

SOCIAL WHIRL

Military Ball, Homecoming affairs take social spotlight for the Military Ball grow longer as the affair which opens the year's formal season comes closer. Latest reports find such new dates as Pi Phi Charlotte Stahl and Delt Bud Rohde, Pi Phi Connie Merriam and Beta Harry Rinder, Kappa Ann Craft and Phi Psi Bob O'Connell, AOPi Jane Pratt and Sig Ep Bill Biles, Alpha Xi Catherine Smith and ATO Kep Harding, Pi Phi Nadine Beveridge and Sigma Nu Butch Thompson, Kappa Kay Tunison and Beta Chuck Pillsbury, Alpha Xi Virginia Sack and AGR John Schick, Pi Phi Mary Louise Simpson and D. U. Walt Johnson, Kappa Mary Jean McCarthy and Sigma Nu Bob Livengood and Pi Phi Mildred Mort and Sigma Nu Nate Holman.

DATE LISTS

HOMECOMING

will be the occasion for some extra-special dates, too. Jim Foreman, Sigma Chi, will be back from his studies at the Chicago Art Institute to escort Polly Jo Taylor, Alpha Chi, Another Alpha Chi-Sigma Chi combination that night will be Betty Ellen Kuhns and Bob Houchens. Delta Gammas and their Homecoming dates are Gen Harmon and Lloyd Wright, Sig Alph, Mary Elizabeth Stewart and Jack Morrow, Phi Psi, Betty Rathburn and Jack Beecham, Phi Delt, Marg Krause and Bill Wellinger, Sig Alph.

VARIETY

of entertainment this week includes many hour dances, open houses, exchange dinners and mothers' clubs and auxiliary meetings. The Kappas have an exchange dinner with the Phi Deltas Wednesday and an open house after the game on Saturday. The D. U.'s have scheduled hour dances Friday with Phi Mu and Saturday with Alpha Xi Delta. Sig Eps have an hour dance with the Sigma Kappas Friday night. The Delta Gamma mothers' club will hold a 1 o'clock luncheon Friday at the chapter house. Today the Sigma Nu auxiliary will have a 1:15 luncheon at the house.

PHI GAM

active members and alumni will hold a stag pig dinner at the chapter house Saturday. Betty Ann Clarke, AOPi, and Ed Steckly, Sig Ep, passed the candy last Monday.

CAUSING

a sensation, the Kappa Sigs arrived at the Sigma Kappa house Saturday evening for an hour dance, dressed in hayseed and cowboy outfits. The reason: They were ready for their annual barnyard brawl house party.

Theme recipe--

Be vague

Be as vague as you can. Deal in great, meaningless generalities and you too may be a First Lady, or even a Second Gentleman. If you're specific, somebody may trip you up and you'll fall flatter than a bride's soufflé. (Incidentally, it's a good idea to use lots of trite similes like "bride's soufflé.")

Make your theme as unreadable as possible. If you use ink, smudge it well with the thumb. If a typewriter, go back over your mistakes and hit the wrong keys. If you make it hard enough to read, the teacher may decide you're a genius and give you an A plus. Otherwise, he'll see thru you like a skirt on a windy day. The best theme we ever read

Movie Clock
Nebraska:	"Roaring Twenties," 1:00, 3:14, 5:20, 7:34, 9:48.
Varsity:	"Golden Boy" 1:00, 3:10, 5:15, 7:25, 9:35.
Lincoln:	"20,000 Men a Year" 1:00, 4:01, 6:02, 10:30. "Made at Night" 2:41, 5:42, 8:43.
Stuart:	"Disputed Passage" 1:00, 3:14, 5:28, 7:42, 9:56.
Kiva:	"Four Feathers" 2:30, 5:55, 9:20. "Winter Carnival" 1:00, 4:25, 7:45.
Liberty:	"Eternally Yours" 1:00, 3:10, 5:20, 7:30, 9:40.

was written by a boy whom we'll call Smith. On second thought we'll call him Brown, just to make SURE you don't know whom we mean.

Brown's (Smith's) theme started out like this:

Dere teacher. I don't know what I awt to rite about for a theme so I will tell you about my dawg, Shorty. My dawg Shorty is the best traned dawg you ever seen. He will bring home lamb chops well as skunks, old overshoes, automobel tires and my ole man.

At this point the teacher had such a splitting headache that he wrote an "A plus" on the paper and dropped it down the mail chute from where it was sent to Hollywood and made into a film which won 12 loving cups as the worst picture ever made.

'My best recipe'

The trouble with most themes is that the students try to say something. Never try to say anything in an English theme! Remember, STYLE IS THE MAN! Write that big letters and put it over your desk. Write it on scraps of paper and burn them slowly over a steaming cauldron of lava in the light of the moon while witches dance and owls scream.

Make your themes as dull as a Sunday school teacher's idea of Good Clean Fun. Make them fairly shout boredom. Your teachers will love you and maybe some day you'll write a prizewinning Quality Novel—all about a Girl who has a Soul and nobody to appreciate it. Now, do you know how to write an English theme? You don't—? Well, that's gratitude for you!

Miss PHIL OFFER was this year's pick of them all for "Cotton Queen" because she has the right combination of charm and loveliness typical of the modern American girl. For real smoking pleasure the pick of them all is Chesterfield because its right combination of the world's best tobaccos gives smokers: Real Mildness and Better Taste.

THE PICK OF THEM ALL FOR

Real Mildness and Better Taste

is Chesterfield because of its right combination of the best American and Turkish tobaccos

Real mildness is more important in a cigarette today than ever before because people smoke more now than ever before. That's why so many smokers have changed to Chesterfield... they are finding out that for Real Mildness and Better Taste the pick of them all is Chesterfield.

You'll find that Chesterfields are cooler, better-tasting, and definitely milder... you can't buy a better cigarette.
