

Comes a time . . .

When snow and tests turn thoughts to sunnier climes

By Agnes Wanek.

There comes a time when the snow is on the ground, and a young man's thoughts are southward bound. When you think about it, a quick trip to Florida wouldn't be hard to take at this point. This is the time when you begin to envy people like Ralph Bristol, Paul Brown, and Bruce Duncan, who managed to take a short trip to Mexico City recently. But . . . day dreams don't help, not with a couple of six weeks tests ahead.

FATAL CHARM

must be a part of Kappa Mary Beeson's attraction, since she set a new high Monday night when ten Sigma Nus, no less, came to the Kappa house to see her.

SIGMA NUS'

big weekend includes initiation Saturday, alumni luncheon and a fraternity banquet Saturday night at the Cornhusker.

HOW TRUE

is the rumor that Pi Phi Virginia Haney and Harold Schrag are going steady every other night? This fall Ginny was seen around with Butch Luther, DU, who now has his pin on Kappa Marion Bowers.

Vocational series features Schemel for fourth talk

Miss Lucille Schemel, teacher of English and history at Whittier Junior High, will speak to university women tomorrow at 4 p. m. in Ellen Smith. Her subject will be "Advantages and Disadvantages of Teaching; Preparation for and Varieties of Specialization." This is the fourth talk on the present vocational series being sponsored by the AWS board and the office of the dean of women.

Miss Schemel, recently re-elected president of the Lincoln Teachers association, is an active participant in the work being done to further the teacher's retirement legislation. She has taught in all grades and has done demonstration work in the university; facts contributing to her versatility and well-rounded teaching accomplishments.

Players—

(Continued From Page 1.)

very convincing throughout most of the play, although in spots he evinced a little discomfort at being pushed into the role of a successful retired automobile magnate.

The rest of the cast was aptly selected by the director, H. Alice Howell. Doris Poellet, as Edith Cortwright, the woman who understood and loved Sam Dodsworth was perfectly suited to her part, and with her portrayal of a sweet and mature woman proved a perfect foil for the childish, vain Fran.

Story pleases audience.

The audience roared at the typical American, A. B. Hurd, sketched as only the vituperic Lewis can. Smythe Davis both looked and acted the part of the philandering Frenchman, Arnold Israel, who became Fran Dodsworth's lover, and Kurt von Obersdorf, played by Max Whittaker, was as nearly a German baron as any Nebraskan with a mid-western drawl could be.

Despite the thirteen set changes required, the play moved along rapidly and held the attention of the audience throughout. Setting and lighting were entirely in keeping with the mood and the theme of the production.

The University of Nebraska
University Players
Present
"DODSWORTH"
By Sinclair Lewis
Dramatized by Sidney Howard
Tonight at 7:30
Temple Theatre
12th and R Sts.

and the Beth Howley-Schrag combination was definitely on the upswing. The question now, is where does all this leave Phi Delt Al Ashworth who has gone with Virginia for years and years.

THE AFFAIR

between Max Wieland and A.O. Pi Pat Rosenbaum is doing all right these days, since it was not so long ago that they first started dating. They now have a standing date for Saturday nights.

CAMPUS NOTES:

Bill Williams, Phi Delt, has announced that he is going to have his third date of the year . . . wonder who it'll be? . . . Congratulations to Beta Bruce Harper for his appointment to Annapolis and also

Husker debaters meet Wesleyan

Nebraska debaters will meet affirmative and negative teams from Wesleyan today at 4 at Wesleyan.

Another debate will be held Friday in the Union with Park college of Chicago. Nebraska affirmative team will debate at 11 in parlor X, and the negative at 1 p. m. in X. The subject for both debates is "Resolved, that the U. S. should maintain a strict policy of military and economic isolation."

Ben Novicoff and Howard Besire will debate on the affirmative side and Jack Stewart and Lloyd Shubert on the negative side for Nebraska.

to Phi Gam Bob Davenport for his appointment to West Point . . . in case you hadn't noticed, you're seeing Sig Alph Burdette Wertman and Theta Marie Anderson together a lot . . . Ditto Beta Harold Howell and D.G. Betty Holtorf.

April fool's day is final deadline for photo entries

(ACP) for college amateur photographers, April 1 is more than a day of pranks and practical jokes.

April 1 is also the final deadline for mailing entries in the third annual national collegiate photo competition being conducted by Collegiate Digest—a contest that is held annually to select pictures for the rotogravure section's annual Salon Edition published each spring.

To compete for national recognition and money prizes, all Nebraska students are urged to send in their entries immediately. Enter your pictures in one of the following divisions: still life, scenes, candid, portraits or "college life."

Collegiate Digest announces that there is no entry fee for the contest, and that each student or faculty photographer may send in as many entries as he wishes.

Phi Sigma Iota stages contest

The second annual declamatory contest for university French and Spanish students will be held April 2. Sponsored by Phi Sigma Iota, honorary language fraternity, the contest will have several groups in which all students are eligible to compete.

The three groups are: One for French 2 and Spanish 53 students, one for students taking courses beyond those in group 1 and below courses numbered 101. Students above 101 will be entered in group 3. Six prizes, consisting of French and Spanish novels, will be awarded.

Yesterday was the deadline for the entries which the contestants could choose from a list sponsors had posted in the department library.

Donald and Maurine Nordlund, brother and sister, earned perfect grades at Midland College last semester.

LOST ON K-2

Dartmouth Undergraduate Reports on American Assault on World's Second Highest Mountain Peak

Today's Post records the assault on K-2—28,250 feet of rock, ice, storm and wind. Four members of the party disappeared in the flying mists of this unclimbed summit and were never seen again . . . An extraordinary story of the Second American Karakoram Expedition, told by George C. Sheldon, a Dartmouth senior, one of the survivors.

- ★ A LADY SPENDS THE NIGHT—She was afraid he would and afraid he wouldn't, and yet when they were trapped by a blizzard, Miss Ruth prepared to defend her name and honor with every artifice at her disposal. A short story by M. G. CHUTE.
- ★ RED RUFFING'S SECRET How does a guy with four toes missing, and a pain in his arm, pitch a 4-hit World Series game? The amazing story of the man who won 175 games for the Yanks. As Good As He Has To Be, by STANLEY FRANK.
- ★ IS IT EASY TO DIE? When John Blagden awoke in a hospital bed he felt pretty good. Then the doctor came in and casually sprang the surprise . . . The story of the hour which has no end. No Visitors, by STEPHEN VINCENT BENÉT.
- ★ "I INTEND TO BE PRESIDENT"—McNutt. Who is this "tall, tan, terrific" Hoosier who plans to seep into the White House by osmosis? ALVA JOHNSTON gives you the high-lights of that Indiana charmer who may miss in 1940, but still has '44, '48 and '52 ahead.
- ★ NEW MYSTERY NOVEL BY MIGNON G. EBERHART . . . Hangman's Whip. With three women determined to possess the same man, somebody engineers a hanging! Start the second of seven installments in the Post tonight!
- ★ GERMANY'S GAME IN FINLAND—Why is Germany privately gloating at the Finnish exposure of Russia's military and economic weaknesses? From diplomatic reports of events in Moscow, the Post brings you details of how Nazi Germany encouraged Russia and secretly aided the Finns at the same time! DEMAREE BESS.

Mr. Glencannon SNIFFS A RUM BLOSSOM

How one of Mr. Glencannon's finest alcoholic inspirations turned the S. S. Inchcliffe Castle into a seagoing arboretum, a floating jungle. Read The Rum Blossom.

by GUY GILPATRIC

Students! The Post offers
$750⁰⁰ IN CASH PRIZES
for "Confucius" sayings!

For complete details, ask this newspaper for the Contest Pamphlet, or write to Prof. Charles E. Bellatty, Head of the Department of Advertising, Boston University, 685 Commonwealth Avenue, Boston, Mass. . . . Your entry may win the $100 first prize, and there are 166 other cash prizes.

THE SATURDAY EVENING POST 5¢