Phi Mu, Acacia, SDT formals scheduled for this weekend

Three sorority and fraternity formals fill the calendar this weekend. The Phi Mu formal is at the Cornhusker Friday evening, the Acacia formal in the Cornhusker ballroom Saturday, and the Sigma Delta Tau closed dinner dance in the Cornhusker Georgian Room Saturday.

At the SDT affair, Selma Hill will be with Bob Cohen, ZBT; Rhoda Krasne with Pete Milder, ZBT; Elaine Kaiman with Chuck Shindlar, SAM; Sylvia Katzman with Ray Grimes, ZBT; and Miriam Rubnitz with Cal Menzer, ZBT.

MOST RECENT

pin hanging is that of Jane Shaw, Pi Phi, and Jack Hyland, Betz. It happened Saturday night. Alpha Chi Arlene Grandmougin received a diamond ring for Christmas from Jim Sherman, 1939 graduate.

Married December 26 were Ruth Hardy and DU George Milne, Jr., both former Nebraska students. George graduated last year. They will live in Washington, D. C.

NEW PLEDGES

at Kappa Sigma are Hubert Ogden, Fairmont, and Paul Matthews, Mullen. Ruth Saterlee, Omaha, has just pledged Tri Delta.

Birthday parties and exchange dinners are causing a bit of excitement for fraternities and sororities. A birthday dinner for Betty Jackson and Edith Knight will be held at the Theta house Wednesday. The Pi Phi "twins," Georgia Swallow and Shirley Fayingtinger, had a birthday dinner Sunday. Both cake-haters and pie-lovers, they insisted on pie a la mode with candles on it.

The Phi Deltas will have an exchange dinner with the Alpha Phis Wednesday night. Incidentally, they are all excited about it.

Foster, Doyle accept conference invitations

Dean H. H. Foster and Prof. James A. Doyle of law college yesterday accepted an invitation to attend a conference of lawyers and judges of the Eighth United States circuit in Kansas City.

The conference was called by the presiding judge of the Eighth circuit court of appeals. Under the new rules for procedure of federal courts such meetings are to be held annually in each circuit to improve the effectiveness of judicial administration.

Trade board educator addresses ag students

Clarence Henry, representative of the committee of education of the Chicago board of trade, will continue a series of talks begun yesterday when he spoke before a group of ag students.

Yesterday he spoke on forces affecting grain prices before two groups of students. This noon he will speak at a luncheon sponsored by Gamma Sigma Delta, honorary agricultural fraternity.

Iowa State expects enrollment increase

AMES, Ia.—Registrar J. R. Sage Saturday estimated that the winter quarter enrollment at Iowa State college would reach 6,350, or 210 more than the enrollment for the winter quarter of 1938-39.

By Friday morning 5,990 students had already filled out their registration cards, compared with 5,780 on the corresponding day a year ago.

Several hundred late registrations are expected.

Uni library adds new list of books

Featured among the new books added to the library are discussions of public finance, social education and a study of the government of the U. S. S. R. In the way of business is the anniversary edition of the Woolworth Co. entitled "Celebrating 60 years of an American Institution."

The recent additions are:

- Glad Day, by Kay Boyle. Building a State Capitol, by George W. Donahay. We'll be in the Woods No More, by Edward Dujardin. Poems 1929-1936, by Dudley Fitts. Toward an Understanding of the U. S. S. R., by Michael T. Florinsky. Whence? Whither? Why?, by Augusta Gaskell. A University Between Two Centuries, Michigan University. Bran the Blesses in Arthurian Romance, by Helaine Newstead. Song of the Old Southwest, by John A. Overstreet. Control of Federal Expenditures, by F. W. Powell. Social Education, by Stanford education conference. Newfoundland, by Robert H. Tait. Maule's Curse, by Yvor Winters. Celebrating 60 Years of an American Institution, by F. W. Woolworth Co.

Burke--

affair was nothing but a conflict of dates. "Niemann is always looking for trouble," the spokesman charged. "He is dying to become the center of a cause celebre."

Not politics.

The thought that the university was playing factional politics is completely out of the question since the scheduled appearance of Dewey and the canceled appearance of Burke have to do with different circumstances completely, the DAILY editor said. But, he continued, we've heard our foreign exiles who do their duty of predicting international affairs at the tune of $300 or so per appearance. Why not hear our own men for a change?

Extension--

Farrell challenged the view that the county agent should be primarily an educator or teacher. "The model agent," he said, "should be a social and economic engineer, supplying all the essential information to get a particular job done."

Rokahr repeats view

Miss Mary Rokahr, former Nebraskan, repeated the view that "we are moving rapidly out of land use planning work into a program that considers land and people together. The questions of housing the rural population and rural slum clearance are on our doorstep today."

Problems of co-ordinating extension and other programs within the county were discussed by Karl Knaus, county agent leader in the central states. Knaus commented that the outstanding achievement of extension work during the last 25 years has been the development among farm people of a realization that science has something useful to offer them.

Prof. W. J. Loeffel, acting chairman of the animal husbandry department, discussed extension livestock work with particular reference to 4-H activities.

Werner to lecture

Dr. O. H. Werner of the department of principles of education will appear on the program of the Junior Woman's club of Lincoln Jan. 15.
