

Betty Nichols selected as 1941 UN Prom Girl

Highlighting the season's last formal, the Junior-Senior Prom, was the presentation of Betty Ann Nichols, Kappa Kappa Gamma, as the 1941 Prom Girl in the coliseum Friday night.

The lights were dimmed, Count Basie's orchestra gave out with a fanfare, and Miss Nichols was announced as the choice of the audience. As the lights were turned on, the Prom Girl stood on the stage between the two words "Prom Girl" in scarlet and cream letters, and was acclaimed by the cheering crowd.

Threading her way thru the crowd, Miss Nichols was escorted by the senior and junior class presidents, John McDermott and Gilbert Heuffle, respectively. The dancers opened a path for her and she was escorted to the bandstand where she was congratulated by "The Count of Swing."

Very happy.

The Prom Girl smiled happily and told the audience that she was delighted to have received the honor. She wore a blue gown contrasting with pink carnations in her hair. Miss Nichols is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton S. Nichols of Omaha.

The Prom committee announced the party a financial success. Thruout the evening Count Basie was surrounded by couples who enjoyed listening to his music and swing variations. James Rushing, "250 pounds of Blues" sang several songs and was applauded loudly, as well as Helen Humes, the female vocalist and "swing stylist."

Lincoln Journal.

Athletic department needs football managers

A call has been issued for all men interested in being football managers to meet at the east stadium Monday at 3 p. m. Those attending should contact Floyd Bortorff, equipment manager.

AAUW will award several $50 sholarships to women . . . of merit

Women students will have an opportunity to compete for several $50 scholarships offered by the American Association of University Women again this year it was announced Saturday by Annetta Sprung, chairman of the scholarship awards committee.

Application blanks may be obtained from the dean of women's office in Ellen Smith and must be returned before noon March 15. Winners of the scholarships will be announced at the Honors Day convocation April 22.

Sophomores, juniors eligible.

To be eligible women must be of sophomore or junior standing, be registered for at least 12 hours of university work, be wholly or partly self-supporting and have an average of at least 88%.

Recommendations from two persons, one a faculty member and the other not connected with the university, should be sent to Miss Sprung, 222 Floral Court, Lincoln, and must reach her not later than noon, March 15. Each applicant shall meet with the AAUW committee for a short conference some time between 4 and 6 o'clock either Thursday or Friday, March 20 or 21.

Committee members.

Women who are recipients of another gift scholarship while holding the AAUW award must consult Miss Sprung. Other members of the committee are Mrs. Ted E. Darger, Annie Cogil, Mrs. Eula D. McEwan, and Margaret Fedda.

PBK, Sigma Xi plan banquet for March 25

Honorary groups to name members at annual joint dinner meeting in Union

Holding their annual joint banquet March 25 in the Union will be members of Phi Beta Kappa and Sigma Xi, honorary scholastic societies in arts and sciences and in science. Newly elected student members of the societies will be announced at the banquet.

Dr. Ellsworth Faris, professor emeritus of sociology at the University of Chicago and former chairman of the department of anthropology and sociology, will address the meeting. The meeting will be open to the public following the banquet.

Well known for his work in so- (See BANQUET, Page 3)

Convo speaker . . .

Lew Sarett, former ranger, writes nature poetry volumes

. . . teaches speech

Lew Sarett, convocation speaker at the Union Monday at 11 a. m., is internationally known for his many volumes of poetry on nature, as an author of education volumes on speech, and as an educator at Northwestern University.

Much of the speaker's very thoro and complete knowledge of outdoor life dates back to the years he spent as a United States ranger in the Rocky mountains.

"Slow Smoke."

His subject at Monday's convocation will be "Slow Smoke," the title of one of his best-selling books of poetry, which was voted by the American Poetry Society the best volume of verse published in America during 1925.

Two years ago Sarett-Foster's "Basic Principles of Speech" was published by Houghton Mifflin Company and has now been adopted by more than 400 colleges and universities as text for speech classes.

In Who's Who.

Sarett has been in "Who's Who in America" for many years. At the age of 33 the editors of "The National Cyclopaedia of American Biography" asked him to submit biographical data.

Sigma Upsilon, men's honorary

LEW SARETT. . . . talks on 'Slow Smoke'

literary fraternity, will entertain Lew Sarett at a luncheon in parlor X of the Union Monday at 12. Cal Rollins, president of Sigma Upsilon, will act as host.

Teaching aids clinic centers on use of film

UN extension division, teachers college sponsor visual education meet

Visual education for schools all over the state took a step forward yesterday when teachers representing many Nebraska schools convened at the Union for a Visual Education Clinic.

The main objects of the meeting, sponsored by the Lincoln public schools, the university extension division, and teacher's college, were to explain the what, why and how of visual education and to show how visual aids can be produced in local schools.

Lectures and exhibits were featured on the program, and motion picture demonstrations highlighted the event. During the morning (See TEACHING, Page 4)

Dr. Westbrook heads music convention

Dr. Arthur E. Westbrook, director of the school of fine arts, will act as chairman at the general session of the North Central music educators convention in Des Moines on March 17.

The general session at which Dr. Westbrook will preside will take up a discussion of music in colleges and universities. Speakers who will appear include Robert S. Tangeman of the University of Indiana school of music, Prof. Gerhardt Wiede of the Ohio State university educational research department, Dr. H. W. Baltz of Cornell college.

Other speakers will be Dr. D. M. Swarthout of the Kansas school of fine arts, and Lytton Davis, supervisor of music in Omaha.

The session will close with a musical program by the Madrigal Singers with Dr. Harper Maybee of Western State Teachers college at Kalamazoo, Mich.

The convention will draw music educators from Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Michigan, Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska, and Canada.

Music group will present recital today

Members of Sigma Alpha Iota, national professional music fraternity, will present a concert sponsored by the school of fine arts in the Temple theater this afternoon at 3 p. m.

The program, which is open to the public, is as follows:

- I. A Welcome Song, Mainville; vocal ensemble, Ardis Freeman, accompanist. Etude, Op. 25, No. 10, Chopin; Elizabeth May, pianist. Rondo for two flutes, Kuhlau; Barbara Miller, Idella Johnson.
- II. Bacio, Arditi; Louise Stapleton, soprano, Elizabeth May, accompanist.
- III. Sonata in E minor for cello and piano, Allegretto quasi Minuetto, Brahms; Harriet Meyer, Elizabeth May. Adieu Foreto, Tchaikowsky; Janet Begnier, soprano, Ruth Fox, accompanist. Trio IV in B-flat minor, Allegro con brio, Beethoven; Patricia Kent, violinist, Dorothy Hendricks, cellist, Mary Ellen Monnich, pianist.
- III. Quartet in G major, Op. 77, No. 1, Allegro moderato, Haydn; Aronita Dakovsky, violinist, Virginia Clark, violinist, Evelyn Nerud, violist, Wilma Vail Miller, cellist. Scherzo, Griffes; Betty Joe Koehler, pianist. Nocturne, Cain; vocal ensemble.

Lee receives serious injuries in 30-foot fall

Jack Lee, law freshman, was seriously injured early Friday afternoon when he fell from the second floor to the basement down the stair araway of the Phi Delta Theta fraternity house. He was rushed by ambulance to the Lincoln General hospital.

Dr. O. V. Calhoun, who examined Lee following the accident, said there were rib injuries to his back, severe arm bruises and lacerations and possible internal injuries, altho full extent of his injuries cannot be determined until X-ray photos have been developed.

Condition satisfactory.

Lee's general condition late Saturday was reported as "generally good" and, on the whole, "satisfactory." He suffered severe shock but appeared to be recovering from that rapidly. He was reported resting well.

Naturalist to address Union convo

Sam Campbell, philosopher of forest, will use films in lecture today at 4 p. m.

Sam Campbell, "philosopher of the forest," will speak at a Union convocation at 4 p. m. today. Campbell, lecturing on ideas rather than places, will use colored films of the north woods.

Campbell's home is the forest. Here he has lived for many years as a naturalist, writer, photographer and friend of all living things. His work reveals a new and happier view of nature.

He has made 3,000 lectures in this country before audiences that have totaled over a million. For three years he has broadcast at least once a week over midwestern stations.

His lectures have carried him before every level of society, and from elementary schools thru colleges. His work is to awaken an appreciation of America's out-of-doors, especially among the young people.

AWS to admit organized barb groups in Sing

Board extends entries in Ivy Day competition, traditional Greek affair

Any organized group of girls will be allowed to participate this year in the annual women's singing contest held on Ivy day, and the size of the groups will be limited for the first time, according to announcement made yesterday by Jean Simmons, president of the AWS board which sponsors the affair. The name of the sing will (See SING, Page 3)

Capitol Personalities

—Lincoln Journal. DON E. HANNA . . . is ex-cowboy.

"I can still rope a calf with the best of them," announced ex-cowboy, Sen. Don E. Hanna. But those days back in the early 1900's when Nebraska was not yet fenced and young Don Hanna was winning prizes in rough riding contests are gone forever.

Today, south of Valentine, he has a ranch of his own and the people of Cherry, Sheridan and Brown counties (largest congressional district in the state) have (See HANNA, Page 4)