

Kampus Kaperings

with Marion Cramer

Gals take notice

In a few weeks Nebraska will witness an invasion of over 600 Stephens girls who will be on the campus en route to Columbia, for this is the last lap of their annual tour. The call has gone out to all the Nebraska lads to help entertain the girls.

The Alpha Phis

started off the week right...right for the actives, anyway, for this is their courtesy week when the pledges learn more and more about what is in that big blue book of Emily Post.

While on the subject of what's news from sorority row we might mention that the reason for all the smiling pledges from the greek houses concerns the fact that many of the dates for initiation have been set. Pi Phis, Alpha Chis and Kappas will give the girls a chance to trade in their often lost pledge pins for shiny new badges over the week end.

Eleven o'clock

seems an awfully early hour for a coking date, but DG Jane Baird and Justin Fitz seem to find it a lot of fun. We wonder if this is a daily occurrence, or perhaps its just chance.

And speaking of chances, we wonder if ATO Bill Swartz and Sigma Chi Bill Longman are playing a long shot when they date Jean Porter so much. Maybe they don't know that she has a Delt pin from Missouri which she wears most of the time. What is that old saying about absence...?

Sunday night

we saw George Frischer, the Awgwan-Flash fellow, and Ruth Grosvenor having what is known as a dinner date. Doing the same thing were Joy Ferrins and Jo Martin. This is a new dating combination which looks like it might click off nicely.

Some people do study on Sunday nights, witness Jerry Thompson and Julia Gurley who do it together on a sorta study date you might say.

Lots of people are wondering what the deal is with Kappas Monnie Zimmerer and Mary Ella Bennet. The man in the case is Sigma Nu Jim Kirkendall. Mary Ella went away down south for this semester but came back for a few days visit. The few days extended, Monnie played independent (she had been going steady with Jim) and is now dating the field with Beta Jim Bell leading. Another queer mixup also concerns sister Jeanette Zimmerer who many say will be going steady with ATO Bill Golding ere the spring is over. But a wise observer would point out that she has an awfully good time with Dick Gobel who is taking advanced work in the chem department... Eenie, meenie, meinie mo...

Northwestern tests materials under pressure

EVANSTON, Ill. (ACP). A materials testing laboratory for studying behavior of metals, concrete, wood, plastics and other materials under stress and pressure will be established in the new technological institute of Northwestern university.

Equipment for the laboratory represents a part of the $900,000 worth of new machinery and equipment to be installed in the institute before it is completed next fall.

One piece of equipment is a transverse-universal testing machine nearly two and one-half stories high and capable of exerting a pressure of 1,000,000 pounds at the middle of a beam or truss 55 feet long.

Debate--

Each team will speak at some time during the tournament, on both sides of the question, "Resolved: That the English speaking nations should make a formal alliance for their common interest and protection." Contestants will be eliminated by two defeats. Each debate will be judged by a former member of the varsity debate team, and the finals will be judged by three former members.

ATO's debate Deltas. Sherwood Larson and Robert Ross of Delta Tau Delta will compete against John Jay Douglass and William Rist of Alpha Tau Omega. Yale Gotsdiner and Robert Passer of Zeta Beta Tau will do likewise against Don Farrens and James Brogan of Delta Theta Phi, while Nick Douvas and Charles Harris of Phi Delta Theta debate against Robert Chambers and Bud Johnson of Delta Upsilon. Sigma Alpha Mu entered a team which drew a bye.

Only one barb team has entered. Robert Dewey and Robert Schaufelberger will represent the newly-formed barb club for Lincoln men, the Gauls.

Cathedral Choir sings Sullivan's 'Gladsome Light'

Cathedral Choir vespers were notable this week for the reverent restraint with which Sullivan's "Oh Gladsome Light" was sung. A striking contrast was produced by the singing of "The Lee Shore" by Coleridge-Taylor.

The dim lights, the lighting of the candles accompanied by a slow movement from the "Pathetique," and the silent processional, produced a mystic atmosphere which formed a background for the reverie. Ann Ender described the symbolic discovery by Youth of the Fountain of Sacrifice within himself.

YW-YM to hold pow-wow Sunday

The annual YWCA pow-wow will be held Sunday from 4 to 8 p. m. in the Hi-Y club at the corner of 22nd and J. The meeting is for students who have attended Estes conference and those interested in attending sometime in the future.

YW and YM organizations at Hastings, Doane, Wesleyan, Midland and Omaha U. have been invited to attend this informal get-together. Supper will be served for 20c.

Rees Robrahn, blind student, is taking pre-law courses at Emporia, Kas., Teachers college.

Economics professor writes article for historical society

Acting upon an invitation of the Harvard Historical Society of Business, T. F. Marburg of the economics department has written a paper, "Aspects of Labor Administration in the Early 19th Century."

Marburg is interested primarily in the importance of records as kept by business men, for historical purposes. He believes that it is necessary that every business man keep a record in order that trends, innovations, and developments will be available for use in the future, especially by economists and business research experts.

Fascinating and humorous are the human interest items which Mr. Marburg discovered in the records of the Scovill company, which he used in his study. Factory hands were laid off in the spring, but this did not cause friction as they utilized the time to plant their gardens and keep their homes in repair.

Discouraged organized labor. Not so humorous, however, was the attitude toward early attempts at organized labor. If an employe was discovered inciting workers to organize, he was not only immediately discharged, but blacklisted so that it was impossible for him to secure other employment.

Skilled labor was so scarce in this country that it was necessary for the Scovill Company to import it from England, but this was against the law and dangerous to those agents who were sent to England to hire men.
