suit of the 1940 census. The census bureau, in giving out the figures, reported a continued westward movement of the population. States, in addition to Nebraska, losing a seat are: Arkansas, ninous, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Ohio, Massachusetts, Oklahoma and Pennsylvania. Those gaining a seat were: Arizona, Florida, Michgan, New Mexico, North Carolina, Oregon and Tennessee, with Caliapportionment worked out by the census bureau will become a law in 60 days unless congress should decree differently by law within that time.
