

Reg'lar ol' grind...

Turns thoughts to time of summer parties, formals

By Mary Jean McCarthy.

As we get back into the swing of a reg'lar old "just plain week" everyone is looking forward to the spring house parties and summer formals which will soon be zooming forth. But most outstanding of all probably is the stupendous Golden Spike celebration which will take place in Omaha near the end of May. Many of the campusites are already making their plans for a glorious week-end or maybe just a "weak" end. Who who knows?

Crosby, as they announced their formal engagement the other day.

FROM THE FAR EAST

came Art Rushton to see Theta Hap McIntosh and to see if everything was still running smoothly between them. Seems like a certain Beta didn't like the idea either, course can't blame him much I guess, for they say, two's company and three is, well, one too many.

THE MOST ATTRACTIVE

couple at the Policeman's ball, from all reports was Kappa Sue Woodruff and Phi Delt Jim Cain. Knowing Jim and Sue, they must have really enjoyed it.

TONIGHT

the Alpha Phis will have an exchange dinner with the DUs.

IT'S UN-BEARDABLE

that is, when we consider the appearance of many of the Sigma Nus who are letting the long dark whiskers grow for their Gold Rush party. Can't you just see them at their spring formal Saturday whisking along. Some of those present will be Preston Hayes and Kappa Jeannette Zimmerer; Wally Engdahl and DG Polly Perkins; Theta Aline Hosman and Bob Livengood; and John Hill with Beth Howley.

SOMETHINGS FISHY

about the rumor of Betas Harry Rinder, Mac Howell, and Piker Davis who went all the way to Crete Sunday to fish and then didn't even see a lake until midnight, and finally when they did see one—they didn't fish. Don't you think it's fishy???

COMING SOON

will be the Beta Crud party which will take place on April 19. The Kappa Kongo on April 13th and the Kappa Sig pledge party on April 27.

ELECTIONS

took place at the Gamma Phi house and the new officers are Peggy West, president; Marion Bradstreet, vice president; Betty Fosberg, recording secretary, and Irene Hollenback, treasurer. At the Delt house Gordon Jones stepped into the shoes of president; Bob McCampbell, vice president, and Ed Dosek, guide.

BREAKING RECORDS

are the Thetas who have called at all of the sorority and fraternity houses with a specially made record inviting all to their Music Party Friday night. Eleanor Elliot will be there with Roger Gary, Sig Alph, Ruth McMillan with Don Schultz, Kappa Sig; and Louise Leffler with DU Bill Niehus.

PINNINGS STILL OCCUR

and the newest to fall in line are Tri Delt Cay Deurmeyer and Beta Ted Welton, and Kappa Mary Ella Bennett with Sigma Nu Jim Kirkendall, who have decided to start all over.

CONFUCIUS SAY

when spring comes, a young man's fancy turns to baseball and other sorts of pitching. Woo woo!

'THAT LONG LAST

love,' will be climaxed on June 23 by the wedding of DG alum Kay Huwaldt and Beta alum "Bing"

Leaders--

He also pointed out that we grow up to our bigger moments in life, and that executiveships on the campus help to prepare one for greater responsibilities in the future.

At noon yesterday there was an inter-organization council luncheon in the Student Union for the presidents, past and present, of all women's organizations.

The conference will close with a general meeting at 5 p. m. today at which Kenneth Van Sant, director of the Student Union, will speak on the origin and facilities of the Student Union. There will be a discussion of the women's point system following Van Sant's address.

During February, 1940, a West Virginia university librarian discovered, in checking out a book, that it had been used last in May, 1901.

Ohio State university students spend an average of 95 cents a month for soft drinks.

Oh, Mr. Hitler, did you hear--?

The Nazi-American bund has nothing on a new organization at the University of Cincinnati. Students have formed a Scotch American bund, with members wearing identifying colors of burnt orange and green. When members meet, they raise their hands and say, "Hell, Adolph, what's the use!" Daring youth, don't you think, with Mr. Dies investigation of everything and everybody that assumes a foreign name!

Hugh Stuart, Harold Alexis. Intercollegiate debaters judge. Speaking will be for six and four minutes for all engaged. Judges will be inter-collegiate debaters at Nebraska for the last few years. One judge will be used in all debates until the final round, when three will be used. No team will be eliminated until it has debated on both sides of the question.

Crime--

he said, "it isn't until a man works with his hands that he makes progress. Manual labor is the basis of civilization."

At the close of his lecture, Dr. Hooton illustrated the historical sequence of race types by the use of slides. His illustrations included pictures of people typical of the British Isles, Nordic types, and French and German types. His last picture was of the "Angel," recently publicized French wrestler, explaining that the gigantic size of the "Angel's" head, hands, and feet were caused by a disturbance of the pituitary gland.

Dr. Hooton was brought here from Harvard by the convocations committee and the Student Union. After his convocation yesterday he was honored at an informal luncheon given by Dr. J. O. Hertzler and the department of sociology faculty, to which faculty members and administration officers were invited. Immediately following the forum which he conducted in the afternoon, he boarded a train for Albuquerque, New Mexico, where he will lecture.
