

Cagers invade Missouri for Big Six game

Huskers meet Tigers Saturday

Browne names squad of ten men to leave for Columbia tonight

Coach W. H. Browne and ten Nebraska basketball players leave at 7:30 tonight for Columbia, Mo., where they will take on the Tigers in the team's second Big Six game of the year.

It will be the first conference tilt of the year for the Tigers, defending co-champions with Oklahoma, who have had a spotty pre-season record, although they flashed form as they walloped the Greeley Teachers in their last game.

Game Capt. Frank Tallman is slated to start at one forward position with Harry Pitcaithley at the other. The rest of the team will probably be the same which started against Iowa State, with Al Randall at center, and Bob Therien and Don Fitz, guards.

The Missouri starters will probably be Bill Harvey and Arch Watson at forwards, Haskell Tibson, center, and Capt. John Lobsiger and Martin Nash at guards, although Clay Booper, forward, and Blaine Currence, center, both football players, may get in at the opening whistle.

Last night the Huskers scrimmaged against the frosh, and worked on set plays for use against the man-to-man defense employed by George Edwards' veteran Tigers.

Three lettermen return for Hagelin's swim team; Jack Barry drops sport

by Hugh Wilkins

With only three lettermen back swim coach Pete Hagelin begins the tank year with a squad composed almost wholly of sophomores. Evette Younger was the only man claimed by graduation from last year's squad.

Jack Barry, counted on to perform as Number 1 this year finds law college too stiff to leave any time for swimming. Ted Legale is not attending school now and Dick Van Horn is ineligible because of an insufficient number of hours.

Bob Chatt, converted from a sprinter into a distance swimmer, seems to be headed for a No. 1 place on this season's team. Fred Rodenbeck, senior, and Ralph Worden, conference diving champ from Alliance are the other lettermen on the team.

Jim Ager, who was a member of the 1937 Big Six champion team, is also back this year to participate in the backstroke events. Norman Bordy, Omaha senior, will help out in diving and sprints.

Others turning out for distance swimming besides Chatt are Fred Fairman and Charles Roberts, both of whom are juniors, and Ray Rolland, Lincoln sophomore. Bill Edwards, Lincoln, and Ernest Peterson, Omaha, still have two years ahead of them as sprinters.

LeRoy Foster, Lincoln sophomore, who swims the breaststroke and Lloyd O'Neill, backstroker, complete the roster of sophomores on the squad.

Source of most hope to Hagelin are this year's frosh. With the exception of two all have had experience on high school teams. Besides having a wealth of experience the freshmen also form an exceptionally well balanced squad.

"They are the most outstanding crop of beginners I've had while coach," says Hagelin, "and are the first team since 1936 to have a lot of previous experience."

Among the highly-touted freshmen may be mentioned Les Oldfield, backstroke; Don Hilgert, distance; George Crancer, sprinter; Fred Swihart, breaststroke; Bill Lofink, breaststroke; Tom Woods, sprinter; Carl Rohman, backstroke; all of Lincoln and Bob Jungman, sprinter from Atkinson. Diver of the group is Bill Hull, Fairbury.

Newkirk calls golf candidates

Ed Newkirk, golf coach, has issued a call for a Saturday morning meeting of golf team candidates. He asks all candidates for the varsity and frosh golf teams as well as present members to attend the meeting which is at 11:30 in the coliseum.

by June Bierbower.

Biff Jones and Edwin Atherton, new cleaner-up of Pacific Coast athletics, went to high school together at Central high school in Washington, D. C., and were in the school's cadet corps together.

They both played on the football team, too, though Biff as a guard was the most outstanding. Atherton, a center in high school, went to Georgetown, but didn't play football. He quit that school after two years to enter the consular service, and now, has finally ended up on the Pacific Coast after a time in the FBI.

Ellsworth DuTeau, Husker alumni secretary, has all sorts of praise for the Husker spirit around Norfolk. More than three hundred turned out in a town of only ten thousand for the alumni dinner Wednesday night, and they're all for the Huskers. Biff Jones, Bob Russell, Glen Presnell and DuTeau made the trip together, and the crowd got a look at the Oklahoma-Nebraska football films.

According to Frank Spence, sports editor of the Oklahoma Daily, Coach Bruce Drake of the Sooner basketball team said "It looks to me as if those Nebraska Cornhuskers are going to be the darkhorse of the conference," before he called to find out the score of the Husker-Iowa State game last Monday night. Not a bad guess at that.

At Iowa State, Coach Louis Menze was not offering any excuse for his team's loss, as he simply said, "Nebraska has a fine team and will cause the other members of the conference a lot of trouble if they continue to play like they did against us."

Beg your pardon!

The advertisement of the Irving Kuklin dance studio should have stated that classes start Jan. 16, instead of Feb. 16.
