9-0 victory over A. C. B. C. The first score came when Ed Ockerman received a pass from Dick Delfs to score. Bill Irwin's toe accounted for the conversion. Two more points came when the U's got a safety on A. C. B. C.'s.

In league 3 Hitler's Playboys chalked up another victory in their league at the expense of Ag Cafeteria by a 13-6 score. The two touchdowns for the Playboys were made by Bill Burke and Les Livingston, while John Mosman threw a pass to Wyman Pryor for the Ag score.

Dark Horses win.

In league 3 also the Dark Horses beat the Hoosier Hot Shots to the tune of 20-12. The two touchdowns for the losers were made by Clifford Milner and Blaine Lord who received a pass from Cliff. The victor's touchdowns were made by Lumir Boeck and by Harold Metz who received a pass from Jack Spittler. Another 6-pointer came when the Hoosiers kicked off and received the Horses' fumble on the kickoff for a score. A pass from Spittler to Watts was good for one extra point while Howard Sykes ran over for the second extra point.

The Cornshellers won a 12-6 victory in the same league. Jim O'Donnell heaved both touchdown passes, one to Howard Becker and the other to Harold Nelson. Don Desch made the only score for the Cotton Club.

AP rates Nebraska tenth again

Nebraska has come up to ninth place in William Board's Azzi Ratem rankings this week, and has stayed at tenth in the Associated Press poll.

Tennessee remains in first place in the AP rankings, while Cornell's victory over Ohio State put them in Board's top spot. Oklahoma is still sixth in the AP, and third in the Azzi Ratem rankings.

Cornell is rated third by the AP men, and Tennessee, which plays a weaking schedule is down at tenth behind Nebraska in

Francis returns to action as Jones drills Cornhusker attack for game at Missouri

By John McDermott.

Coach Biff Jones held his riders down to a light workout again last night on Memorial field. Jones is taboing the rough stuff for most of the week, so that his Huskers will be in top physical shape when they meet the Missouri Tigers in their important Big Six tussle this week end.

VIKE FRANCIS

Lincoln Journal. Francis were in sweat clothes but worked out. Francis was running with the first string backfield last night, indicating that he will likely start against the Tigers.

Drill pleases.

The line and backfield drilled apart last night, with the backs running through an extensive pass drill. Later the backs were going through their assignments in dummy formation in running plays. Their pass drill was clicking, and the Huskers may fill the air with footballs this week, giving Paul Christman plenty of competition. The Huskers were also working on defensive passing and hope to spoil Christman's high percentage of completed passes. Line Coach Lyman gave his forward wall candidates a stiff going over in working on and correcting individual blocking assignments.

Monday night in the Tiger camp the first eleven took a fairly brisk workout. The remainder of the squad had a scrimmage and were working against Nebraska formations and plays. Missouri, according to Scout Lewandowski, has a well balanced ball club, and have fine reserve strength.

The Tigers are in good shape for the Homecoming game with the Huskers. Only a slight elbow injury, sustained by Halfback Bob Faurot, was the extent of the damage done by the Cyclones.

PAUL CHRISTMAN.

Basketball candidates meet today

Six lettermen return to Browne this year; sophomores look good

Basketball will officially get under way this fall as the Husker varsity squad is slated to hold its first meeting of the year this afternoon at the coliseum. First game for the Nebraska team is with South Dakota here December 10.

Six lettermen—Don Fitz, guard; Harry Pitcaithley, forward, and Bob Therien, center, all of Lincoln; Irv Yaffe, forward, and Al Randall, center, both from Omaha, and forward Frank Tallman, Creston, Ia., are the returning veterans. Grant Thomas, a regular last year, and a two year letterman may be out because of a weak heart.

Frosh good.

One of the best freshman crews in quite a while is coming up to the varsity ranks. There are Hartmann Goetze, St. Joseph, Mo.; Bob Carey, Sid Held, John Hay, Lyle King, Ray Rhoades, all of Lincoln; Don Pollock, Fremont; Les Livingston, Hastings, and Charley Vananti, Omaha.

Bruce Duncan, Broken Bow, and Leonard Van Buskirk of Torrington, Wyo., along with Frank Rubino and Max Hulbert of Lincoln, are B teamers back. Hulbert and Duncan, who are starting their final year, may crash into the varsity squad.

Starting lineup(?)

Browne's starting lineup last spring, with Thomas out, had Pitcaithley and Goetze at forwards, Randall at center, and Held and Fitz at guards. Pitcaithley, former Jackson high and Kearney college star, is in his last year; Goetze and Held are sophomores, and Fitz and Randall are juniors.

Freshmen who have reported to Coach Chile Armstrong for practice are Armstrong, Branson, Berge, Bell, Baier, Ditzler, Dinnis, Dier, Gellatly, Hammond, Harper, Johnson, Kellogg, Klein, Lorick, Lunzman, Marquiss, Ockerman, Rohman, Ryan, Sengstake, Shindler, M. Smith, R. Smith, Stroh, Stutt, White, Young.

Baseball team lacks pitchers; eight lettermen bolster squad

By Don Pollock.

"Baseball prospects for 1940 are much improved and with eight lettermen returning we should have a better season this spring than last," says head baseball coach Wilbur Knight.

Fall practice closed last Friday after a month of workouts, and was disappointing because of adverse weather conditions and generally poor attendance at the workouts. Coach Knight's diamond hopes did not accomplish as much as he had anticipated for those reasons.

Of the 28 varsity men and 9 freshmen checking out equipment the average attendance was generally 10 to 15 men. Workouts consisted mainly of hitting and fielding drills and occasional practice games were played when the weather and attendance made playing possible.

Lack pitchers.

Pitching is the weak spot on the squad as none of the returning lettermen are chuckers. Oscar Tegtmeyer, letterman in the outfield, and Harry Truscott, who are both right handers and Bob Garey, a southpaw, did the pitching this fall. Sid Held, Lincoln, outstanding sophomore prospect did not report but is expected to be in suit in the spring.

The experienced varsity men are Dow Wilson, Dow City, Iowa, second baseman; Bernie LaMaster, Elm Creek, shortstop; Oscar Tegtmeyer, Burchard, third baseman and outfielder; Frank Rubino, Lincoln, letterman in the outfield, and Harry Truscott, who are both right handers and Bob Garey, a southpaw, did the pitching this fall.

Notre Dame high. Notre Dame, which Azzi Ratem puts second, is in fourth place in the AP rankings, while Board rates Tulane fourth. Next in line in the Azzi Ratem standings come North Carolina, Texas A. & M., Michigan, Southern Cal, Nebraska, Tennessee, Duquesne, Ohio State, UCLA, Kentucky and Duke.

Jim Starmer along with the twins Orf and Orf have been catching most of Paul Christman's passes this year, but there's another Missourian, Stillman Rouse by name who is no slouch at that work. Last year Rouse a 195 pounder came in as a sub, and turned in a fine pass catching performance as Mizzou drove to their winning touchdown. An unfortunate accident came Rouse's way early this season when he bought a detective thriller to furnish his literature on the trip to Ohio State. The stories seemed to affect him, because that night he had a rip-roarin' nightmare, and when he woke up he found he had cut his hand badly in the train window which he broke as he struck at some of the dream criminals.

Injury department: Harold Lahr of Oklahoma will be out for two weeks because of a leg injury he picked up in the annual Sooner-Oklahoma A. & M. melee...Orv Matthews' condition is the source of conflicting reports...some say he's okeh now...others that he'll be out two weeks... Dick Fullerton, Pitt's center, is out for the season with a brain concussion he suffered in the Fordham game.

Two nifty pass-catching ends go against each other today in the Farm House-Beta battle...Don Fitz, Husker basketball star has scored most of the farmers' touchdowns this year on passes from John Fitzgibbon, while Sid Held will be in there for the Beta's... catching them from Bud Tallman, Husker cager...Held, a sophomore, is slated for a starter's position on the basketball team at guard alongside Fitz this year... he was an allstate end at Lincoln high...Fitz was an outstanding end for Jackson.

Virginia U. has a first string back, Bill Dudley, who is 17 years old...Nile Kinnick has completed just 17 of 50 passes, but nine of them have gone for Iowa Hawkeye touchdowns this year...four have been intercepted...probably the fastest man in college football is Mozelle Ellerbe, Tuskegee Institute's great sprinter...the colored boy gave up football last year, but since the Olympics look pretty far away, he decided to play again...Ralph Huffman and Melvin Seelye, K-State tackle and back respectively played at Fort Scott Junior college...this is their last year at Manhattan...Byron Potter, Sooner backfield star, had three years at Kemper, so this is his first, last and only year with the Oklahoma football team Don Poliom, KU's star frosh back, holds the national high school record in the 220 low hurdle event...he's from Topeka...D. X. Bible must be building circulation down at Texas...27,000 saw his Longhorns beat Rice Saturday and that big a crowd is unusual to say the least in the southwest.
