

Socially Speaking

By Jo Durce

It was no home-coming on the books but there were gobs of people seeing the Husker-Indiana fracas . . . and quite a few were out of last year's school directory. . . . SAE John Guthrie who was sporting a lovely "I am an Alum" label on his lapel, as well as brothers Brown and Wilkinson. . . . and Betty Mallo who's wearing a Sig Alph pin was in town, with Paul. . . .

Dorothy Cline was with the Thetas at the game. . . . it was real clubby at the Chi O house what with Ruthie Stephens, and Betty Flory, last year's prexy, back to see their little men . . . and Indiana. . . .

DG's Jane Cook and Polly Windle were there . . . which reminds that quite a few of the DU boys are putting Ann Thomas . . . who incidentally is re-wearing Chuck Davis's ATO emblem since Charles is now in Lincoln. . . . on black lists . . . we must find out why. . . .

And Frank Kudrna, Kappa Sig.

AWS to issue weekly news sheet Monday

First issue of "The Women," weekly news sheet being published by the AWS board, will be distributed to all women on campus tomorrow. The sheet will announce, in condensed form, meetings of special interest to women.

Staff for the publication includes three members of the board: Dorothy White, editor; Betty Newman, assistant editor; and Susan Shaw, distribution.

Copies of "The Women" will be handed to house presidents for distribution in organized houses at a meeting tomorrow afternoon. Other points of distribution are: Student Union, social sciences lounge, library, teachers college, Andrews and Ellen Smith on city campus; ag hall and home economics building on ag campus.

is about, as is P. J. Jensen, Chi Omega he's pinned to. . . .

Clark Wenke, Sig Ep, was real happy this week-end for his best girl, June Ann Hogan, was in Lincoln . . . saw them Turnpiking . . . as were Alpha Phi Pat Hermlinghaus with Del Moore, seemingly quite happy about that whole thing. . . .

Acacias are buffet suppering tonight and it seems that Pat Patterson will be with Alpha Xi Harriet Woods, Ned Eastlack with Alpha Chi Virginia Barron and Bill Hastings with Chi O Lila Hillman. . . .

The Deltas are pledging this morning and will be quite formal about the whole thing . . . they'll breakfast, then pledge and culminate things by going to the First Presbyterian church . . . nice.

Open House yesterday after the game was that of Tri Delta while the AO Pi's are having a tea today honoring Mrs. George Misko. . . . Alpha Sigs dated up people and had a whee of a time, hay rack riding. . . . Walt Cropper with Alpha Phi Betty Purdham, John Sandall with DG Betty

Newman brings most money in YW cash drive

Jane Shaw, YW president, reports that Betty Newman has brought in the most money and pledges in the YW drive for $1,000. The six houses which have contributed the most are: Pi Beta Phi, Raymond Hall, Delta Gamma, Delta Delta Delta, Alpha Phi, and Chi Omega. Faculty members are contributing well. Not all contributions have been reported and the drive is to continue for another week.

There are 142 new members to date. The workers on the membership drive are asked to report daily between 5 and 5:30 p. m. in the dining room at Ellen Smith.

Sinfonia holds fall reception today

Sinfonia's fall reception for new students, to be held in the Union at 3 p. m. today, will feature a short talk by Emanuel Wishnow, a musical program and refreshments. Taking part in the program are Cleve Genzlinger, vocalist; James Price, violinist, and Don Hartman, flutist.

Plans were made at the musical society's meeting Thursday for the Harmony Hour to be held every Thursday at 4 p. m. in the Union music room.

New officers elected for the semester are: Phillip Heller, vice-president and historian, and Gregory Meyer, secretary and warden.

Perry, and Ed Lof was there with KKG Virginia Hay. . . .

Billie Shurtz, little Omaha gal, was in town seeing Kappa Sig Ralph Combs. . . .

It was a great game . . . and while we were all for that Indiana-Nebraska game we want to say that if the rag had only had its Women's page editors, B. Burress and F. Behm, playing in that epic staged the other day when the crowd was so overflowing that the stadium wasn't large enough to encompass both the participants and the spectators . . . anyway it was a great game . . . and the battle axe that Marian Crammer presented Bob Aden with at the half was a beautiful be-ribboned thing. . . .

Uni rifle club holds first meet

First meeting of the university rifle club was held at 5 p. m. Friday afternoon in room 210 of Nebraska hall.

All firing is done on an inside range with a 22 rifle. Dues of one dollar per year are charged which pay for ammunition, medals, range equipment and trips to the varsity team.

The range in Andrew's basement will be opened Oct. 14 and will be open mornings from 9 to 11 on Tuesday and Thursdays and from 1 to 4 each afternoon except Saturday.

In the rifle club is the varsity team of 10, an ROTC team of 15, and a freshman team of 10. Nov. 4 to 8 intramural competition will be held. The remainder of the semester will be spent in team tryouts.

had considerable trouble in tackling the dog. It was up to a bystander to run the dog out of bounds.

Several outstanding punts were witnessed on the field. Our own Hermie Rohrig booted one 65 yards out of bounds on the 1-foot line. Hursh of Indiana also put one out of the 2-yard line.

Vike Francis had a beautiful 53 yard run nullified because of a holding penalty. Francis rammed thru the middle and out into the open for a nice run and one of his best in the Scarlet livery.

Zimmer zims.

Indiana's Zimmer proved to be a thorn in the side of the Nebraska team all afternoon. Only weighing 150 pounds he made up for this lack of weight with his swiftness. He took a Hursh pass on the 5 and ran unhampered over the goal line for the lone Hoosier counter.

Roly Poly Rohrig was having a field day for the Nebraskans. He was in and out of packs of black shirts and was full of drive.

The between half demonstration was one of the best as far as those in the west stand were concerned. The card section and the band should be given a vote of thanks.
