

Jim Evinger

among the football teams: First, iron rivalry between these two first in matches prelim Nov. 15 Minnesota, and second goes to Stanford . . . The Gophers have faced Washington, Nebraska, Ohio mighty Panthers, the Huskers are State, Iowa, Northwestern and Michigan and have yet to meet Purdue and Wisconsin .

The Indians have clashed with Clara, Washington State, South-ern California, UCLA, and Washington on successive Saturdays... Oregon State and California remain to heckle the Rose Bowl bound men of Palo Alto. . .

HUSKERS RISING.

In the Azzi-Ratem system, the Huskers rank 10th, while the Associated Press poll places the Scarlet clad gridders in 11th . . . The stands which crashed at the SMU-Texas A. & M. game were loaded with 1,200 fans . . . The mishap occurred in the first period and 28 persons were quite seriously

A football fan in Kingston, West Va., picks his 1940 All-American team . . . Listed at a guard is Nebraska's Warren Alfson . . . His backfield consists of Christman of Missouri, Harmon of Michigan, injury sustained in the Oklahoma Juzwik of Notre Dame, and Kim-

CARDIE SCORES.

Lloyd Cardwell, the "Wild Hoss," provided the winning score for the Detroit Lions Sunday in their 17leaders of the Western division of the Pennsylvanians. the National Professional football

"Cardia" caught the touchdown pass that gave the Lions their win over the Bears . . . Sam Francis was on the kicking end of those long boots in the game between his Brooklyn Dodger mates and the Washington Redskins . .

No University of Kansas foot-ball player had seen a full 60 minutes service in any game this year until the Oklahoma contest . . . Bill Quick, Kansas State sophomore flashy quarterback, can kick right-footed and pass with the left hand . . .

Bizad executive board chooses new officers

Newly elected officers of the bizad executive board are Josephine Robeck, president; Don Rector, vice-president; Roger Anawalt, secretary, and Harold Hunt, treasurer. Hunt and Gene Bradley was named to the board from the bizad college at large this week.

. 10c Per Line

FOUND Candid camera bulb release. Loser may call at Daily office.

TRY THE LIBERTY BARBER SHOP

123 No. 13th

ALL MAKES OF TYPEWRITERS FOR SALE OR RENT

NEBR. TYPEWRITER CO.

36 Huskers shove off for Pitt

Sports Pittsburgh lads arena ready surprise for Nebraskans

It's the Smoky City for 36 stalwart Cornhusker footballers come Saturday. For on this day, three dozen Huskers will invade the Pitt Nomination for stiffest schedule Panther den to renew the grid-

Proud to be the foe of the once given a better than even chance to come out of the game with the to 13 Husker win.

The Huskers will be out for their sixth victory in as many starts since the season opener, a 13 to 7 loss to Minnesota. Pitt, menwhile, has two wins, two setbacks and a tie to mar its record.

Pitt inactive.

Prior to the Carnegie Tech victory (6-0) last week, the Panthers had two Saturdays in a row of rest. So, the Skibos have been the only opponent of the Pitt lads in the last three weeks and so the Panthers are ready for action.

Injuries in the Nebraska camp are small. The ankle injuries of Co-captain George "Bus" Knight and Francis Leik are cleared up. But Marvin Thompson, sophomore end, is to be left in Lincoln as he has not fully recovered to a leg

Wire services from Pittsburgh indicate that the Panthers are in fine physical fettle. Coach Charley Bowser of the Panthers has his charges primed for this-the 15th 14 win over the Chicago Bears, meeting of the Nebraskans and 30,000 crowd.

Expectations of the crowd vary but most reports center around 30,000 fans as the probable num-ber to view the spectacle in the Pitt bowl Saturday.

Topping off what has been a light week of drills due to being founder Nov. 19 forced inside because of inclement weather, the Huskers went thru a light dummy scrimmage under the east stadium, Wednesday afternoon.

The squad arrives in Chicago today and will work out in Soldier Field this afternoon, Another drill will go by the Nebraska coaching board, Friday afternoon, in the city of Pittsburgh. The 36-man squad selected by Coach Biff Jones to make the Pittsburgh trip includes:

Left end—Fred Preston, Fairbury. Left tackie—Royal Kabler, Grand Island. Left guard—Ed Schwartzkopf, Lincoln. Center—Bob Burruss, Omaha. Center—Bob Burruss, Omaha.
Right guard—Warren Alfson, Wisner.
Right tackle—Forrest Behm, Lincoln.
Right end—Ray Prochaska, Ulysses.
Quarterback—Roy Petsch, Scottsbluff.
Left half—Harry Hopp, Hastings.
Right half—Waiter Lother, Cambridge.
Pullback—Vike Francis, North Platte.
Second team.
Left end—Bob Ludwick, Lincoln.
Left tackle—Co-captain Leonard Muskin, Omaha.
Left guard—Ralph Whitehead, Minatare.
Center—Fred Meier, Lincoln.
Right guard—George Abel, Lincoln.
Right tackle—Clarence Herndon, Grand Liland.

Right end-Willard Bunker, Lincoln. Quarterback-Co-captain George Knight, Ancoln.

Left half—Herman Robrig, Lincoln.

Right half—Allen Zikmund, Ord.

Fullback—Don Rubottom, Gering.

Third tram.

Left end—Gerry Kathol, Hartington.

Left tackle—Vic Schleich, Lincoln.

Left guard—Lynn Myers, Lincoln.

Center—Howard Kelly, Grand Island,

Right guard—Bill Bryant, Ashland.

Right tackle—Francis Leik, Hastings.

Right end—Burdette Wertman, David

ity.

Quarterback—Theor Thompson, Lincoln, and Fred Metheny, Lincoln, Left half—Dale Bradley, Lincoln, and Jack Vincent, O'Nelli,
Right half—Bob Kahler, Grand Island,
Fullback—Henry Rohn, Fremont, and Wayne Blue, Tecumseh.

German club to meet tonight

The German club will meet to-night in the Morrill auditorium from 7 to 8. Dr. J. E. A. Alexis, chairman of the modern language department, and Dr. William K. Pfeiler of the German department will speak. There will be group singing of German folk songs after the two talks. All students and the public are invited.

Runnals places I-M swimming

Winner shoots 381 out of 400 to nab award to come out of the game with the Shotting 381 out of a possible victory. However, the Panthers 400, Bob Runnals took first place San Francisco, Oregon, Santa are out to avenge last year's 14 in the annual Intramural Rifle matches which ended last Friday. Firing was slow fire from four > Placing in the aggregate score were Hugh Stuart, second, 365; J. B. Burns, third, 365; Chet Bowers, fourth, 363. Stuart outshot Burns from a standing position in the play-off for the second place

All members of the Rifle club competed in the shooting. Runnals will have his name engraved on the Gardner trophy, donated by Major Walter J. Gardner of the Nebraska Field Artillery unit.

Takes cup. The cup, a tradition in Rifle club activities, is kept in the Military department trophy case. Firing took place in the basement of Andrews under the direction of Lieut, E. C. Richardson, coach and range officer.

Winners of the individual position are as follows:

Standing:
First—Stuart, 88.
Second—Runnals, 87.
Kneeling:
First—Runnals, 96.
Second—Winton Jensen, Sitting: First—Runnals, 99. Second—Burns, 97. rone: First-Clyde Reed, 100.

Home ec students honor association

The annual Ellen H. Richards dinner will be held Tuesday, November 19, in the Union ballroom, at 5:30 p. m. The dinner is held in honor of Mrs. Richards, the founder of the home economics association.

General chairman in charge of the dinner is Phyilis Boyes. Other chairmen are: Program, Dora Baisinger; food, Geraldine Fouts; decorations, Mary Lloyd; favors, Retha Edeal; tickets, Melva Meierhenry; hostesses, Winnie White, and publicity, Eleanor Crawford.

Wirth wins Swift company judging contest on ag

Arlo Wirth, ag college junior and animal husbandry major, was chosen winner of the Swift company livestock judging contest on the ag campus. A trip to Chicago to attend the International Livestock Exhibition is first prize, with all expenses paid and enter-tainment furnished. The exhibition is to be the last of November.

Dale Theobald was runner-up for second place, James Clay-baugh took third and Randall Pratt received honorable mention. The judging contest is carried on in the various ag colleges throughout United States each year for students interested in livestock.

School of music holds recitals

Departmental recitals were held at the school of music Wednesday, featuring piano, voice and strings students. Each department presented a separate recital for students in the classes.

Taking part in the piano re-cital were: Dolas Okawaki, Robert Dunning, Betty Jo Koehler and Kenneth Klauss. Representing the voice department were: Bernice Premer, Ruth Ferguson, Dorothy Huffman, Helen Eversman, Lois Baker, Pat McNaughton, Ward Rounds, Richard Koupal, Bob Rouch, Charles Oldfather, Glen Clarke, Alden Marvel and Earl Jenkins.

Members of the strings group were: Wilma Miller, Martha Armintrout, Miriam Rubnitz, Darlene Hollenbeck, Patricia Kent, Marilyn Dale and Virginia McNeel.

Women must qualify to compete in finals

Second girls' intramural swim-ming preliminary meet will be held tomorrow from 3 to 5 p. m. at the pool in the collseum. All girls who wish to qualify for the swimming finals must participate in one or both of the preliminary meets and be among the top four girls in one of them. Girls who failed to qualify in the first preliminary have another chance tomorrow. Four girls are chosen in each preliminary for each event so that in the finals eight girls will swim in each event.

Girls who qualified in the first preliminary are as follows: 25 yard free—Jordan, Kealy, Stoops and McIntyre; 25 yard breast—McAllister, Jordan, McCampbell and Cullinahan; 25 yard backstroke— Kealy, Miller, McAllister and Ewing; 50 yard free-Jordan, McNEBRASKA FOOTBALL PARTY

TINERARY
TO PITTSBURGH NOV. 16
Pittsburgh, Pa., Nov. 16, 1949.
WEDNESDAY, NOV. 13.
6:40 p. m. Bus from Student Union to Burlington station.
7:00 p. m. Leave Lincoln. Burlington
RR.

7:00 p. m. Leave Lincoln. Burlington RR.
10:00 p. m. Lights out.
THURSDAY, NOV. 14.
7:45 a. m. Arrive at Chicago.
8:00 a. m. Breakfast. Union station.
9:00 a. m. Sig 'n hus Union station.
tio those who desire the

the laner House, 2:00 p. m. Bus to Soldiers Field.
2:50 p. m. Practice at Soldiers Field.
4:00 p. m. Bus to Palmer House, 5:45 p. m. Dinner at Palmer House, 7:00 p. m. Movie, 9:30 p. m. Taxi to Union station, 9:45 p. m. Board Pennsylvania RR at Union station, 10:00 p. m. Lights out,

Campbell, Stoops and Kealy; 50 yard back—Ewing, Byllesbye and Patterson; 100 yard free style relay—Kappa Alpha Theta, Delta Gamma and Alpha Chi; medley race-Kappa Kappa Gamma and Gammi Phi; 50 yard breast stroke—McAllister,

New students at New York's Union Theological Seminary represent 54 universities and colleges.

because ... IT'S SURE TO RAIN!

LEARN TO DANCE

GUARANTEE YOU TO DANCE IN BE PREPARED FOR THE MILITARY BALL, Dec. 6

1210 P St. IRVING KUKLIN '39 Phone 2-1616