

Tallman gets 23 points as Cornhuskers trample Kansas State cagers 61-28

Don Fitz plays for Huskers who lead 37-17 at half; NU gets highest point total of Big Six season

Nebraska's revived Cornhuskers unleashed their pent-up scoring fury last night as game captain Bud Tallman led W. H. Browne's team to a blistering 61-28 win over a crippled Kansas State team.

Tallman poured in 23 points, 12 of them coming in the first half, as the torried Huskers jumped to a 37-17 lead at intermission, cooled off, then ran up 22 points in the last 11 minutes.

The 61 points is the most piled up by a Big Six team this year, and Tallman's scoring burst second only this season to Jimmy McNatt's 30 counters against the Huskers.

Pit opens game.

Harry Pitcaithley who started at guard opened the scoring for the Huskers with a free throw, then Norris Holstrom put in a looper to give K-State their only lead of the game. Nebraska came back with Al Randall's only fielder of the game, and with but five minutes gone the Huskers had rolled up a 14-2 lead.

From then on it was a question of how many Nebraska would get, as the Wildcats, playing without two regulars, were cold on the basket, and outclassed by the Husker offense.

Tallman scored 12 and Irv Yaffee, who scuttled bigger State players all over the floor last night, got 9 before the teams left the floor at half-time.

Don Fitz entered the game shortly before the end of the half in his first appearance since he was injured at Missouri, and the Husker guard received a great ovation from the crowd.

Fitz scores.

His fielder after two minutes of play accounted for the only Husker points in the first nine minutes after intermission as play was ragged and Kansas State could get only six points.

However, Tallman got two baskets, and Pitcaithley and Yaffee one apiece to bring the score to 47-23 in the next two minutes. The Huskers got six more before the Manhattan team scored again.

With slightly less than five minutes to go, Nebraska led 55-24, and the fans, who were pleading for a 60 score, got it as Sid Held made two free throws and Tallman aptly enough ended a great evening with his last two baskets.

Yaffee scored 12 points for Nebraska, and Sid Held 7. Fitz' knee seemed to bother him as he first took the floor, but in the second period he was back with his customary great floor game, although he garnered but two baskets.

Norris Holstrom got eight points on four long baskets, and Mel Seelye six for the bewildered Manhattan team which suffered its sixth conference loss of the season. It was Nebraska's second win against six defeats, and put the two teams in a tie for fourth and fifth places in the league.

Farm House, ag champions, beat the Husker freshman 15 to 13 in a preliminary game. Fred Preston was outstanding for the winners.

Among the services of the Nebraska Alumnus office is the sending out to alumni members tabloids after each Husker football game. It costs those paid-up members nothing but the postage, and is a reprint of every inch of copy that appears in Sunday's Journal and Star about each game, and in addition contains at least a page of pictures.

One of the strangest scoring performances ever turned in in the Big Six Monday night in the Kansas-Iowa State game... three players made all the Jayhawk's points... Ralph Miller got 15, Don Ebling 13, and Bob Allen 8 to give KU 36 in all... Elmer Hackney isn't having to toss the shot left handed yet... he's doing around 49 feet in practice with his right hand, and got the pellet out a little over 48 feet in the Drake meet.

Minnesota bonebenders win over Husker crew 21 1/2-14 1/2

With the mighty fall of "King Kong" Kahler, the husker footballer who turned wrestler for the night, the Husker hopes of victory over the traveling Minnesota Gophers mats-men fell also.

The Nebraska fans went into wild cheers when Kahler made his appearance in the ring as the Gophers held only a slim 16 1/2 to 14 1/2 lead over the Huskers at that time, but before those cheers had a chance to settle down Kuusisto of Minnesota also had set Kahler and Nebraska's hopes for a victory down, in the very quick time of 2:16 to give the Gophers a 21 1/2 to 14 1/2 victory.

Dale Hanson, Minnesota Big Ten champion, found a game match in Nebraska's Ed McConnell in the 128 division, but the Big Ten champ always kept "Ed" on the defense and won the bout with a half Nelson in 6:30.

The crowd took its delight in the 136 pound match when Husker's George Cockle pulled a surprise fall on Minnesota's Morris Nemer, after appearing to tire badly in the final stages.

Ray Tomes, Nebraska, and Jack Morton, Minnesota, indulged in the only extra time affair, before referee Kellogg considered that the boys were evenly matched and called it a draw.

Next home meet will be March 2nd against Iowa State. Results:

- 121—Milton Kuska (N) threw Lief Lie (Minn.) 3:20.
- 128—Dale Hanson (Minn.) threw Ed McConnell (Neb.) 6:30.
- 136—George Cockle (Neb.) threw Morris Nemer (Minn.) 6:30.
- 145—Newton Coppel (Neb.) beat Blaine McKusick (Minn.).
- 155—Ray Tomes (Neb.), Jack Morton (Minn.) draw.
- 165—Lloyd Schumacher (Minn.) threw Dale Russel (Neb.) 4:42.
- 175—Al Janesko (Minn.) threw Alan Mueliken (Neb.) 6:30.

"A" league cage leaders established

Betas, D U's, Sig Eps look good; Sig Alph victories protested

Standings after the first week of intramural basketball play find leaders established in each fraternity league.

In League 2, the same situation in which only one round has been played, the AGR's, the Chi Phi's, and Sigma Alpha Mu's have each won one game, while the Phi Psi's, Kappa Sigs and Alpha Sigs have lost one apiece.

In League A, the same situation exists. The ATO's, Delts, and Zeta Beta Tau's, have won a game apiece, and the Acacia's, Phi Sigma Kappa's and Beta Sigs have each lost once.

Protest Hopp, Francis

In League 3, each team has played two games, and on top for sure are the DU's with two wins and no losses. The Sig Alphas have beaten the Farm House and Phi Delts, and lost no games, but the two losers have protested the use of Vike Francis and Harry Hopp by the SAE's, defending fraternity champions, on the grounds that Vike is a member of the varsity track team, and that Hopp was not registered in school at the time of the games.

Should the protests be allowed, it will give the Phi Delts and Farm House two wins apiece as their records now stand at one lost and one won. The Delta Sigs and Phi KA's have lost two apiece. The Beta's have gone to the front in League 4, with two wins and no losses, one victory being a 21-19 overtime win against the strong Phi Gams, who have won one and lost one. The Sig Eps looked impressive in snowing under Sigma Chi 41-19 in their only game. The Sigma Nu's have lost once, and the Sigma Chi's twice.

SAE's lead "B's"

In "B" play, the only team with two wins thus far is the Sig Alph team in League 1, which holds two wins, and is in undisputed possession of first place. The Beta's in that league have broken even in two games, while the Kappa Sigs and Acacia's have each lost once.

In League 2, the Sig Eps and DU's have a win apiece, while the ATO's and Alpha Sigma Phi's have dropped a game apiece.

In League 3, the Delta Sigs and Sigma Alpha Mu's have won once, while the AGR's and Phi Psi's have each lost once. Only two games have been played in Leagues 2, 3 and 4, and three in League 1.

Barbed Point, Brown Palace, Dark Horse teams sew up titles; League 1 unfinished

Barbed Point, Brown Palace, and Dark Horse teams have already won Barb league titles, as the only independent title which is not settled is that of League 1, in which the Pied Pipers and KKK's are tied for first. Championship eliminations will begin when League 1 is settled.

The Barbed Points finished undefeated in six games in League 2, as they beat the Termites, Baldwin Hall, Cornhusker Coops, Hoosier Hotshots, Stratford and Browning Club. The entire League 2 slate has been finished, but no team can touch the Points, who have on Jackson, Hile, MacDonald, Webb and Brunson this season.

Brown Palace tough.

In League 3, the Brown Palace team met its closest call when they nipped the Mustangs 13-12, but won an easy game from Tappa Kegga. They also beat the Union Leaders, Cornshellers and Juggernauts. Stroh, Sears, Snodgrass, Mills, Davis, Mahlin, Coap, Sindt and Warden have all seen service for the League 3 champions this season.

The Dark Horse team in winning League 4, piled up the two biggest scores of the season as they beat Johnson Hall 68-1 and Y.M.C.A., 46-12. They had their closest game against the Ramblers, winning 11-9. The ACBC fell before them 21-14, and the Brown Derbies lost 12-7. In the other two Dark Horse games, the Clippers lost by a forfeit, and Pawnee Club lost 20-9. H. Grovert, Nickel, Robinson, Chapin, B. Grovert and Million have been Dark Horse mainstays this season.

In League 1, which will wind up this week, the crucial game is between the two leaders, KKK and Pied Pipers. The KKK team also has yet to play the Regular Fellows who have won once and lost four times, while the Pied Pipers have the Dirty Irish left in addition to the KKK's. The Irishers also have won 1 and lost 4 games.

Lead Pipers.

Pfeiffer, Peterson, King, Anderson and Miller have been bearing most of the Pipers' burden, while Prince, Gatch, Armstrong, Crane, Brondahl, Brenn, Murray and Scholz have played most of the time for the triple K's.

Frosh trackmen in postal meet with OSU team

Nebraska's frosh track team is competing this week in a postal meet with the Ohio State yearlings, as performances will be compared at the end of the week.

Outstanding marks have been turned in by Bob Ginn, Wayne Blue, Vic Schleich and Don Morris.

Ginn, state high record holder in the 880, turned in a 1:58.7 half-mile; Blue got 47:4 1/4 in the shot, and Schleich well over 46 feet. Both men are in their second year in school, but are staying out of varsity competition until next year. Their performances have consistently been over 45 feet.

Morris, state high school sprint champion from Scottsbluff last spring, turned in a :52.4 quarter mile.

Postal meets will also be held with Iowa and Kansas State frosh.
