

Frolich leads stamp sale

Have you bought your "N" stamps? The stamp sale, sponsored by the AWS, in advertising the homecoming game. Forty coins, representing both sororities and bars, are working in the sale. Louise Frolich is leading in sales of stamps, having sold $5.00 worth by yesterday evening.

Natalie Burn, in charge of the sale, will be in Ellen Smith hall from 4:45 until 5:00 p. m. today. Anyone wishing to check in or take out more stamps should see here.

ABW to sponsor meeting to explain barb activities

Activities groups will be sponsored by the ABW for the purpose of explaining to all barb girls the nature and function of barb activities and activity points next week. One group will meet with Betty Hutchinson in the barb office Wednesday noon.

Those who are unable to come at this time are invited to Dorothy Jean Bryan's group Tuesday noon or Bonnie Wennersten's group at 4:00 Wednesday.

Danes show film tomorrow night

Tomorrow evening at 7:30 p. m. the local Danish Brotherhood with the co-operation of modern language department will sponsor an all dialogue comedy film, "Sol over Danmark" (Sun over Denmark); starring some of Denmark's most popular motion picture stars, and containing pictures of the Danish countryside in summer.

The plot is built around the vacation trip of two young girls, who travel through picturesque Denmark on bicycles. Also interwoven into the picture is a story of young love, which "conquers all."

The film will be shown at the IOOF Hall at 1108 L St. Admission is 25 cents.

LeRossignol and Spurr will attend industrial meet

Dean J. E. LeRossignol and Prof. W. A. Spurr of the bizad college will attend the general meeting of the Committee of One Hundred yesterday.

The purpose of the Committee of One Hundred, composed of prominent Nebraska business and professional men, is to look into the possibilities of industrial development of Nebraska.

Dean LeRossignol spoke on "Interstate Barriers" at the meeting and Prof. Spurr will talk on "Our Industrial Structure and the Defense Program."

On the following day Dean LeRossignol and Professor Spurr will attend the fourth annual convention of the Associated Industries of Nebraska, also to be held at the Cornhusker hotel. Luncheon speakers at the convention will include R. L. Cochran and Hugh Butler, candidates for the U. S. Senate; and Terry Carpenter and Dwight Griswold, candidates for governor.

Twisting-

(Continued from page 4.) brings his weekly feature to the air at 9 p. m. over KFAB. He will interview Molly Koll, woman sea captain; Helen Bullock, who claims to be the world champion wood-chopper, and Mrs. Josie Bishop, only woman operator of a radium and helium mine.

Saturday.
Old songs of the gas-light era will be sung by Joe Howard, Beatrice Kay and the Four clubmen at a special program at 6:30 over KFAB. The program is to be called the Columbia Gay Nineties Revue.

REALIZATION.

Verlye Mills, harpist on KFAB's Joyce Jordan program has had a secret longing to be an actress ever since her first days in radio. The other day, her golden opportunity came unexpectedly. Thinking Joyce Jordan was off the air, Miss Mills rose from her harp, made a sweeping bow to the cast in a clear bell-like tones said, "I thank you." A moment later, from Kenneth Roberts, announcer, came the station identification. Verlye's voice had finally gone out over a nationwide hookup.

Socially Speaking

By Jo Duree

Migration, and more migration . . . if you're still interested in those who are going to arise at an early hour and trek to KU, here goes . . . Sigma Nu's Bob Krause, Bob Livingood, and John Mackey . . . Tri Delt's Wauney Fisher, and Ruth Ganz . . . while DDD Charlotte Kouba is going with Sig Alph John Thiesen . . . among other Sig Alphas will be Walt Rundin and Bob Hemphill with Pi Phi's Mary Kerrigan and Betty Roach . . . of the Sigma Kappas heading for KU are Elsie Tomish, Hollis Eggers, and Virginia Kirkbridge . . . should be a trip to be remembered. . .

What, mayhap, is this deal between Lucy McLoefferty of the AOP's and DU Don Young . . . they claim it isn't steady but

Oil paintings highlight UN art exhibition

Highlighting the list of exhibitions scheduled for Morrill hall this fall will be the oil painting, drawings, and silk screen prints by Harry Gottlieb to be shown Nov. 11 to 22. Silk screen printing is a new process of painting invented by Gottlieb, a New York artist.

An exhibit of water colors by Barse Miller of California will take the place of the Marsden Hartley exhibit, now in Morrill hall, on Oct. 13. The pictures will be shown in Gallery B until Oct. 26.

Dates and names of the other exhibitions are: Nebraska Artists Exhibition, sponsored by Lincoln Artists Guild, Oct. 27 to Nov. 10; Art Week Exhibition, Nov. 24 to 30, and Lincoln Camera Club Annual Exhibition, Dec. 1 to 15.

Hosp discusses handbook plans

Miss Helen Hosp, speaking at the freshman AWS meeting yesterday, discussed plans for the handbook to be published by freshmen for next year. The handbook will be entirely the work of freshmen, and as far as is known, will be the only book of its kind published by freshmen in any college of the United States. All interested in working on the handbook should see Betty O'Shea.

Tess Casady gave a talk on the activities of WAA, mentioning Orchestras, intramural sports, the WAA cabin, and Tanksterettes, which are sponsored by WAA.

Cecil North represents UN at Ohio inauguration

Cecil C. North, professor of sociology at Ohio State university, who received his B.A. degree from Nebraska in 1902, has been named to represent the university at the formal inauguration of Dr. Howard Landis Bevis as president of Ohio State university at Columbus, Oct. 24 and 25.

Representatives of 300 American colleges and universities and of 32 learned and scientific societies will attend the inauguration ceremonies at which President C. A. Dykstra of the University of Wisconsin and President James C. Conant of Harvard, will speak.

Church-

(Continued from page 3.) worship services at 11 a. m. and 7:45 p. m.

Retreat for all Lutheran students will be held tonight in Antelope Park, sponsored by the Lutheran Student Association of the University of Nebraska. All those needing rides will meet at 5 p. m. at the Temple Theatre. Tickets are 20c. A steak fry, announcements of the Regional Conference, and general entertainment have been planned for the evening. Cars will return to the campus shortly before 8 o'clock.

Roger Williams Club, Baptist student organization, is host to the Nebraska Baptist Young People's State convention to be held October 18, 19 and 20. Miss Margaret Turner, a former student, will serve as the convention chairman. Program for the first day is: registration, 7 p. m. First Baptist Church, 14th and K; recreation hour, welcome, and introductions, First Presbyterian Church, 17th and F, at 8; a play at 9 by the Second Baptist Church group, and at 9:45 a worship service led by Jennie Neill.

they're dated up for the next ten weeks . . .

Instead of whipping down to Lawrence this week-end Delt's Barney Buehl and Dick Boyer are taking their best girls, Pi Phi Susan Shaw and Delta Mary Rokahr, out to the ranching country, duck hunting. . .

Pi Beta Phi's have quite a week-end planned . . . Peggy Weaverling's wedding is Saturday morning in Kansas City, Mo., and practically the whole chapter intends going to see Peggy married and then go on to Lawrence . . . Arrowrites planning thusly are, a few: Ruthie Fox, Anne Kinder, Maxine Fuller, Jeanne Craig, Betty Baker, Georgia Swallow, Margaret Owen . . . and it seems that Virginia Clemans is going to fly up from Norman, Okla. . . and that ATO John Mason is going to Kansas City. . .

Alpha Xi's are in a quandry what with a Province Convention in Kansas—but in Manhattan, Kas. . . consequently people like Prexy Annette Biernbaum, Ben Alice Day, Bernice Askey, etc., will not be watching Nebraska gridiron play. . .

Farmhouses are going to the Farmers Formal and to date some of those who'll be out amongst them are John Fitzgibbon with Janice Marshall, Gamma Phi; Milo Tesar with Hildegarde Baker, Alpha Phi; Bob Lamb and Phyllis

Willkie club plans dance in Union

At the university Willkie-for-President club meeting Tuesday evening in the Union, the group heard and approved the constitution of the organization and formulated tentative plans for a tea dance in the Union next Tuesday at 5 p. m.

The dance is at present scheduled to be held in room 315 with music furnished by a recording machine. This Willkie dance is open to everyone on the campus—republicans, Willkie-ites, non-partisans, democrats for Willkie, and democrats.

Distribution of membership cards for the Willkie club is under way. Anyone who has not yet received his card and button may get them from either Paul Svoboda or Ralph Combs in the NEBRASKAN office any day except Friday and Sunday between 1 and 5 p. m.

A "TISH-U-KNIT" CARDIGAN

Designed by LEON

STYLE C-5052 (C stands for "Chic")—inspired by *JUDY GARLAND, who never fails to make a hit in a "Tish-U-Knit." Smooth-toned Zephyr gets a lively "ribbing" in this Sweater, which is designed to keep you winsome as well as warm in class, on the campus, at play, at leisure—virtually anytime, anywhere! . . . Only $2.98—at shops that have what it takes to keep you well-groomed . . . Write for Style Booklet "C."

*M.G.M. Star—Now Appearing in "STRIKE UP THE BAND"

OLYMPIC

1372 BROADWAY, NEW YORK CITY

Harmony Hour changes made

In an effort to make Harmony Hour more enjoyable, Sinfonia, sponsor of the program, has decided to present a different family of orchestras each week.

Included in the four families are strings, woodwinds, brasses, and percussions. Theme of the program yesterday was strings.

Selections were: Second Movement of Fifth Symphony, by Tchaikowsky; William Tell Overture, by Rossini; and Carnival of Animals, by Saint Saens.

Bizad executive council meets at 5 p. m. today

The student executive council of the bizad college will hold a meeting tonight at 5 p. m. in the dean of college of business administration's office.

All presidents of honorary bizad fraternities and sororities will attend the meeting together with one other representative of the honorary groups and two students from the college at large.

New officers are attending school this year.

Sweaters Blouses

---GOOD MIXERS
WITH SKIRTS AND SUITS

YOU like variety—a plain, tailored blouse today, a soft, bright colored sweater tomorrow! That's why our sportswear is filled with all kinds of sweaters, blouses and jackets to give you the quick changes you want!

"Boy-Girl" Shirts

Patterned off your best beau's—(he'll be proud of your good taste), these long sleeved shirts are beautifully tailored of rayon crepe. White, powder blue, dusty rose. Sizes 32 to 38— 1.95

IN BROADCLOTH, similar style, with a French cuff— 1.95

SHORT SLEEVE SHIRTS (similar to style pictured), with tailored, stitched trim— 1.95

JUMBO KNIT CARDIGAN COATS

Short sleeved styles, right for casual coats for fall days. In Kelly green, Jockey red, white, black and maize— 2.95 and 3.50

Classic TWIN SWEATER SETS

Pull on sweater and matching cardigan with leather buttons. Deep yoked style that's very popular. In clay, hay leaf green, maize, 7.95 blue and beige—

Also a large selection of other sweaters, suede jackets, etc.

Sportswear—Second Floor.

MILLER & PAINE