COACH "PETE"

Coach Richard "Pete" Hagelin, the youthful mentor of the Nebraska swimming team, is all smiles these days. And why shouldn't he be? Look at the record his aquatic stars have been chalking up?

Five wins in five starts this year and the last three triumphs were over Big Six opponents. And one of those foes was Iowa State, the defending conference cham-

On top of this record, Hagelin has only one senior and two junior lettermen on the swimming team. The rest of the tankers are sophomores and many of these have crowded minor lettermen from past years out of the 1941 lineups.

Barb basketball advances into Sports semi-final stage

The league VI champs, the Mad advance to the semi-finals. Jennings led the scoring for the Russians with six points, with Ding-well and Wise contributing four each to the victor's cause. Dana Turpin and Marquiss led AEI with four each.

Opposing the Mad Russians in one semi-final match Thursday night will be the Angels, who overcame all opposition in league V and beat the Husker Inn, league IV winners in the quarter-finals. The other semi-final will find league III champ, Pioneer Co-op pitted against Dark Horse, league II representatives and barb basketball champs in both 1939 and 1940. The same Dark Horse outfit also won the volleyball championship this year.

Kansas State wrestle team victorious, 17-11

Nebraska's wrestlers dented the scoring more than in any other previous match, Tuesday night in the coliseum, but not enough to defeat Kansas State as the Men from Manhattan threw the Huskers, 17-11.

The Scarlet grapplers started off in good style. Both Milton Kuska, 121 pounder, and Roy Shaw, 128 pounder, came thru with decisions over Cliff Case and Bob Dunlap of Kansas State, respec-

Monday night, Oklahoma was up-set by the Cyclones which sent the Huskers up a notch—into the runner-up spot behind the high-flying Kansas Jayhawkers.

Leading only 19-18 at the half, the Cyclones turned on the scoring power and tossed a 44-30 upheaval on the Sooners. The defeat dropped the Okies into a third place tie with Iowa State. Missouri wins.

Down at Columbia, the Missouri Tigers revolted and batted down the favored Kansas State Wildcats for their first Big Six win this season. A last second fielder by Roy Storm nosed out the Manhattan cagers, 30-28.

Perhaps the biggest news to league rivals is that the Jayhawkers went down to defeat Monday night. But not to a conference foe. The Kansas lads went to
