Yales whip Harvards 20-6

Sig Alphas lead in I-M standings

SAE's have 765 points with Beta's at 742; softball decides winner

Sigma Alpha Epsilon continues to lead the fraternity intramural race for the Jack Best cup after ping pong and bowling points being added, but they are only thirteen points ahead of the Beta's.

Handball points have not been added, but will make no difference in the case of either team. Outcome of the race depends upon the team's performances in the softball play in progress at present. If either the Beta's or SAE's win, they take the cup for sure. The Sig Alphas won both the baseball tournament and the Best trophy last year. Phi Gamma Delta, Phi Delta Theta, and Alpha Tau Omega are in the next three places, but only the SAE's and Beta's have a chance to win the trophy.

Handball finals have been postponed until Monday afternoon, as the Sigma Nu's meet Sigma Alpha Mu. The ATO's and Kappa Sigs will play for third place. Should Sigma Alpha Mu win handball, it will be their tenth crown in thirteen years.

Standings of the first five teams:

- Sigma Alpha Epsilon 765
- Beta Theta Pi 742
- Phi Gamma Delta 590
- Phi Delta Theta 578
- Alpha Tau Omega 540

Palladians. In this "comical-tragedy" Dracula came to Sunnybrook to room with a farmer and his children. Dracula killed the children as fast as he could, but the farmer didn't complain much until Dracula got his hired man. The farmer couldn't be killed and Dracula was taken care of at the conclusion.

The Blue Heaven Barbs presented a shadowgram "Phoocy Chop Suey." In this Paul Owen, star 880 man on the track team, shows how chop suey eating ruined his track career.

Baldwin's Black Boys gave a minstrel show with Joe Shaughnessy, tenor, as soloist.

Art Hendrickson was a girl reporter in the "Case of the Missing Bier" or "The Missing Case of Beer." In this farce he supplied the force with many heart throbs.

Eli's gain early lead over Reds

Rubottom, Francis, Vincent, Simmons make touchdowns

Biff Jones sent his gridiron charges through their last Saturday scrimmage of the year yesterday, and the Yale squad rolled out a 20-6 verdict over the Harvards. Vike Francis, Jack Vincent and Ken Simmons made the winners' touchdowns, while the Harvards sent Don Rubottom across for the afternoon's last score.

The Husker mentor started his first teams against each other, although he had Jerry Kathol in at left end with the starters, and soon substituted Charles Duda at the right wing.

Neither team could do much early in the scrimmage, but first blood of the afternoon came as Harry Hopp punted out of bounds on the Harvard ten. The Biffer ordered the Reds to try a pass at that point, but Vike Francis intercepted Dale Bradley's toss on the 20, and got back to the 16. Vike got 5, Hopp got 4, then Vike made it first and ten on the five. Hopp got to the one yard line in two tries, then Francis scored. Hastings Harry kicked the extra point.

Reds fumble

Jones then gave the Reds the ball on the Eli's 20, but on the second play, Marvin Thompson, who has been on the Yale first team as end this week, tackled Butch Luther and recovered the Red player's fumble.

The Biffer changed teams, and sent the second Yale lineup in against a mixed Harvard outfit, mostly third stringers with the exception of first team ends, Prochaska and Preston.

Another pass interception set up the pins for a score as Howard Kelly, Blues' center, intercepted Ernie Weekes' toss early in the period on the Harvard's 32. Kenny Simmons, who was driving hard all afternoon, found a hole for 14 yards to the 18, and on three more tries the Blues got to the 13. Jack Vincent, on the seconds in place of John Thompson, found a hole, and scored standing up on fourth down. His extra point try was no good.

Simmons and Vincent were the kingpins in the Blues' third touchdown, leading the Eli's on a 65 yard march when they took the ball on their own 35 immediately following Vincent's score.

Pass goes for 36 yards

They collaborated in giving the Yale's a first down, then, after a short gain by Simmons, Vincent broke through for 19 yards to the Harvard 33. He then stepped back

Homers feature Saturday's play in I-M softball

Yesterday afternoon's softball games were thrillers with at least one home run in each game. There were only three games, the Phi Deltas defeated the Beta Sigs 8 to 4 in a tough battle. The win was due in a large part to a home run by Phil Anwyl with the bases loaded.

The DU's lost to the Chi Phi's 10 to 9, the game being nip and tuck all the way through. Bob Nelson hit a home run for the DU's. In the third contest the Sig Alpha's swamped the PKA's, 15 to 2, the losers making all their scores in their first time up. Harold Osbourne did the pitching and drove in the only home run for the Sig Alphas.

Friday scores:

- League 1. Alpha Tau Omega 5...Phi Kappa Psi 3
- League 2. Sigma Nu 10...Sigma Phi Epsilon 7
- League 3. Delta Theta Phi 6...Sigma Chi 5
- Kappa Sigma 5...Sigma Alpha Mu 2
- League 5. Delta Tau Delta 7...Delta Sigma Pi 6
- Farm House 2...Phi Gamma Delta 1

Littler works out after leg injury

Red Littler, who Thursday pulled a leg muscle, found the injury wasn't very serious, and the Mitchell Redhead was working out yesterday afternoon.

No particular time trials were made as varsity, frosh and high school men worked outside on the stadium track.

Warren Radtke, Council Bluffs sophomore, who was fourth in the Big Six indoor quartermile, has been lost to the team for the rest of the season because of ineligibility.

and tossed a pass to Leo Fisher to put the ball on the 7.

Ray Prochaska tossed Vincent for a one yard loss on the first play, but Jack got four back on the next. The Yale's scored from the four when Simmons took a lateral from Vincent. He fumbled out of bounds just after he crossed the goal, but the score counted. Vincent missed the extra point try.

The next period found the Yale firsts facing the Harvard seconds. Vike Francis led a drive to the 7, after Ed Nyden had recovered a fumble on the 26, but the Reds braced, and a fourth down pass from Hopp to Bob Kahler was incomplete from the 12 over the goal line.

Seconds score

The Harvard's second team scored on the Eli's first, though, in that period, on a 53-yard drive after Marvin Athey had intercepted Harry Hopp's pass and run it back 25 yards to his own 47.

Blue picked up six yards, and a Rubottom to Jack Hazen pass put the ball on the Reds' 35. Two plays later Athey grabbed a short pass from Rubottom and ran 23 yards to the 13, from which point it was nearly all Rubottom. He picked up 4, then 5 yards, and after Wayne Blue made it a first and goal to go on the 2, the Gering player scored. Schleich's try for the extra point was no good.

Jones put the Harvard firsts in against the Yale's seconds, but a Red fumble which the Eli's recovered on the Eli 21, and Fisher's interception of a Harvard pass on his 31 did away with Harvard threats.

Frosh hurlers allow three hits as varsity loses, 9-2

By Jim Evinger.

Nebraska's varsity ball nine took a lesson from the freshmen, Saturday afternoon on the athletic field, but suffered a 9 to 2 setback in learning a few new tricks. In the first place, the yearling pitchers were decidedly in form. Lawrence Schmadeke and Angelo Ossino held the varsity to three blows.

In the second place, the freshmen took picks on Coach Wilbur Knight's fifth and sixth ranking chuckers—Bob Garey and Ernie Swanson. The hitting onslaught totaled 13 safeties.

Coffman gets homer.

Frank Coffman, second sacker, started the frosh off in fine style by slapping out a home run in the first inning with Clair Miller on base. Starting Chucker Bob Garey held the yearlings in tow until the fifth and the fireworks started anew. Before the heat had died down, the frosh had pushed across four more scores.

Swanson took up from there for the varsity and allowed three runs in the seventh to conclude the scoring.

The varsity pair of runs came in single counts in the first inning and again in the fifth canto. John McDermott crossed the plate in the first, while Frank Rubino scored the second run.

Varsity gets three hits.

Credit should be given to the frosh hurlers for the victory. Schmadeke allowed only three bingles in his five innings of toil on the mound while Ossino issued nary a hit.

Hitting honors for the day went to Frank Coffman with a homer and a double and Dean Jackson with a triple for the freshmen. The varsity seconds and the freshmen reserves also went thru a practice game with the upperclassmen winning. Another game

Tennis team narrowed to six members

With the first tennis match less than a week away, Assistant Coach Voris Peden has finally narrowed his team down to six members. Number 1 in the rankings will again be Harold Rundle, runnerup to the Big Six championship in the singles for the past two years.

Johnny Huston, who got a late start, has been coming in to form in fast style and has taken over the number 2 spot with Harry Ankeny playing number 3 man. Charles Eberline has defeated the remaining squad members in a round robin tournament and has earned number 4 position. Don Schulz, the only other letterman retaining a post, is the number 5 man with Chuck McNurlin in number 6.
