

Socially Speaking

By Jo Duree

Gone strictly social and quite etiquette-bookish are the Kappa Sigma's for they smashed precedent like all good democrats... plug... and sent out those unheard of heralding: invitations... they're supposed to be barns... more plug... or had you heard that the lads are going to have their annual barn dance Saturday night... this advertisement was paid for at the regular rate...

It looks like people will really be decked out in such outfits as to slightly resemble cow-hands and milk maids and their ideas of what farmers look like... Phi Psi's are having that sort also which'll make it tres charmantes for people like Betty O'Shea and Jack Morrow and B Jo Byllsey and Fred Stiner who'll want to go to both the Phi Psi ditty and the KAT Heavenly Hop.

Roses and Roses to the AOPi palace what with Kay Hanley, Jackie Stretton and Betty Ann Bonebright the recipients... seems that Jackie's were from out of town...

Ed Faytinger, Sig Chi pledge, is haunting the dorm these days, seeing Shirley Johnson...

Another annual affair is due Saturday evening when the Sig Eps pack up and head for Roberts cafe and fun... Harry Seagren will be with his Omaha chum, Ruth Ecklund; Bob Johnson and Patty Fulton, KKG; and it seems that Bob Henderson will be about with Alpha Chi Janice Goldsmith... and the Sig Ep brethren suggest that an ad to the effect that Frosty Wilson is without a date and any young woman thereby interested might call 2-7475, which is the Sig Ep phone number...

Last night the Phi Psi's and the DG's ate dinner together and the active chapter—plus Dottie Thomas who Dick Harnsburger demanded—ate pheasant... the lads went hunting last week end...

Phi Deltas will probably feed Segar Ellis over at the Phi Delta Theta Inn this week end when he plays at the Pike—brotherly stuff.

Towne Club is also going to have a party... Prexy Marian Bearsley and Bob Ammon; Jerry Smith and Bob Schmall; Eleanor Crawford and Charlie Dient; and Dorothy Jean Bryan with Bill Daffoe contemplate being there...

Dottie Wear, Chio pinned to Dick McConnell, DU; has been faithfully trotting out to the hospital every day to hold Dick's palm and see how he's progressing... a mild case of appendicitis... he stood her up one evening and she found that the lad had been rushed to the hospital...

Out to the Alpha Phi Jungle will be Mary Stephenson with Phi Psi Deb Smith, Dot Griswold with SAE Dick Nash and Ann Fickling with Bill Fahnstock... ah House parties...

Seen with each other and a coke in the Union might have been if you'd been there when we were there Francey Bodinson, DDD, with PKA Herb Dow; Clayton LaVelle DU and AOPi Marcia Beckman...

To be married the ninth of November are Mary Fislar, ChiO alum and former beauty queen and BDGOC, to Butch Dietermeyer...

Carrie Belle had a Halloween party and every one had a definitely fine time as the 273 were individually scared by the antics and then refreshed with food...

War, gruesome though it may be, will be the theme of the Beta's open house party Saturday night. L'affaire will definitely be on the lighter side, though. Kappa Jean Kerl will be captive of "Jeep" Howell for the evening, ditto Theta Betty O'Shea of Prexy John Weingarten. Dorothy Ann Koenig, Kappa, also has a rendezvous the same evening with Piker Davis.

Chi O, AGR lead race

Chi Omega sorority and Alpha Gamma Rho fraternity are leading in the Cornhusker Greek picture-taking contest this week. Sixty-one seniors and fifty-five juniors have had their pictures taken so far.

Sorority results are:

Chi Omega	14%
Delta Gamma	4
Kappa Kappa Gamma	2
Delta Delta Delta	0

Fraternity results:

Alpha Gamma Rho	22%
Farmhouse	16
Kappa Sigma	12
Beta Theta Pi	8
Phi Kappa Psi	7

Grad's 'My Day' tells of draftee life in the army

"My Day," as related by Don G. Thompson, former university student and now a lieutenant in the U. S. army at Sam Houston, Tex., will give susceptible draftees an idea as to how they will spend their time in the army.

First call is at 6 a. m. and breakfast is served at 6:30. At 7:30 drill starts, lasting until 11:30. The noon meal is at noon. From 1 until 4 p. m. the officers attend schools, learning about military combat and the like.

Evening mess is served at 5 p. m., and the rest of the day is your own—unless some special duty is required.

Library buys foreign books

Now obtainable in the university reference department are foreign books in translation. Outstanding among them are "Road to Tryermaine" by A. H. Nethercot, "The White Ships" by Aine Kallas, and "Memory of Youth" by Vilhelm Mobe. Other books of the same type on the reference department shelves are:

- "Sara Videbeck and the Chapel," by C. J. L. Almqvist.
- "King's Omen," by John Bojer.
- "Selected Poems," by Gustaf Freding.
- "Pool of Faith," by Jari Hemmer.
- "Hadda Padda," by Guomundur Kam-ban.
- "Kros the Slayer," by Aino Kallas.
- "The White Ships," by Aino Kallas.
- "Tales of Two Countries," by A. L. Kielland.
- "Ake and His World," by Bertil Malmberg.
- "Memory of Youth," by Vilhelm Moberg.
- "Poems," by H. A. Werzeland.
- "Street of the Sandalmakers," by Nis Petersen.
- "Nadesuda," by J. L. Runberg.
- "Seven Brothers," by Aleksei Sten-vall.
- "Crown," by Elizabeth Bergstrand-Poulsen.

Hoover-

(Continued from Page 1)

England, not thru the state department, but through Mackenzie King, governor-general of Canada.

Roosevelt's done a double-headed sommersault in the past week, the former president pointed out. Right now, he's strongly for peace. He says so. His actions, however, until recently, have not indicated his strong desire for avoiding war. This present campaign closely parallels the one of 1916 when Wilson was re-elected because "He kept us out of war." In less than a year after the election, we were in the war, he observed.

Issues of election

Later, in a press conference at his hotel, Hoover declared that in his estimation the major issues of this campaign are, first, peace and war; second, the third term; third, the drift toward national socialism; and, woven in among all three, the restoration of employment and security to the nation.

Here's how man gets woman When there's a wife there's a way

By Gene Bradley.

"Why do women fall so madly in love with you?" When Nebraska bachelors recently answered this question, they divulged the secret on "How to Spellbind Coeds" or "The Care and Handling of Women." Men, who would become romancers, heed the advice of:

Bob Sandberg, arts and science senior: I wear Magees clothes and I don't get around enough for people to know me as I really am.

Jack Clarke, engineering sophomore: I guess I get 'em because I am quiet, considerate, unassuming.

Ralph Battie, engineering sophomore: That's what's been bothering me for about the last 19 years.

John Mason, arts and science senior: Because I never say No.

Don Steele, ag college junior: They just haven't got my number yet.

Bob Aden, bizad senior: I get only those with a sense of humor.

Homer Rogers, I'm big and I keep 'em guessing.

John J. Douglass, bizad sophomore: I guess I get 'em because of my big feet. They help me get around.

Bud Rohde, bizad senior: I'm such a scholastic flash that the girls know that I'm bound to achieve success when I grow big.

Ed Butler, bizad sophomore: On account of my money. Bob Johnson, engineering sophomore: Dunno. Just cuz it's me, I guess.

Bill McBride, arts and science freshman: You know me—unaffected, charming, faithful.

Jim Howell, Harry Rinder and Mac Howell: We treat them rough, Gable-style.

Dick Harnsberger, bizad sophomore: I'm the domestic type.

Barb council plans Halloween party Friday

A Halloween party for unaffiliated students Friday evening has been planned by the barb council. Bob Simmons, in charge, announced that the party would follow the regular barb dance from 7 to 8:30 p. m., with admission of 10 cents or an activities ticket to both events.

Oldest agricultural college in the United States is Michigan State, established in 1853.

Missing element 93 has been found by University of California scientists.

Barb groups plan weekend parties

Halloween "hangover" party has been planned for unaffiliated students by the barb council for Friday evening in parlors XYZ. The party will follow a regular barb dance which is to be held in the ballroom from 7:00 to 8:30 p. m., and is scheduled to last until midnight. Ten cents or an activities card will be the admission to both events.

Several other parties have been announced for the weekend: Towne club and ACBC club will hold an exchange dance in the ballroom at the same time as the barb dance, after a short meeting in the barb office.

A party is planned by Towne club for Saturday night at Masonic temple, 27th and B streets.

ACBC and Baldwin halls will hold their fall party at the Cornhusker hotel Saturday evening.

All-barb night has been announced by Raymond hall, for a dance Friday from 7:30 to 8:30 p. m.

SIMPLICITY

As seen in Mademoiselle

Girdled in glamour... knowingly jeweled at the throat. This is a dress to work magic on your beau. He'll think you never looked so slim, so utterly the woman-of-the-world. Featured in beautifully contrasting colors.

$12⁹⁵

MAGEE'S
QUALITY WOMEN'S WEAR
LINCOLN

DANCE
to Johnny COX

FRIDAY
NOV. 1
9-12

10c Per Person

STUDENT UNION

FIGURE out your FIGURE Needs!

Brassieres by Maiden Form a style for you

INTER-LUDE—
for firm uplift and classic roundness of the bosom.

ADAGIO—
Correctly proportioned for smaller than average figures.

INTIMO—
for emphasis on the "dividing line."

OVER-TURE—
for extra-firm uplift support.

OTHER STYLES
in lace, broadcloth and net—
$1 to 2⁵⁰

MILLER & PAINE