

By June Bierbower.

Yesterday our little dissertation about Rube Hoy's proposal to do away with the elimination of a basketball player from a game after he had made four fouls was whacked off. As we were saying, Hoy has a good idea there, it seems.

First round individual scoring in the high school tournament didn't stay low by any means in several cases. Wayne Weber, a 6-3 player from Friend poured in 34 points of his team's total of 48 Thursday afternoon. We saw the game, and whenever Friend needed a basket li'l Weber would be right there. . . smallest player in the tournament, Donald Wolfe, 5-2, 95 pounder of Benedict, got 13 points in the same game, and played like a real veteran. . . he's a sophomore. . . two other players got over 20 points—Lester Murrell of Fairmont got 21, and Leafgreen of Minatare made 23. . . George Gribble of Greenwood made 17 of his team's 19 points in another great exhibition. . . Ralph Phelps of Trumbull got 17, as did Bob James of Falls City. . . Jerry Carpenter of McCook made 18, as did L. Miller of Culbertson, and Jim Kaeding of Benedict.

Don Boydston, sports editor of the Daily O'Collegian, student newspaper of Oklahoma A. & M. high jumped 6-7 the other day in a frosh-varsity track meet. . . nice going, brother. . . Boydston will be here May 25 when the Aggies face the Huskers in a dual meet the Saturday after the Big Six championships here. . . we notice nobody's asking the Nebraska, Kansas State and Iowa State basketball teams to play off the tie for the last three places in the conference standings. Gonzago college of Portland is pioneering in bowling as an inter-collegiate sport. . . they're sending a good-will team around the Pacific coast to stir up interest. . . sounds like a good idea.

Newton Copple, Husker 145 pound wrestler, threw Young of Oklahoma in 8:55 in the first round of the Big Six meet. . . but he didn't get credit for it very generally in the press. . . some reports stated it was Young, not Copple who did the throwing. . . Elmer Nieman, Kansas State backfield man and baseball player, is not in school this semester, but will be in the fall. . . Ohio State's basketball coach Olsen fed his players celery with lots of salt before a recent game because a survey made by Harvard U. showed salt and celery were good things to eat if you wanted to win basketball games. . . Ohio State won 58-52.

him with distaste, and says nothing. Three guys begin "That's the kind of people that make it hard for us poor guys to stay in school. Bookworms. Bet he never saw the inside of Freddie's." And the bewildered Phi Beta Kappa tucks in his head and sneaks out without a backward glance.

Passed!

Then a football player comes pushing the door ahead of him. "A flat seventy-two, boys," he brags, "and I never went to two of those classes except to take the final." He too, is shunned by all the people he knows, for after all it's six months before football season.

Two girls, obviously among those classed "Hmm, not bad," shriek, "Isn't that quizmaster a darling! I'm going to change back to that other section just so I can have him again. I think he's just wonderful!"

And then, it's your turn. With an empty feeling in the pit of your stomach, you reach out for the envelope the girl is shoving at you, and rip it open. Suddenly the sun shines bright again, the world looks gay, and you're sure spring and all the birds are just about here.

Grand Island rallies to nudge Falls City, 29 to 28; Jackson, Prep, Lincoln teams triumph

Grand Island provided the state basketball meet's big upset as they edged Falls City, defending champions, 29-28. A sparkling last quarter rally engineered by Forward Norman Rief put the third citizens out in front 29-26 with less than two minutes left, although Don James potted a fielder for the losers as the whistle sounded.

Falls City, as cold as last night's potatoes, was ahead 23-11 as the third quarter ended, but Grand Island spurred to get three fielders as against a free throw for the losers, and went ahead on Rief's fielder. Huettner tagged one for Falls City. Rief then put his team ahead with two gratis throws, and a moment later added the clinching basket. Rief made 12 points, while Bob Heinzelman led Falls City with 11, 10 coming in the first half.

Creighton wins.

Creighton Prep went into the semifinals by beating Fremont 31-17. Fremont jumped into an early 9-2 lead, but the Jays passed them to lead 12-9 at half time, and pulled away in the last two quarters.

Jackson will face the Omaha team tonight in one semifinal, as the Redbirds beat Sidney 39-18. Jackson stepped into an early lead, and was ahead 13-4 as the first quarter ended. John Bottorff and Waldo Winter led the Uni Place team, which led 22-7 at halftime, and 33-12 at the end of the third quarter.

Harvey Lauer's fielder in the last few seconds gave Lincoln a 30-28 win over McCook. Rube Schultz of McCook got two free throws as the game ended, but missed one, and his team couldn't score after electing to take the ball out of bounds on the second attempt.

In Class B competition, Winnebago beat Elkhorn, 26-28, in overtime play. Another overtime victory occurred in Class C with Duncan's score of 29-27 over Comstock.

Other Class B games and their results were: Friend over Fairmont, 43-19; Minatare over Culbertson, 38-24; and O'Neill over West Point Guardian Angel 29-20.

Class C results were: Thayer over Bratton Union 28-21; Trumbull over Grafton 22-21; and Republican City over Dwight Assumption 28-19.

Kansas State is another Big Six team entered, with Elmer Hackney, shot put; Thaine High, two-mile; Louis Akers, 60; Darold Dodge, Ed Darden; hurdles, entered in individual events. The Wildcats will also enter medley and two-mile relay teams.
