Cagers plan to rebound on Marquette

Undaunted after being nosed out by the University of South Dakota, 40-39, in two extra periods, Nebraska's cagers are out to make amends on Saturday when they play host to Marquette university's quintet on the coliseum floor.

Seeking greater scoring power, Coach W. H. Browne will probably shuffle his starting lineup somewhat Saturday night. Don Fitz, senior guard-forward, led the team tallying last Friday night with 11 points but the regulars from last season failed to come thru with some expected and needed points.

Max Young, sophomore from Bethany, came up with 10 markers that may gain him a starting position. Al Randall, Hartmann Goetze, and Sid Held failed considerably in the scoring column, but may still start against the Golden Avalanche.

Johnny Thompson, sophomore guard from Jackson, and Johnny Hay, Lincoln junior, are the other possible men to break into the first five Saturday.

Dr. R. D. Scott of the English department spoke at a meeting of public school teachers in York recently on the "Place of English in the Public School System."

All-university wrestle starts on Thursday

Under the sponsorship of Jerry Adam, Nebraska wrestling coach, the intramural department is running off an all-university wrestle with preliminaries Thursday and finals in the various weights on Friday.

Up to the present time there are approximately 40 entries and any one who is scholastically eligible may give his name to Coach Adam or the cage man at the coliseum before Thursday and compete in the match to determine material for the varsity team.

The finals will be held Friday so that the various high school coaches and football players that are attending the high school annual football conference may see of what university wrestling consists.

Scoring of points.

The meet will be run off according to national intercollegiate rules and will be decided by the point system when a match is decided by a fall. This system is as follows: two points for a take down; 1 point for an escape from underneath; two for reversing positions; four for a near fall; one point for each minute on top with a limit of two points per match. The wrestler who wins the majority of points altho not winning by a fall will be awarded the bout.

Some of the latest entries are:

Speaking about the tournament Adam declared, "We have a fine bunch of boys working out and should be able to get a good line on both the novice and varsity prospects from this meet."

An opportunity is being given to all who wish to compete in the meet to work out today and after the meet every afternoon from 4 to 6.

Notes from a California paper: The Stanford front wall—from tackle to tackle—is composed of first-year performers. But a lot of that inexperience is counterbalanced by the speed of those sophomores.

Coach Biff Jones mounts on the Husker dressing room bulletin board before each game a few notes about the opposition for the coming Saturday's battle. Coach Stub Allison, of the University of California and the Indians' last foe before getting the Rose Bowl nod, posted some of these notices in the Bruin den:

"Block, block, block"; "tackle, tackle, tackle," and "keep your eyes open" are a few of the exhortations that Allison hurled at his Bears in prepping for Stanford.

Concerning several of the outstanding Cardinal stars, Allison posted pictures of them and his comments below the cut, such as:
