

With final issue society reporters dedicate column to social would-be's, has-beens, etc.

By Mary Jean McCarthy and Agnes Wanek.

There's an old saying that all good things must come to an end, but good or bad, this is the last time you will read about the comings and goings of our socialites. And for the first time, we will make a dedication of this column...to those future society writers and those future society doers, the would-be's, the has-beens, and soon-to-be's. Maybe we've exaggerated stories of engagements, candy passings, steady deals, maybe we've been wrong, maybe we've been right, but whatever we've done, it has been because we thought you'd like to read it. If feelings have been hurt, we're sorry, and if you've been amused we're glad. In any case this is the end. And as all endings are sad, if you'll pardon the sentimentality, we regret the passing of another year, a year which has been fun for all and all for fun.

AT THE RACES

Midget autos at that, campusites are whiling away their leisure hours of which there are too few these days. Thetas Toddy Ben-nison and Ann Beard and Sig Alphas Bob Ludwick and Lloyd Wright were peering through the dust at the racers, when Betas Harry Rinder and Jack Hyland walked in with Alpha Phi Mary Fran Kier and Pi Phi Jane shaw. You might also have seen Don Fitz and Harry Pitcaithley, DU Ernie Weeks and Daul Engelhart and Acacias Harvey Minnick and Gordon Milligan.

HANGINGS STILL OCCUR

And for our last bit of "who is it" we might mention that of Kappa Betty Burgess and Phi Psi Bill ample. Will this hold together after Betty moves to Chicago? And the pin that Pi Phi Ann Beth Keith has been wearing secretly for over a week, she is finally wearing for all the world to see. It formerly belonged to Delt Bob McCampbell. Then too, Tri Delta Ruthie Iverson is now flashing the star of Sigma Nu Curt Ralston. And over the weekend Pi Phi Georgia Walker acquired the pin of Beta Stan Huffman. And for those of you who like riddles, you can try to guess what Kappa has secretly been wearing a Phi Psi shield since Christmas.

PARDON ME IF I BLUSH!

but who wouldn't, according to Phi Gam Marv Thompson. The other night he was getting all set to hang his pin on AOPi Kay Hanley, then kerplash, it wasn't there (not Kay, the pin). It seems it got lost in the middle of the Tussle, but Marv is once again wearing it. But for how long?

TIME WAITS FOR NO MAN

not even Sig Alph Joe Dye who was all set to pull the biggest surprise candy passing of the year with Kappa Molly Woodward, but at the last minute necessary articles such as candy and a plaque were not available. Poor Sig Alphas, poor Kappas, poor column, for this would have been a fitting climax to the caperings of Cupid.

PICNICKING

at Crete Sunday were Betty Hill-yer, Theta of last year, Florence Moll, Alpha Phi, and Deltas, Dow Wilson and Paul Amen. Dow and Paul tried out the water but found it was a little cold for swimming.

THERE'S SOMETHING ABOUT A PILOT

according to Alpha Xi Delta Dor-othy Perrin, because she has di-vided her time rather consistently between Darrel Hayes and a fly-ing school cadet, who've both gone into a spin over her.

CLIMAXING

the roundabout affair of Sigma Nu Howard Marshall and Pi Phi Marj Barnett, now of Bronxville, New York, is the announcement of their engagement in Omaha and New York papers. The wed-ding will take place in the early part of August in Omaha. Jane Wilson and Ruth Fox will be her sorority sister-bridesmaids.

THE UNEXPECTED

continues to occur...and now it is the break-up of the romance be-tween Alpha Chi Mary Bullock and Smith Davis...and we wonder whether Sigma Chi Allen Leffer-dink will make up his mind be-tween AOPi Jane Pratt and Alpha Chi Marion Cooper.

PINCH HITTERS

in the way of society writing were Sigma Nu Paul Svoboda and Kappa Sig Chris Petersen whose efforts you read Sunday. Variety is the spice of life, but for them it is the end of such goings-on for they have resigned from writing such trivia and will henceforth limit their work to "Scrap Irony" and news editing.

Panhel makes rush changes; chooses Clayton as president

Election of officers for next year and changing rushing rules have occupied the Women's Pan-hellenic council in its last few meetings of the year.

New president is Jeanette Clay-ton, Sigma Kappa; and the new secretary is Shirley Epstein, Sig-ma Delta Tau. Members of the Panhellenic board are: Miss Hor-tense Allen, chairman; Dr. Ruth Odell and Miss Louise Alway, fac-ulty members; Mrs. Ruth Schmel-kin, member-at-large; and Miss Helen Hosp, dean of women.

First change in this year's so-rority rushing rules is the restora-tion of summer rushing, which was not allowed last year. The first three weeks in August, from the first to the twenty-first, shall be open for rushing. There will be no restrictions except for a money limit of $200. This amount applies to all actives or alumnae sorority members or any person assisting in rushing.

There is no restriction on the number of letters a sorority may write to rushees. Last year, groups were limited to one letter to a rushee.

Formal rush week will start Saturday, Sept. 7. From that time until the end of rushing, Tuesday evening, Sept. 10, all rushees will live in the women's dormitories. There will be no telephone calls from sororities to rushees except in the form of mes-sages to be de-livered to the rushee.

There will be seven parties dur-ing formal rush week, as follows: Saturday, 3-5 and 8-10 p. m.; Sun-day, 3-5 and 8-10 p. m.; Monday, 12-2:30 and 8-10 p. m.; and Tues-day, 11-1:30 p. m. The preferen-tial party will be Tuesday even-ing.
