

New Cornhusker ...

Holds attention as groups gather to see who's who

By Agnes Wanek.
If you see groups of students hovering over an article that they all want to see at once, don't be surprised; they are only trying to decide what they think of the new edition of the Cornhusker. Bound in the traditional scarlet and cream colors, it tells the story of the year which is nearly past. And of course, the year's society is nearing the end of its reign. And these last few issues will bring to a close the daring doings of the campus gadabouts.

NO MORE DIAMONDS

for Theta Marie Anderson, because that sparkler she has been wearing for these many months has found its way back to the giver. And while her name has been connected with that of Sig Alph Burdette Wertman for some time, reports have it that Don Fitz of basketball fame has the inside track in her affections.

RECENT PLEDGINGS:

Kenneth Burton, of Grand Island, Leo Fisher of Potter, and Harold Schoiz of Duncan are now wearing pledge buttons of Theta Xi. Sigma Phi Epsilon announces the pledging of John Loisel and Howard Liston.

DOUBLE TROUBLE

by long distance is bothering Kappa Jeanne Newell. Long before she became pinned to Sigma Nu Bill Mowbray, she had gone steady (at different times, of course) with Beta Bob Gannon and Sigma Chi Frank Coufal, both graduated. And the double trouble comes in because Bob and Frank are both working in Chicago and share the same apartment ... a situation Jeanne is not too happy about.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

of a month ago will be celebrated tonight by ATO Bob Sandberg at a dinner he is giving for the Bachelors' club. The name hardly seems fitting because, if you glance at their roster of six names, you will find ATO John Mason, DU Avery Forke, Beta Jack Stewart, Phi Gam Willard Mertz, and Sigma Nu Nate Holman, most of whom are either going steady or have hung their pins ... and recently. The catch is that each member must give a party for the others whenever a pin-hanging, birthday, or steady deal occurs.

ESPECIALLY ANXIOUS

to have their candy passings recorded are the Kappa Deltas who were treated twice Monday night ... Jo Robeck and Delta Sig Bill Turney and Doris Ripley and Roger Manners surprised the sisters.

Stogies went to the Theta Xis when the engagement of Gordon Worley and Jeneva Baker was announced.

Pi Phi Helen Kelley is now wearing a lovely diamond, given to her by Kappa Sig Harold Hopkins to climax their candy passing of Monday night.

IN CONTRAST

to the many new pin-hangings and steady deals, is the breakup of the romance between Pi Phi Pete Horner and Sigma Nu Len Dirks. Altho they are still seen around together, she is no longer wearing the five-armed star.

BACK FROM

Galesburg yesterday were Bettie Cox, Marion Cramer and Dick deBrown. Marion, who lives in Galesburg, went back to Illinois to see her hometown bask in the limelight of Paramount's premiere and to cheer on Nebraska's Campus Queen Cox. When Mary Lou Bullard, West Virginia Kappa, won the title, however, Kappa Cramer congratulated Kappa Bullard. At the same time, Beta Dick deBrown beamed to see a West Virginia Beta diamond gracing Miss Bullard. Altho missing the final queen title, Bettie Cox con-

Brandon Backlund, Phi Delta Theta, and president of the Progressive faction, explained the Progressive action in forming the new party as a completely valid and legal attempt to gain representation, made necessary by the coalition of Barbs and Liberals. He also stated that the Bizad college, as the second largest college of the university is seriously underrepresented on the Council, and deserves more than the two representatives which it has at the present time.

The election will be supervised by Student Council and faculty members. Rules for voting are:

to vote for barb council members. Requirements for ag students voting for members of ag boards are:
