

SOCIETY

Pink ribbons commemorate win over Pitt 18 years ago

Blue Monday comes with the usual scarcity in news; and falls into Tuesday with very little doing. Pitt reverberation worth noticing comes to light in Joanne Lyman's hair ribbons.

When Kappa's commented on the red and white ribbons 'Link' was wearing in her hair on Monday she told the sisters that 18 years ago—when, incidentally, she was five months old—her mother pinned those same ribbons in her hair when they met Big Link at the train upon his return from the victorious game. Joanne wore the ribbons to the train yesterday when she met her father and the victorious team.

HELD ON SUNDAY

at the Tri Delt house was a buffet supper for the parents of actives and pledges. The Sig Ep's also held their annual fall buffet supper at the chapter house, as did the Farm house men.

Mrs. Donald B. Sinclair, Theta's national president, is visiting the local chapter from Monday to Wednesday of this week. Mrs. Sinclair was entertained on Monday afternoon at the Union by the advisory board—on Monday evening a formal dinner was given in her honor. The dinner was followed by the Lincoln Symphony Concert and a fireside party at the Theta house.

MORE INITIATIONS

included Betty Rathburn at the Delta Gamma house last Sunday. Also on Sunday initiation was held for Bill Sample, Phi Psi.

Delta Gamma Polly Wendle left Monday for Red Oak, Iowa to attend the wedding of a close friend.

Visitors over the weekend included Sam Swenson and Dick Heldebrant—both former DU's.

now Phi Rho members—to see Barbara Meyer and Maxine Grant both DG's.

All else may be called a necessary evil. On Wednesday the DU's and Theta's are having an exchange dinner. Also a Phi Psi-KKG exchange dinner the same night.

YMCA to welcome 100 at supper

The annual YMCA membership supper will be held at 6 p. m. Thursday evening in the "Y" rooms, according to C. D. Hayes, secretary. The supper, which will welcome 100 new members into the organization, was formerly scheduled for tomorrow night.

Dr. Warren R. Baller, chairman of the advisory board for the university "Y" will preside. Other faculty members of the advisory board who will briefly evaluate the work of the group and its activities are Prof. L. A. Bingham, electrical engineering, Dr. B. C. Hendricks, chemistry, Dr. Carl Rosenquist from the ag campus, and Dr. C. H. Patterson, philosophy.

Players--

- (Continued from Page 1.)
- | | |
|---------------------------------|-------------------|
| Hepzibah | Lillian Blazkovec |
| Apias Hadrian | Louis Wilkins |
| Anna | Dorothy Ward |
| Rabbi Samuel | Cecil Richmond |
| Menrel, Marriage Broker | Kenneth Miller |
| Woman of Jerusalem | Mildred Manning |
| Mary Magdala | Barbara Birk |
| Nathan, Water Seller | Bob Galtwick |
| Esther, Joseph's Daughter | Virginia Thede |
| Leban, of Damascus | Verne Geissinger |
| Joshua | John Kinney |
| Beulah | Mildred Manning |
| Woman of Jerusalem | Bettie Cox |
| Men of Jerusalem | Edwin Dosek |
| Lawrence Swedlund | Julius Buskey |

Towne club hears fashion address

"War—its effect on present day fashions," proved one of the most discussed points of a talk given by Miss Grace Morton, professor of textiles and clothing at the ag college, before Towne club last night. Miss Morton emphasized modern trends in dress and gave hints for achieving the well-dressed look.

This lecture was the second in a series planned by the club, because of the interest of the girls in modern fashion news. Mrs. Philip Schmelkin, buyer for Gold & Co., spoke last week.

Roses were presented to club members by the Barb Council "rewarding the girls for their participation in the Kosmet Club skit" of last Saturday afternoon.

Ferguson, Fedde elected officers of national group

Dean O. J. Ferguson, of the engineering college, was reelected to membership on the executive committee of the Association of Land Grant Colleges at its 53rd annual convention held in Washington last week. Prof. Margaret Fedde, chairman of the home economics department, was made secretary of the group's home economics division.

Forum--

(Continued from Page 1.)

ment of political science, will talk on the "Anatomy of Dictatorship;" Dean J. E. LeRossignol of the college of business administration will explain "Some Economic Aspects of Dictatorship;" and Dr. H. A. Winnacker of the history department will speak on "Dictatorship in Historical Perspective."

The addresses will be brief to permit the audience to ask questions and participate in a brief discussion period.

Who cares?--

(Continued from Page 1.)

pick Beauty Queens. They pay four dollars an hour and a barrel of whiskey."

"Aw, that there's just a lot of talk," Paw said. "They ain't that much money in the world."

"You mean that, economically speaking, the total of wage-hours per capita is not equal to the sum total of monetary wealth?" the youngest son demanded.

"Reckon we'll have to shoot that kid," Paw said. "He's gettin' too smart. I ain't a-gonna have no son of mine endin' up in college!"

Chapter 3.

Used car lots. Wadda ya want, mister, a car? Lots of cars. Red cars. Blue cars. Cars with wheels.

Here's a car I'll sell you for ten bucks. What, you won't pay ten bucks? Go on, scram, you dirty Oakes. Who do you think you are—anyhow? You'll be lucky to get out of this chapter alive. And so will the reader.

Chapter 4.

Slowly the Joad's car crawled along the dusty road to Nebraska. Only 4,000 miles to go. Maw could hardly believe it. If only Paw hadn't turned on the wrong paragraph back there in chapter 3, they'd be in Lincoln by now.

Things were in a mess. Nine members of the family were buried along the roadside, six of them dead. Five babies had joined the little caravan and nobody knew where they came from. Furthermore, nobody cared.

Chapter 8.

(Chapters 5, 6, and 7 have been censored.)

"Why, blankety-blank it," Paw said to Maw, "you're the most blankety-blank blank wife I ever saw. Blank blank blank."

"You can't talk to me like that," Maw said. "That's the first time since we was married you ever used that high-falootin' correct English."

"I'm sorry, Maw. I mean you're

Field geologists guests at party

Entertained at a museum party Friday evening were the men who worked in the field this summer. Also present were members and assistants of the geology department and museum department and NYA assistants; 60 persons in all. Dinner was served the group. They were shown color movies of the field expeditions that were taken this summer and movies of the Nebraska-Missouri football game.

the most blankety-blank wife I ever SEEN."

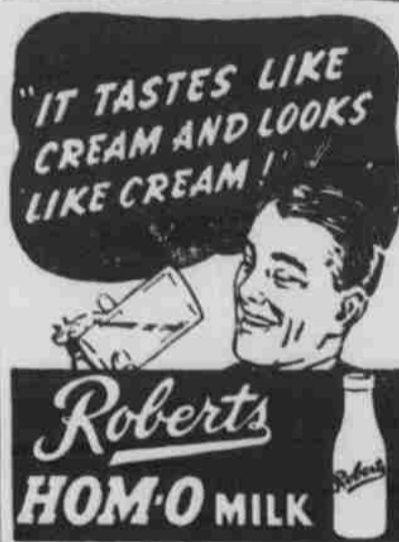

"That's better," Maw said, drying her eyes on a piece of corrugated iron.

Chapter 9.

At last the Joads reached Nebraska. But, to their sorrow they found the Beauty Queen story was all dirty, capitalist propaganda.

So the Joads all went to live with Author Steinhack who is making enough off the movie rights alone to buy them all the table legs they can eat.

The End.

Bette Davis
and Errol Flynn

Starring Real Mildness and Better Taste

With Chesterfield's Right Combination of the world's best American and Turkish tobaccos

When you ask for Chesterfields you're buying something no other cigarette can give you at any price ... a cooler, better-tasting and definitely milder smoke. Make your next pack Chesterfield. You can't buy a better cigarette.

Light up a Chesterfield and you're all set to enjoy Real Smoking Pleasure with the best cigarette money can buy ... THEY SATISFY.

The great combination of BETTE DAVIS and ERROL FLYNN, shown above in costume and informally, gives millions a lot of pleasure in Warner Bros. current release, "The Private Lives of Elizabeth & Essex" The great combination of tobaccos in Chesterfield gives millions real smoking pleasure because they're cooler, better-tasting and definitely milder.

Make your next pack

Chesterfield