

Kampus Kaperings

with Marion Cramer

Merry mixup

occurred this week end when Kappa Pat Catlin went to Omaha to play with John Cockle. John meanwhile asked Beta brothers Jack Stewart and "Piker" Davis to look after Harriet Talbot DG. But when the cat's away the brothers will play. George Cockle, who is usually seen with Pat, made a date with Kappa Mary Lou Koenig for the Interfraternity Ball, while Pat will go with Bob Schleh, ATO.

On the air

Sue Shaw and Georgia Swallow have rigged up a broadcasting station between second and third at the Pi Phi house. Meanwhile the other girls are up in the air wondering if it will work.

Triangles

Formed by threesomes Bill Fox, Phi Delt, Norma Westfall, and Jack Marvin...then perhaps you've heard about the chilly air that blows over the friendship between Leonard Peltier and Mortar Board Prexy Pat Sternberg...the third person...an unnamed man.

Weddings and such

made the headlines last week-end as Katherine Bullock, an Alpha Chi last year, became Mrs. William McConnell at a lovely church wedding on Sunday. Mary Bullock, also Alpha Chi, was the bridesmaid, while most of the sisters went to the wedding. Marion Bradstreet, Gammi Phi, called Jean Geddis, Jerry Wiemers, and Mary Ellen McCracken to Grand Island for her wedding Sunday. Ten o'clock, Monday was the time that Alpha Phi Jane Cummins took the vows with John Orr Jones, Sigma Chi. Back from New York comes Frank Lotterle, ATO to marry Kappa Jean Woods on Wednesday. Then he will carry her back to the east. My, it reminds me of storybooks and the like, or maybe it's spring—or the draft...but anyway it calls up lots of parties and teas. Marion Bowers and Butch Luther did the honors with a dinner party last nite. People like Helen McPherson, Kappa, and Ned Steenberg ATO, came way to Lincoln especially to see the happy couple.

Fun and frolic

ensued at the ChiO-AGR hour dance last week end. Most fun of all was the candy passing between Ruth Miller and Eric Thor. The frolicking continued on into the evening as several of the boys were fixed up for the AGR houseparty the same night—said houseparty turned out some combinations worth noting...such as Don Steele and Alpha Xi Joan Cherney; while Duane Beebe was there with an old steady gal friend, Harriet Taylor...an old flame never dies...or does it? Witness: one Ken Ebsrey has a continual flame...the new one is DG's blonde Pat Knuth. Pat seems to be doing all right...which statement has a double meaning, for it seems the little gal is lucky in a monetary way. Has something to do with chips...get it?

Pledges with pins

This time to the Kappa house where they stopped in and found the girls learning the rumba under the tutelage of one Anne Craft. Soon they were all learning it...shades of the spring Kosmet Klub show.

or how to learn the rumba in six easy lessons. When Byron, the Beta dog, went astray Sunday, John Wiengarten, Jack Stewart, Piker Davis, and Bob Aden set out to look for him. But they evidently

Ag professor attends meet in Tennessee

Dr. P. A. Downs professor of dairy husbandry will speak at the University of Tennessee Tuesday and Wednesday, Feb. 1 and 12 on the making of dairy products in Nebraska.

The meeting, which is part of the dairy short course at the university, attracts the leading dairy authorities from all over the country. Dr. Downs will speak Tuesday regarding 15 years of cottage cheese making by the dairy department at ag college, and will speak Wednesday on "Sanitary Ice Cream Sales."

thought that his places of going astray would be like theirs. They went first to the DeeGee house, and while looking for the dog they also looked over the girls, but had to continue the search up sorority to the Betas, who pledged Jack Stookey last night. Stookey, a new man at Nebraska, attended the University of Southern Cal last semester.

Congratulations

Collegians endorse teaching of foreign political doctrines

AUSTIN, Tex., Feb. 6.—If democracy is to be safeguarded, it is important and necessary that American colleges and universities teach the youth of the nation the facts about foreign "isms" that threaten the world today. That is the opinion of a two-thirds majority of collegians the country over, reflected in a scientific manner through Student Opinion Surveys of America.

The DAILY is one of the sponsoring undergraduate newspapers that make possible the accurate measurement of American collegiate thought. The polls are conducted locally by each newspaper by means of a representative sampling, and the national returns are then tabulated at the surveys' headquarters at the University of Texas.

The European debacle has forced attention on a long evaded problem: How to inform Americans of totalitarian ideology and at the same time not endanger our democratic institutions. "Stop teaching these 'isms' in our colleges" has been the demand most often heard. But men of greater discernment have questioned the wisdom of prohibiting instruction in these forms of government. What do students themselves think about this, they who are actually taking the courses? Should the colleges continue to present "the facts about communism, socialism, nazism, and fascism?" With that question surveys interviewers approached a cross section of collegians. Here are the answers:

YES, teach the facts...66%
NO, do not teach them...34%

It is in the comments made by students that one finds the real significance of this study. While a definite two-thirds majority believes it is necessary that youth be told what these "isms" are about if we are to know what democracy really means—but this provision is often expressed: "It is important that only the facts be taught; we don't want any 'isms' being spread through the class room. College is primarily a place for instructors to teach, not to preach."

College prexy says students think tougher

HARTFORD, Conn. (ACP). College students today do not intend to be carried off their feet by emotional appeals, as they say the last generation was.

That is the conclusion of the Rev. Dr. Remsen B. Ogilby, president of Trinity college.

Dr. Ogilby observes that "mass thinking, fortunately, is not characteristic of collegiate groups. Generally, undergraduates of today are seemingly somewhat tougher in their thinking and certainly less sentimental than their older brothers, uncles and fathers a quarter century ago."

Dr. Ogilby believes today's college students are "loyal and patriotic, but in a quiet and restrained manner which would seem to indicate they are trying to base their decisions upon reason rather than emotion. I find our young men definitely suspicious of propaganda," he said.

Cathedral Choir presents vespers

The Lincoln Cathedral Choir, under the direction of John M. Rosborough, appeared in choral vespers Sunday at 5:30 p. m. at the Cornhusker hotel. As part of the program the choir sang classics by Taylor, Sullivan and Lutkin.

Theme of the service was "Obedience," the fifth of the fountains from which Youth has drunk in his quest for the Fountain of Living Waters.

After the reading of the prologue and of the law by Don Meier and Betty Groth, university students, a reverie on obedience was presented by Charles Ledwith, Lincoln attorney and Nebraska alumnus.
