

Socially Speaking

Jo Dure

On the special bulletin angle—did you know that DG Marg Krause, super little Mortar Board and SAE Bill Wellinger have chosen Dec. 22 for their wedding day...and another yuletide wedding is that of the DAILY'S business mgr. Chi Phi Ed Segrist and Tri Delt Martha Whelan...so it's all sorts of special congratulations for special people...

And the Betas and the Delta Gams have a brand new pin hanging to celebrate during this season of celebrations...Ed Huwall and Bobby Schuff...

We are silly...but we can't keep from wondering whether if a lad gets a down slip he can still be an eligible bachelor...it works against the footballers that way...not that people like ATO John Mason, Sig Nu Bus Knight, or say, SAE Bob Burruss would have to worry about that...but did we say bachelor...Burruss is matrimonial minded these days if we can believe our ears about Wisconsin...just last week he was north again...

We don't get it but there's a rumor that KAT Martha Bengston has a white monkey, Jumbo by name—or anyway that's what she calls it...

Pete Hagelin, varsity swimming coach with the SAE affiliation, and Tri Delt Alice Blackstone are being frequently with each other.

Your Cornhusker pictures can be made in a distinctive style for Christmas gifts—order now—at TOWNSEND STUDIOS. Adv.

Barb news sheet features co-ops

One of the features of the latest issue of the "Barb," weekly publication of unaffiliated students is the story "I Live in a co-op" with illustrations. It tells the experiences of a woman student who lives in one of the progressive houses, enumerating the advantages of such a system.

Other articles are on the presentation of Maurine Malster, new Honorary Colonel, the change of staff on the paper, and the story of the barb's appeal to the University Senate. The paper will appear on the stands and at the various houses Wednesday.

Square dancers present show

The ag college square-dance demonstration team presented a dance program for the teachers college high school yesterday afternoon at 12:15. The first part of the program consisted of a costumed demonstration of various dances by team members; the latter part concerned the teaching of western dancing, including the waltz, two-step, schottische, and polka, to any interested in learning them.

Darlington speaks at Farm Bureau county meeting

"Most of our problems grow out of change, and just as we get adjusted to conditions as they are, the present standard of living and the present social environment change making us adjust ourselves to new conditions," said Prof. G. M. Darlington of the bizad college, who spoke to more than 600 people at the Dodge County Farm Bureau meeting last Saturday night at Fremont. He spoke on the subject, "Economic Change."

"Our two greatest changes consist in the conflict between democracy and dictatorship, and the change in regard to population shifts."

Barb Union picks committee to aid establish co-ops

To facilitate the establishment of university co-op houses, the Barb Union Tuesday appointed a committee of presidents of existing co-ops to confer with the housing committee of the Student Council.

Other business of the meeting Tuesday included a report by Jim Young, business manager of the "Barb," with an open discussion of circulation problems.

Sports Arena—

(Continued from page 3.) placekicker and signal caller."

Ex-Omaha Central footballers Leonard Muskin, tackle, and Bob Burruss, center, are looking for-

Claude S. Brommage . . .

Interior decorator describes craft at meeting of architects

Mr. Claude S. Brommage, manager of the interior decorating department at Miller and Paine spoke at a meeting of the Student Architectural Society Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. in chamber Y of the Union. Movies on the "Use of Antiques in Interior Decorating" were shown.

Mr. Brommage stated that all interior decorators should take a good architectural course and these decorators should be good salesmen. "Interior decorating is good as a hobby, and is a useful occupation," stated Mr. Brommage.

The next meeting will be held January 21 at which time a speaker will talk about fireproofing.

President Sidney Campbell pre-ward to renewing an old athletic companionship when they go to the Rose Bowl. . . Bob Robertson, University of Southern California, backfield star, is a former high school teammate of both Burruss and Muskin. . .

sided at the meeting and stated that the group, composed of 50 members, will have their picture in the Cornhusker.

We Design and Make Ladies' Dresses and Coats
The Buttonhole Shop
and
Paris Cleaners
1242 M 2-9516

For Your CHRISTMAS PARTY

include

FAIRMONT'S ICE CREAM

available in the following special flavors

Cranberry Sherbet — Egg Nog
Nesselrode Pudding

and a variety of individual molds suitable for the occasion

Fairmont Creamery Co.

Phone 6-2326

CLASSIFIED

. . . 10c Per Line . . .

LOST—Black zipper purse. Identification card inside. Call 2-4630. Reward.

for Christmas
...give the cigarette that Satisfies

A carton of Chesterfields with their Milder Better Taste will give your friends more pleasure than anything else you can buy for the money.

Chesterfields

in the attractive Gift carton

that says... Merry Christmas

The UNIVERSITY of NEBRASKA SCHOOL of FINE ARTS
The University Theatre
Presents
The Imaginary Invalid
Moliere
Dec. 11, 12, 13 Wed., thru Fri.
Temple Theatre
12th & R Sts.
7:30 Each Evening—Adm. 25c-50c

Leap Year Ends in 20 Days, Gals Here's Your Last Big Chance

Catch Him with an Invitation to the MORTAR BOARD PARTY

Sway to the rhythm of ACE BRIGODE and His VIRGINIANS

See Nebraska's Most Eligible Bachelors

$1.25 per Couple

Friday, Dec. 13

Coliseum