This kind of weekend makes campus appreciate loafing

This is the kind of weekend when one begins to appreciate the absolute pleasure of loafing. With a sun beating down hot enough to produce a beautiful tan and to warm the water enough for us to swim, it is much too great a temptation to forget about the million things that have to be done . . . but everyone did anyway. At any rate, there were only a few people left on the campus Saturday afternoon. The Phi Psi front porch and the Beta roof, usually packed, were minus the usual crowd . . .

Nus who were being carted around all painted up and minus a shirt or two, it was only the sophomores who were being repaid by the freshmen for some of the "hardships" the freshmen suffered during the year. The prizes must have gone to Leslie Johnson for jumping up the Theta terrace with his hands and feet tied and to Bob Livengood who got away.

cannot entertain callers at their houses after 11 p. m., with the exception of Saturday evening when the hour is 11:45. University parties may be given only on Friday and Saturday evenings and on evenings immediately preceding holidays. In the case of formal parties permission later than 1 a. m., is granted.

Missouri.

Missouri U. rules require that girls be in by 12:15 on Friday and Saturday nights, 11:30 on Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday nights. They may stay out until 12:45 on Friday nights if they have attended a dance which has closed at midnight, and until 1:45 if the dance has lasted until 1. They may stay out to 1 o'clock dances only on Friday nights. Each student is allowed 30 late minutes per semester. If she exceeds this limit, she is subject to punishment and is called before a judiciary board.

Northwestern

At Northwestern U. freshman girls must be in by 8:30 week nights, and 10 o'clock Sunday nights. Upperclassmen must be home by 10:30 week nights and 11 Sunday nights. All girls may remain out until 2 o'clock on Germanics group presents 'Emil und Detektive'

Last of the German film series for this season is "Emil und die Detektive," to be shown Thursday, May 16, at 4:30, 7:30, and 9:00 in the Union ballroom.

The popular filming of the German schoolboy's capture of a notorious thief will be presented under the auspices of the Germanic language department. Admission is 25 cents or a season ticket.

Written by Erich Kaestner and filmed in 1930, the story has had such widespread popularity that most beginning German classes include it on their reading list.

Emil, a schoolboy who lives in a small German town with his mother, goes to Berlin on a visit to his relatives, and his hoarded money is stolen on the trip. In Berlin with the help of another youth he chases the suspect and receives a reward for his capture.

weekends, and 3 o'clock permissions are given for the three big annual dances.

Ohio State

All girls at Ohio State check out when they leave the house and check in when they return, on all nights but Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday. They must be in by 10:30 week nights and 12 weekends. Freshmen may stay out on a week night until 12 once a month (called a midweek). Sophomores, juniors, and seniors may have two, three, and four midweeks a month, respectively. Special permission is granted for big university dances until 1 or 2 a. m.

Oklahoma.

At Oklahoma U. dates are allowed in women's and men's residences until midnight on Friday and Saturday nights, and until 10:30 on Sunday night, but they are not permitted on other nights of the week inside the houses.

Purdue

Purdue university requires women to be in their residences by 11 p. m. on week nights. They may stay out until 1 a. m. on Fridays and Saturdays. A student organization, the Women's Self-Government association, regulates the hours.

Stanford

At Stanford, freshman women are given one 2:30 and one 12 o'clock leave per week. Other women, in good academic standing, get two 2:30 leaves and one mid-week 12:00 leave, with special late leaves accorded for women in activities and to all women for special occasions up to 3:30 a. m.

Texas

At Texas U. the Board of Regents have set down rules which state that women must be home by 11 week nights. However, they are allowed a 1:45 deadline on weekends. Dances are positively not allowed during the week.

Washington.

At the University of Washington A. W. S. rules provide for 10:30 week-day nights and 2 a. m. on Friday and Saturday nights and nights immediately preceding holidays. On Wednesday nights 1 o'clock leave may be obtained with the number depending upon grade averages. Men may be entertained in houses until 7:30 on Friday and Saturday nights, and 10:30 on Sunday nights. Occasionally 2:30 nights are granted.

ON THE ROCKS

is the romance of ATO Dick Stastny and Gamma Phi Gerry Hawkins, one of the attendants to this year's Best Dressed Girl. There's an old saying that for every broken romance, there is one with a brighter outlook. Maybe that one in this case is the affair between Gamma Phi Peggy West and Bob Radcliff, a Phi Gam at Iowa State, for Peggy is now wearing a diamond ring in addition to his fraternity pin.
