

The DAILY NEBRASKAN

Sports Arena

Of interest to all Nebraska football fans is the fact that every Cornhusker grid game this year will be announced over the radio... Network broadcasts will begin next Saturday, but the Huskers will not experience an airing until the following weekend at Minneapolis.

KFAB will handle all of the Cornhusker broadcasts this year with Bob Russell at the mike... Russell described the Husker games last year and has a wide knowledge of football and is familiar with Nebraska gridders... Husing, Stern to report.

The outstanding games of the nation on the CBS network will be announced by Ted Husing, while Bill Stern will handle the NBC coverage of important grid battles... About 3,000,000 will be spent this year to bring to football fans of the nation games of national importance and interest...

Both major networks are in line to announce the Minnesota-Washington match on Saturday, while NBC and Mutual will cover the Pittsburgh-Ohio State game the same day...

Many sports commentators will be airing various football results and sports round tables... John Bentley of the Lincoln Journal and Lyell Bremer of KFOR will both have programs relating about sports in general... Along the national networks, Red Grange will be ready with his football opinions.

What about the Browns?
Odds and ends: During this time when the Cleveland Indians and the Detroit Tigers, yes, and even the New York Yankees are having such a battle for first place, there is a team that is being overlooked in all the excitement...

This team isn't going anywhere, but down near the bottom of the American league the St. Louis Browns are having a real party among the cellar dwellers... Thru Saturday the Mound City boys had won four in a row and nine of their last ten games before losing again on Sunday...

"Dixie" Howell back again?
In Saturday's Cleveland-Detroit clash, a relief pitcher by the name of Millard Howell, late of Wilkes-Barre, was shoved into the battle... Could that be the same "Dixie" Howell who passed touchdown passes to Don Hutson, now of Green Bay's Packers, in the Rose Bowl several years ago? ... Could be...

There is one team in the state of Nebraska that really has a record of which to be proud... This team has won 36 consecutive games... It has just started its sixth year without a defeat... Give up?... Okay, it's Boys Town from up Omaha way...

Christman, Missouri's Big Six champions on the spot

Editor's Note: This is the fourth in a series of articles concerning Nebraska's 1940 football opponents.

By Mick Bierbower

Missouri, defending champions of the Big Six, will open their 1940 season this Saturday with St. Louis at Columbia. Following games are with Pittsburgh, Kansas State, Iowa State, Nebraska, New York U., Colorado and Oklahoma. The Cornhuskers will entertain Missouri in Lincoln, October 26.

The Tigers will be short on ends this year. The Orf twins, Bob and Bud, Blaine Currence and Stillman Rouse, are missing along with 11 other lettermen. Jack Lister, promising soph end, has suffered a possible fractured wrist. Last year's Tiger attack used many pass receivers, and a shortage of ends would bog down the striking power of the lads from Columbia.

Coach Don Faurot has 16 lettermen returning, including Pitchin' Paul Christman, All-American of 1939. Christman's injured leg is showing continued improvement and in the annual varsity-fresh game at Columbia last Saturday Paul played 15 minutes with no apparent strain on the leg. The varsity won, 58-12.

Missouri should be strong in the backfield this year, with Bill Cunningham, junior fullback, and Christman carrying a large part of the burden. Some outstanding sophomore stars should come from Harry Ice, Red Beattie, Jerry Davis and Ralph Carter.

Weak at ends

The Tiger line, however, probably will be weak due to the loss of ends. Players in the rest of the line should be able to hold their own with opponents, but with no ends to catch Christman's passes Missouri's entire attack would be less effective.

Coach Don Faurot is no pessimist about the chances of the Tigers to repeat in 1940 and if he can develop some good ends from the sophomore crop and returning lettermen, Missouri may be a good chance for a repeat performance in football this year.

WEDNESDAY: Oklahoma.

Cyclones begin play; Missouri, K State next

Iowa State skins Luther college, 27-0; Wildcats, Tigers begin Saturday

Big Six thoroughbreds of the gridiron are still taking their exercises in preparation for the start of the big event—the conference race—and already one of the darkhorses has taken a trial run.

Last Saturday, Iowa State took a test run and the results proved satisfactory to the Cyclone handlers. Luther college was passed up by a 27-0 advantage in which hard running and aerial attacks were both used.

Two more stalwarts go to the starting post this weekend. Missouri faces St. Louis U. on Saturday, Kansas State meets Emporia Teachers on the same day, while the Cyclone entry runs again, only this time on Friday night.

Oklahoma, Nebraska, and Kansas U., however, do not have their first running and public showing until the following Saturday.

Missouri rides high.

Against Missouri yearlings the Tiger strongheart romped over the freshmen by a 58-12 triumph. The ace Tiger jockey, Paul Christman, was riding in good form and tossed two scoring aerial flips.

Kansas divided its team into two squads and the "reds" won over the "whites" by a 35-0 score. Marvin Vandever, Jake Fry, and Ed Hall sparked the scrimmage.

From the Norman, Okla., farm, came the word that the Sooner entry ran through the freshmen in the mud with seven touchdowns. The mudders were sparked in the murky turf by sophomore jockeys.

Kansas State's first stringers rode roughshod over their freshmen, but the second team had trouble on both defense and offense. Gene Fair and Dick Rogers led the running attack.

And up in this part of the Missouri valley, Nebraska's Cornhuskers, as you know, suffered a let-down in scoring, caused by hot weather and a long day of drilling on Friday.

Good news in the Husker camp was in the winds, however, as "Cowboy" Petsch and "King Kong" Kahler were due back in full running stride and ready for duty this week.

One of these days, these potential barnburners are going to be turned loose and some record runs are liable to be scored.

Churches--

be held at the Calvary Church, 11th and Garfield, where an Indian Pow-Pow is on the program. A "good mixer" party is planned at the university Episcopal Church, 13th and R.

Presbyterian.

The Presbyterian Student Center, 333 No. 14th street, will be the scene of a circus party with all the trimmings.

United Brethren.

Planning small informal receptions are the United Brethren Church at the Caldwell Memorial, 18th and M; the Lutheran First Church, 17th and A; and the Congregational First Plymouth Church, 20th and D.

Christian.

A normal church program with the regular service will be held at the First Christian Church, 16th and K.

Methodist.

A "good time" college with students going through every course in the one evening is the feature attraction at the Methodist gathering at the Elm Park church, 29th and Randolph.

The Friday evening parties will be followed by All-University Church next Sunday. Services are scheduled to start at 11 a. m. at almost all the churches.

National Guard will draw five Cornhuskers

Schwartzkopf, Wertman, Rubottom, Greenleaf and Bonahoom to be called

Just how will the call of the Nebraska National Guard affect the Cornhusker football squad is the question that is constantly being asked by fans of the Scarlet and the Cream. Here's the answer:

On Nov. 25, Uncle Sam will step in and draw from the Husker ranks five gridders. Guard Eddie Schwartzkopf, End Burdette Wertman, Halfback Don Rubottom, Center Bob Bonahoom, and guard Francis Greenleaf will head the list.

Track also suffers.

What about other sports? Track will lose services of Harold Brooks a junior miler, but Track Coach Ed Weir plans to use Brooks during the cross-country races this fall.

Basketball will have no players in the Guards, but Coach W. H. Brown, Assistant Track Coach Harold Petz, Team Physician Earl Deppen, and Frosh Basketball Coach Charles Armstrong are officers in the Guard.

Assistant Coach A. J. Lewandowski may be the one to take over control of the basketball team. His chief aid would come from the services of Paul Amen.

New York university has just received a gift of 275 old clocks.

Capital university has an annual Liquidation Day on which all students are expected to settle their indebtedness and pay their bills.

He could have been "The Man Most Likely to Succeed"

but indifference, like using a faulty pen, kept him behind the 8-Ball

Harry had everything, except a sense of discrimination. Perhaps he leaned too heavily on his natural gifts. Anyway he never added to them in college, but laughed things off—like the times his old-fashioned pen ran dry in classes and exams. Our bright alumnus is out in the world today—a man who could have given orders, he is taking them.

Sure, it seems far-fetched, but you'll be surprised what a great big difference it makes in your grades to carry a sure-fire pen like the Parker Sacless Vacumatic.

It's this revolutionary streamlined Beauty that never runs dry unless you let it. For its sacless Television barrel holds nearly twice as much ink as our old type, and it lets you SEE days ahead if it's running low.

It's the only Style that looks like circlets of shimmering velvet—ring upon ring of luminous Pearl and Jet. The One-Hand sacless filler with the "lubricated" Point of extra fine-grained 14K Gold, extra resilient—tipped with Osmiridium that writes "as smooth as oil."

It's the college favorite by nearly 3 to 1—so it rates one "in the Know" to carry the genuine.

Be sure to look for Parker's Blue Diamond—it means Guaranteed for Life. Avoid all substitutes—then you'll have no regrets.
