

Announcement that... Larry Clinton to swing out brings favorable comments

By Agnes Wanek.

The announcement that Larry Clinton and his band will play for the Student Union anniversary party has created more favorable comment on the campus than any other happening for many a moon... maybe this will give the glamor girls and guys a chance to support something really big... When these cold, cold winds blow everyone seeks shelter and fun in the Corn Crib... anyway Kappa Sig Jack Clarke came in looking for fun and trouble... Men about town Dick Doty, Beta, and Frank Day, Sigma Nu, forgetting about the trials and tribulations of law school over a coke?... Pi Phi Grace Hill too excited about her trip back to Oklahoma... Phi Delt Al Ashworth and Ben James frowning about something... this is probably the first time anyone has ever seen Ben in a serious mood... Tri Delta Mary Gayer waiting for Ditto Betty Ann Green to talk to Alpha Chi Connie Rathburn... DU's Milt Meyer and Ed Smith hurrying out of the Union... Everbody anxious to hear Herbie Kay Sunday night... and looking forward to happy week-ending...

PICNICS AND STUFF

will be the theme of the Tri Delt house party, and some time has been spent on having appropriate decorations. Ruth Satterlee will be there with Leonard Dunker, DU, and Betty Adair with SAE Dick Strasser. This may surprise you but Mary Anna Cockle, of Chi Phi and Dartmouth fame will appear with Delt Bill Sawtell, better known as Beta "Doc" Elias' roommate.

VISITING

at the Delta Gamma house will be their national vice president, Miss Roberta Abernathy, from Columbus, Ohio. Arriving Friday, she will be feted at a luncheon Saturday at the home of Mrs. Clarence Swanson, and Saturday night a formal dinner will be held at the chapter house in her honor.

LIONS 'N' TIGERS

'n' everything will be on parade at the Kappa Kongo Friday night, and it promises to be one of the most unusual of house parties. The downstairs will be decorated like a bamboo hut, with banana and palm trees all 'round. Beware, though, for you have to walk into a lion's mouth to enter. Unusual combinations will be Mary Beeson and Phi Psi Bob Guenzel, Dorothy Koenig and Sigma Nu Jack Lee, Ann McLaughlin and ATO Bob Schlater, and Jean Cullinan and Phi Psi Mack Dow.

HAPPY AS THE DAY IS LONG

is Betty Ann Patton of the Tri Delt house, who has found out that she is definitely allergic to the fur coat that she is getting tired of wearing. And then, too, one of her sorority sisters was very much surprised the other night, when Acacia Elton Wiley called for Betty Ann instead of Pris Wicks, his used-to-be.

THETA XIS

will hold their spring party tomorrow evening at Broadview. Ervin Haase will be there with Alpha Xi Delta Helen Jones, Dale Anderson with Tri Delt Jean Lud-wick, Jim Bucher with Phi Phi Susan Shaw, and Jim Claussen with Joanna Keller.

RECENT ADDITION to the pledge class of AOPi is Kathryn Hanley. Kappa Delta also announces the pledging of Janet Kenny.

AND CONFIDENTIALLY

from what is supposed to be an authentic source, we learn that DU Bob Nelson and Tri Delta Olive Speith have been going steady since last Saturday night.

Barbs to honor outstanding frosh

A gold recognition key will be awarded at the Barb Spring banquet May 10 to the barb freshman boy who has done the most outstanding work in barb activities during the year. The key is being given by Long's Bookstore, and will become an annual award. One freshman will be chosen each year to receive the honor award by the presidents of the Barb Union and the Barb Council and Johnny Johnsen, manager of the book store.

Bands —

at the Turnpike Sunday, Herbie Kay and his divers jivers will keep the dancers jivin'. Herbie's bunch are going to give some of the local campus talent the opportunity to groove some records with them. Everything is free, and the record will be given to the person making it, according to Junior Irving, who is in charge of receiving the applications.

Lee Dixon is going to play at the Turnpike Friday and Saturday nights, and Freddie Edener will take over the Pla-Mor for this week-end.

Religious Welfare council elects Drew as prexy

Robert E. Drew, Methodist student pastor, was elected president for 1940-41 of the University Religious Welfare council at council meeting yesterday noon. Esther Stuermer, Baptist student representative, was elected vice-president, and Esther Ostlund, YWCA secretary, was chosen secretary.

Leading the new cabinet will be R. B. Henry as chairman of the survey committee. Forbes as faculty member, Dr. Gerald M. Kendall as student pastor and Lowell Johnson as representative of the students were elected "sans portfolio" to the survey committee, which chairmen of committees, to be elected, will join.

Worth saving?

Asking "Are Our Skins Worth Saving?" Dr. D. A. Worcester, retiring president of the council, told the groups that "We must be able to give a moral reason for staying out of the war. But also, if we go in we must give a sound moral reason for going in. The important thing is not to let emotions run away with us, and to judge values sanely by their merits."

Book Nook buys 40 new volumes

A student committee headed by Helen Claybaugh, Union board member, selected about 40 books for the Book Nook this year. Chosen from lists of the best releases of the year, the books include those issued by the Book of the Month club. Among these are "Northwest Passage" by Kenneth Roberts, "Trees" by Conrad Richter, "Native Son" by Richard Wright, "Modern American Painting" by Peyton Boswell. Soon to be added are Sir Neville Henderson's "Failure of a Mission" and Will Durant's "Life of Greece."
