Cornhuskers' new field house—as it will look

fieldhouse as it will look when three or four years.

and north of the stadium, will give uable practice time in adverse er architecture in that it is to have the finished. Excavation work was Part of a recent PWA grant to the Husker athletic department a weather.

windows resembling the stadium fieldhouse as it will look when three or four years.

started recently on the sports the university was used to begin long needed aid. Indoor practice

It is a three story structure, design.

Pictured above is an artist's structure, which is to cost $275,000 work shortly before Christmas vaconception of the Nebraska U. and which will be completed in cation. The structure, which will Husker football and baseball brick as the coliseum. It is further be south of the new practice fields teams, which at present lose val- in keeping with the style of Husk-

California to face Huskers tomorrow night

The HAILY A EBRAS

was literally hit hard in the Kentucky game ... Ernie Miller, veteran guard, will be out for the season because of a broken jaw he suffered.... One of the officials who worked the Nebraska-Wisconsin game last Saturday night was John Getchell, the boy who made himself famous when he gave the ball to Notre Dame on downs after telling the Carnegie Tech quarterback on the previous play that it was third down coming up...the other one was Bill Haarlow, who was Chicago's basketball Jay Berwanger at the same time Jay was burning up the gridiron for the Maroons.... California's Governor Olson picked the score ... U. S. C. 14. Tennessee 0, some time before said game was played...and it will be very interesting indeed to see ex-F. B. I. agent Atherton's report on just how much amateurism there is in Pacific Coast athletics...as for Tennessee, which doesn't pretend to be amateur, four starters against U. S. C. hail from West Virginia, a fifth from Ohio...nearly half the squad is from states other than Tennessee.

Coming of California's basketball team to the Husker floor brings back memories of the game two years ago in which Nebraska finally beat the Golden Bears,

Frosh cage roster lists several varsity prospects

upon resumption of scrimmage ell Armstrong, Bethany of Lin-after the vacation. Although it is coln. still early in the season to posi-Dutcher back Jerry Dutcher, Omaha Benson, hawks." and Ted Greene, York, make a very creditable showing at center. At present the most noticeable Dutcher, an all-state forward two weakness among the frosh is in athletics this year because of a ing in the instruction of freshmen, all-stater in both football and bas-

Among the outstanding frosh son, Jackson, brother of varsity gridder Theos.

At forwards Wayne Kellogg from Omaha six teams for this purpose. Tech, Bob Bramson, Omaha Central star of last year, and Clyde freshmen was held Nov. 1 and lumbia and Dartmouth. Bronn from Roca, have turned in most of the squad have been work-Bronn from Roca, have turned in most of the squad have been work-performances indicative of real ing out regularly since Dec. 1, but captains the Golden Bears, while Parke Carroll of Kansas City, and basketball ability.

lected for the freshman varsity for their first time.

Among the 65 members of the squad are Bill Metz, Nebraska freshman basketball squad approx- City, Fred Metheny, Lincoln high, imately a dozen men stand out Warren Marquiss, Omaha Benson, as worthy of individual mention Bill Kinnamon, Lincoln high, Low-

Although many of the frosh are tively designate any of the frosh only average in height, Dutcher, as "exceptional prospects," several Huffman, Greene and Young all of Coach Lewandoski's freshmen stand over six feet in height. On by June Bierbower basketballers show evidence of the whole the squad is strong on speed and are, in the words of

Defensive weakness

At present the most noticeable years ago, is in his second year defensive ability. Charles Armat Nebraska, but is laying out of strong and Paul Amen are assistdefensive ability. Charles Armbad knee. Greene, mainstay of giving individual attention to York's Dukes last year, was an building up defensive strength.

all-stater in both football and bas- Several members of the squad have been given opportunity to gain game experience by playing guards to be mentioned are Max in the games preceding the varsity Young, Bethany, and John Thomp- tilts. Besides scrimmaging with the varsity squad the freshmen have also been playing round tennis-playing robin games, being organized into

The first practice session for the freshmen really interested in play-Other men who have been se- ing the game can still come out tied up the score at 30-all before Paul Amen dropped one to give Nebraska a two-point lead. The Huskers tried to stall, but the Bears got hold of the ball and tied 38-34, by scoring six points in an the count shortly before the regular playing time ended.

California was never ahead, and Nebraska led by 12 points with but seven minutes left and tied up the score at 20 all before caged one. Floyd Ebaugh, who is now with the Akron Goodyear team, tipped in a rebound, and Paul Amen got another point just before the period ended.

It was the game in which Grant Thomas, then a sopomore, made 11 of the 20 points the Huskers scored in the first half. He didn't make any in the second half, but potted 'em from all line post. angles before intermission.

It's just a suggestion, but until someone offers a better one, we can't see why Chicago gave up football altogether. The Maroons are staying in the Big Ten- in everything but foot-ball, but we can't see where that conference would have grounds to object if Chicago scheduled a slate of strictly minor league teamstwo of which they played this year. Of course, Chicago authorities may want Big Ten football or

MOVIE CLOCK

Nebraska: "The Housekeep-er's Daughter," 1:32, 3:37, 5:42,

Stuart: "That's Right, You're Wrong," 1, 3:10, 5:20, 7:30,

Varsity: "Return of Dr. X," 3:17, 5:34, 7:51, 10:08. "Ferdinand the Bull," 2:02, 4:19, 6:36, 8:53. "Money to Burn," 2:14, 4:31, 6:48, 9:05.

Liberty: "Four Wives," 1, 3:10, 5:10, 7:20, 9:30.

Yaffe to lead NU in game with Bears; conference play opens against Ames Monday night against California U's Golden Bears.

The Huskers will be endeavoring to bring their non-conference percentage to 500, having won three and dropped four of their contests up till now. The Huskers have beaten South Dakota, Stanford and Wisconsin, and have lost to In-

IRVIN YAFFE Journal & Star. diana, Minnesota, Utah and Detroit. Coach "Nibs" Price's lads from California have been only fairly successful on their road trip, although they, like Huskers, have been facing big-time competition. Buckeyes win.

Wednesday night they forced Pitcaithley, Ohio State, defending Big Ten from Jackson champion to come from behind in of Lincoln will a last minute rally to win 49-45, captain the Previously they had lost to Brad- H u s k e r s ley Tech, Penn and Marshall, and against the flashy Cyclones. had beaten Michigan State, Co-

Bill Ogilvie, six foot, six inch cen- Monday's game. ter and Bill Biggerstaff, six foot, five inch guard. Ogilvie and Biggerstaff saw some action here two years ago when the Huskers beat California 38-32 in an extra period. Nebraska broke even wtih the Bears on the coast last year, as Ogilvie starred when the Bears won. Bob Alamieda, who got 17 points against Ohio State, and Ken Morgan are the other California starters.

Pitcaithley ready.

Yaffee will undoubtedly be in the starting lineup at one forward as he is captain, while Harry Pitcaithley, leading scorer on the team, will be at the other front

Don Fitz is a sure starter for nothing, and in that case the school will have to do with nothing. But there are some boys who like to play football in the fall while they study, too, and it's going to be hard on them. The Maroon players wouldn't have been playing last fall if they hadn't liked the game.

Hobbies - -

(Continued from Page 1.)

under the direction of Miss Katherine Schwake. The dolls were collected by Coryell during his travels to all parts of the world. The illustrations show not only the costume of the doll's country, but also the predominating facial characteristics of the people of that country.

Later in the month a group of cartoons by famous cartoonists, collected by Frank O'Neill, will be shown. Following the cartoon ex-hibit, Jean Tool will exhibit a group of autographed sketches of celebrities done by her.

Irvin Yaffe, senior forward from the Huskers at one guard, but the Omaha, was named yesterday by other guard post and the cen-Coach W. H. Browne to head the ter position are still in the air, Huskers in their last non-confer- Al Randall has not been in the ence game of the year tomorrow starting lineup for the past two games, as Hartmann Goetze and Fitz opened at center against Wisconsin and Detroit. Sid Held, third high scorer on the team, and who can play both center and guard, or Charlie Vacanti, who started against Detroit, will probably handle the other guard position.

Browne wound up intensive preparation for the game last night with a scrimmage against the freshmen after an intensified point drill, The Californians will arrive in town this morning at 10:05 over the Burlington.

The Huskers will have only two days rest before they open their conference schedule here Monday night against Iowa State. Harry Journal & Star.

Officials Saturday night will be Dick Pulliam of Grand Island other returning mainstays are Moe Pressley, Omaha, will work

LIGHANIC	micupo.
Nebraska		California
Yaffee, C		. Alamedia
Pitcaithley		Morgan
		Ogivilie
		Biggerstaff
Held		Bickerton

SUNDAY JANUARY 8-4:00

FREE SHOW

Vaudeville Acts Full-length Movie

STUDENT UNION BALLROOM

King's—Sat. Nite NAT TOWLES

AND HIS ORCHESTRA

Saturday Admission 40c Each Sunday Nite Park Plan 5c a Dance