

By Jo Durce

And the rains came and people's hair got quite uncurled and the Corn-Crib was overflowing with humanity...and people's feet got muddy and they talked about things like ye gods it's getting hot and isn't it nice and cool now and did you know E. B. Isaacson, Tri D who used to wear Herbie Hillman's Phi Gam pin is now wearing his wedding ring to classes...and that a couple of weddings to be are the recently announced engagements of Ibs Waugh, KKG and Mortar Board, to Beta Bob Brownlee, and of Mary Fislar, Chi Omega and beauty queen to Dutch Deitmeyer...

And Phi Delt Charley Harris passed the first cigars of the season...the brother refrained from the customary visit to his bride to be, who's clear away in Omaha... Clutching cokes lately were Bill McKerney, Sig Chi who hasn't been being seen around with different girls since way last spring...the girl across the table was the Kappa Bette Ann Nichols...perhaps Willie's pin is out no more?

Popular among the newest younger set is Alpha Phi pledge

Janet Westover who's been called upon by DU's, Alpha Sigs, and Sigma Nu...

And then among the fraternities' more socially minded pledges there's ATO Perry Fuller, Kappa Sig Dick Berg, and Sigma Nu Bill Donovan who are confining their social talents to no single house...

Pretty serious about the striking blonde from Lincoln high, Geneviene Roberts, is Bob Heinzelman, SAE pledge and all-state basketball player...if the pace to date keeps up you'll see them together often...

Sig Alph Wertmann, commonly called Butch, is alternating between the Kappa and Theta inns...Ruth Haney and Marie Anderson, you know...

People who are dating people now might add Bob Kerl, Kappa Sigma and Joyce Junge, Pi Phi pledge to their list...

Janet Shaw, Alpha O, doesn't waste much time when it comes to repeat performances—night after she was unpinned from Dick Miller, Kappa Sig, she started dating Dick Miller, Phi Gam—from Dick to Dick; thru dick 'n din...

Varsity to feature special student's rate offer tonight

Students will have a chance to make money and save some at the same time tonight when the Varsity theatre will admit students for a special 28 cent rate and "Prof. Spell It" will award cash prizes to smart members of the audience.

The special 28 cent admission price for Wednesday shows will not be effected by the special offer, according to the management.

Over 20 people will win prizes in the spelling contest. Trick spelling stunts have been planned for tonight's special program.

Student rates will be effective between 7 and 8 p. m., provided identification cards are presented at the box office.

Gerald Summers tells experiences as missionary

Tales of adventure from the outpost of civilization geographers call Borneo, where the temperature is 96 degrees the year around even in the few-and-far-between shade, were told to Warren Church Leaguers last night by Gerald Summers, university alumnus who has been stationed there as a missionary for the past 13 years.

Summers and his family have returned to this country so that the Nebraska alum can get his theological degree in absentia from Drew university, Madison, N. J., in October.

The missionary expects to return to the Malayan peninsula on November 1, sailing from San Francisco.

Hosp to address state meeting of student councils

Miss Helen Hosp, dean of women, will speak at the all-state convention of student councils in York Friday. It will be the first all-state convention of council members in Nebraska, and 70 to 100 members of various councils throughout the state are expected to attend.

The theme of the convention is "The American Way." Superintendent Wiltse will open the meetings with an address in the morning. Miss Hosp is guest at luncheon and will speak in the afternoon on "The American Way as it Applies and Extends Toward Our Policies With Other Countries."

Roosevelt-

ments received would seem to indicate that many favored Willkie, but feared the strength of Roosevelt's political machine.

The majority of Roosevelt support comes from the bizad college, with arts and sciences, and engineering students next. Willkie-ites come mostly from arts and sciences, with bizad a close second, and engineering third. Under closer scrutinization, this information is likely to prove misleading, for the bizad college and the arts and sciences college are the two largest on the city campus. Naturally, a majority of those persons questioned would be registered in one of the two.

Reasons for choice.

In asking the opinions of the students, we ran onto several reasons held by pro-Willkie men why Roosevelt should not be elected: "FDR has spent too much money, and is not getting anywhere;" "We need a change—Roosevelt's getting too powerful;" "His (Roosevelt's) foreign policy is rapidly leading us toward war."

The pro-FDRers, too, had their reasons for not electing Willkie, or anyone else except Roosevelt: "Why change horses in the middle of the stream?;" "The NRA, PWA, AAA, and all those other projects have done too much for the people for them not to support Roosevelt this year;" "I favor his national defense program."

Faytinger chosen head of band club

Dick Faytinger was elected president of the university band organization for the ensuing year, at an election held Friday night. Vice-president will be Curtis Wright. Other officers are Bob Slemmons, secretary-treasurer; Harold Larmen, promotion manager; and Dick Koupal, publicity manager.

Fraternity men at Union college spend an average of $68.80 per year more than non-fraternity men.

Largest employers of student help at the University of Florida have signed a code governing wages and labor conditions.
