

Every ticket for Sunday musical gone

1600 will hear first 'Christmas Rhapsodie' given by uni singers

Every ticket for the second performance of the "Christmas Rhapsodie," to be given at the Union Sunday afternoon, was taken Wednesday evening, Kenneth Van Sant, Union director, announced yesterday. The special Christmas program will be given by the University Singers and the men's glee club, under direction of William G. Tempel.

The program, the first of its kind ever presented here, drew so much interest that all tickets for the first performance were gone within two days after distribution had begun. Tickets for the second show, scheduled because of popular demand, were gone a day later. Admission for both performances has been limited to 1,600 as the ballroom will not hold more than 800 at a time.

Special stage, lighting effects and choral arrangements are being planned for the "Rhapsodie." The first performance will take place at 4 p. m., and the second at 5 p. m.

Besides the members of the University Singers and the glee club, several students take individual parts. The players are Betty Joan Alfred, the angel; Verna Jean Kreuzscher, Mary; Joseph Hart, Joseph; Richard Johns, Aubrey Pettit and Hugo Zimmerman, shepherds; Elmer Bauer, Robert Sandberg and Keith Sturdevant, wise men. Members of the ensemble, directed by Frank Cunkle of the school of music, are Betty O'Brien, cello; Mary Jean Knorr, organ; Virginia Franklin, harp; Thomas Pierson, violin.

Cast of the Christmas chorologue also includes Marcille Poppe, narrator; Hazelmae Ogle, soprano soloist; and Frank Cunkle, organist.

The rest of the program follows:

Prelude—Christmas Choral Lo. Blooms
Beauteous Rose—Brahms. Miss Mary Jean Knorr, organist.
Ave Maria—Tchaikowsky.
Professional—Adeste Fidelis. Reading.
Gloria in Excelsis Dec—Bach; The Three Kings—Willian; Vigil—Christensen. Miss Byrdis Whinnery, soprano.
Carol on a Traditional Text—Cunkle.
Miss Nina Armstrong, contralto, and Ensemble.

for the annual military pageantry. Nichols' band is known as one of the best swing stylist organizations in the country. He has recently finished a contract engagement in San Francisco.

KFOR will broadcast the presentation and grand march from 9:15 to 9:45. From 10:30 to 11 p. m. it will present the dance music.

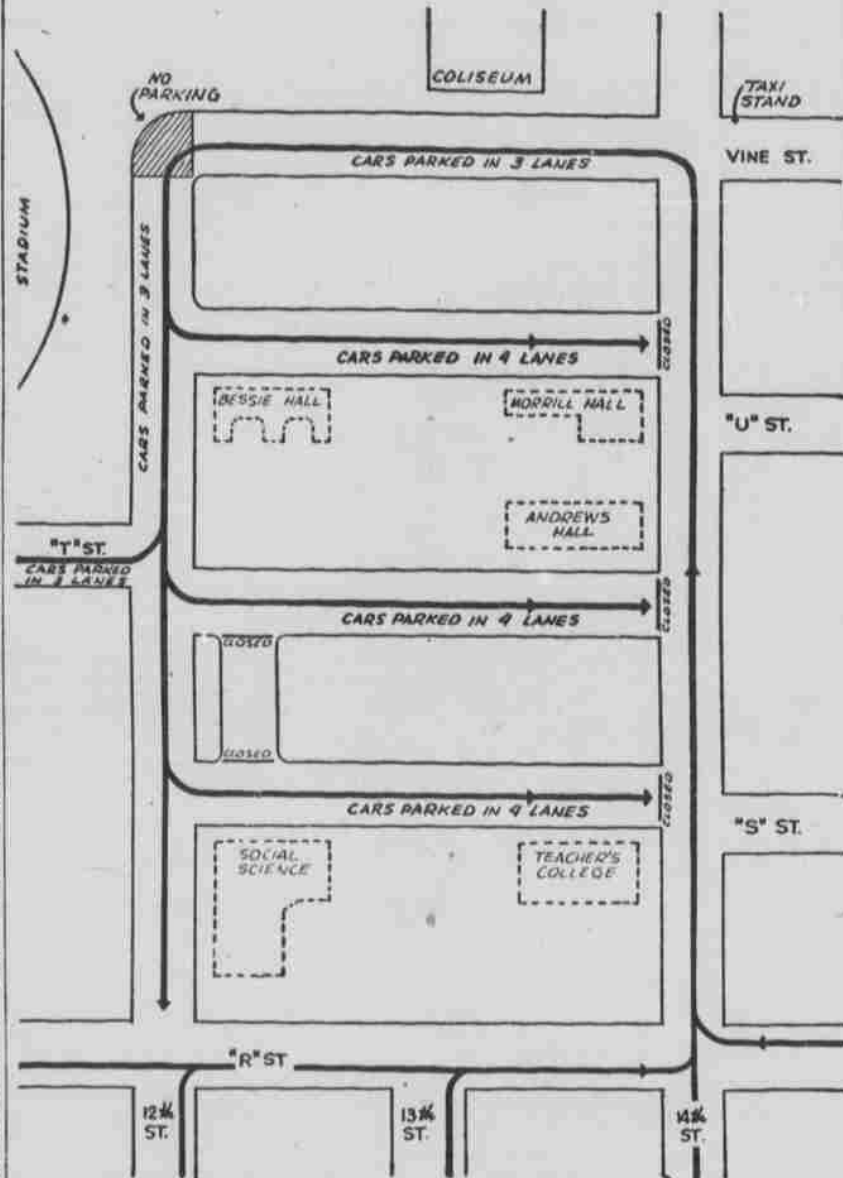

For the first time in the history of the Ball, acanopy will extend from the main entrance of the coliseum to the street, a distance of more than 50 feet. The entire canopy will be brilliantly lighted, lending more to the pomp and pageantry to the affair.

Lincoln police have instructed drives to have the north mall cleared by Friday evening. Any automobiles found on the mall after that time will be towed away. This action was taken to facilitate traffic movement and to

Werkmeister to read paper in New York

Dr. W. H. Werkmeister of the department of philosophy will read a paper on "Unified Science and Physicalistic Reductionism" in New York City Dec. 27-29 at a meeting of the American Philosophical Association. The program is being held at Columbia university in honor of the birthday of John Dewey, celebrated philosopher and writer. Dewey has been on the staff of Columbia for many years.

Wreckers to clear mall for Ball

In order to facilitate parking arrangements for the Military Ball, all cars left on university property after 6 p. m. today will be towed away by a wrecker, according to an official warning issued by the military department yesterday. This will leave the entire university parking area for the use of the patrons of the Ball.

Because of the confusion and congestion which resulted in other years, Maj. Joseph K. Creamer and his committee worked out the parking chart shown above. They expect to accommodate 1,800 cars south of the coliseum.

As the chart indicates, all incoming traffic will be routed up North 14th street and then left in front of the coliseum. The North 12th street and T street entrance to 12th will be closed to traffic after 6 p. m. Provision has been made to unload passengers in a reserved area in front of the building. Drivers will proceed on west to 12th street and let into the parking areas provided by the three broad avenues connecting 12th and 14th street. Parking space for official guests has been reserved in front of the coliseum.

Right face!

Cars parked in the three main arteries will face east on both sides of the street. Cars assigned to 12th street will park facing south, while on T, between Avery laboratory and Nebraska hall they will face west.

A reserved area for cabs at the corner of 14th and Vine will be set aside for the convenience of those who wish to use taxis. Telephone service will be established between the coliseum and this terminal. Traffic officers will be stationed at strategic positions on the campus to assist with the parking.

prevent congestion in the area surrounding the coliseum.

This year's Ball will be experienced for the first time by Col. C. A. Thuis who was stationed here as head of the university

R. O. T. C. after the retirement of Col. W. H. Oury last spring.

The DAILY interviewed the four candidates for the position of Honorary Colonel over the regular radio edition at 11 last night.

Father of Doug Davies dies

Jay Davies, father of Doug Davies, freshman football player who was killed in a game three weeks ago, died Wednesday of heart disease.

Mr. Davies, who was a graduate of the university college of agriculture, was farm supervisor at the Hastings state hospital. He died within an hour after being stricken late Wednesday.

Botany grads visit former instructors

Two former graduate students of the botany department visited former instructors last week. Robert Tuckhardt, who took graduate work at the university last year, returned from Palo Alto, Calif., where he was employed by the U. S. bureau of fisheries. He is transferring to the soil conservation service and will have headquarters in Texas.
