

Socially Speaking

By Jo Duree

Per usual Monday night tradition sweets and smokes were passed out...the Sammys had cigars from Norm Harris; Alpha Xi Mary Brian and Jim Smith, Acacia, did the pleasant duties...ditto AOPi Elaine Steinhauer and Howard Liston, Sig Ep...and the Phi Gams had Lake street in mind when they whisked over with Curt Geltman and rousingly searched for Betty Dutch, who, wasn't among those present at the Theta house...it seems not only Curt but pledges Charles Hardin and Al Artman also got slightly soaked...

Formal pledgings are beginning to place right along and the Kappa Sigs and Chi Omegas have taken care of that slight chore...

Supposedly all cracked up were Theta Betty Jane Peterson and Sigma Nu Frank Day but somehow they must have rediscovered that they had something besides law school in common for they coke for long hours together and look quite happy about the whole thing...

Bob Sinkey, the vaguely anti-social Kappa Sig boy who a lot of lassies wouldn't mind to date, has been seen not once but twice with Betty Holtorf...

Tonight the Phi Deltas are going to exchange dinner with the Alpha Phi's as are the SAE's and KKG's...wonder if the Phi Deltas are still crowding the atmosphere with the smoke from those rather hayish but quite beautifully engraved Phi Delta Theta cigarettes of rush week...

Reviving the friend ship of last year which had the phenomenal effect of a high school class ring exchange, are Chi Omega Barbara Less and DU Ray Beethe...

many are the chums of that couple who remember that re-exchange via postal messenger and cardboard placard last spring...

Frosty Wilson, Sig Ep, has his pin home again...while on a more cheerful note: more cigars came forth with Phi Gam Gene Schroder passing them for the home town sweetheart and Farm House Norman Devies, who passed with Marjorie Wight...

Union sponsors second dance

'Matinee affairs purely informal' say officials

The second of the weekly matinee dances sponsored by the Union will be held in the ballroom Wednesday at 5 p. m. The dances were inaugurated here last week, and will be held every subsequent Wednesday afternoon from 5 to 6. "These are purely informal affairs, so students need not appear dressed in their new fall outfits," Union officials explained. Ordinary street clothes will be sufficient. Music for the dances is furnished by recorded programs. In order to obtain admission, it is necessary to show identification cards. Dances are open to all students.
