

Kampus Kaperings

with Marion Cramer

When the Gamma Phis had their dates to dinner there was a great deal of clamor for a candy passing between Louise Eppinger and D U "Porkey" Neurenberger and the gals are waiting hopefully. Along the line of waiting, but not so patiently, are the Phi Mu pledges who are tubbing all the seniors, one every Monday night this semester. These same pledges took a little vacation during Fraternity Education week and skipped out one evening last weekend with all the silver.

Lost

one Phi Delt pin by Kappa Anne Craft who, when questioned about the absence of the pin said that all was well, except that she had lost it somewhere on the campus. Now that story will work for a girl but we have heard that it won't work so well for Phi Gam Gus Swanson who will be initiated in a few weeks. Those who know say that he will be "losing" his pin to blond Phil Anderson, Theta, shortly after he gets it.

Farm House news

tells of the pledging of Robert Gerloff, Phillip Miller, Calvin Dahlke, Ray Arthaud, and the Merresmiths three—Frank, Robert and Kenneth.

Not serious

they tell me is the affair between Tri Delt Charlotte Kouba and Kenny Tyke, Chi Phi, who is now in med school. Yet Kenny comes down every weekend to see Char and brings with him candy, flowers and all sorts of nice things. A miniature Santa I'd say!

Delta Gams

turned to the ballots this week and elected Jo Ann Beltzer president; Betty Ann Robert, vice president; Harriet Talbot, secretary; and Betty Holtorf and Alyce Wykoff, treasurer. Congratulations, Dee-Gee girls.

In the title role of the gypsy singing the part of El Dancairo, heroine is Gladys Swarouth. Other noted members of the Metropolitan, such as Charles Kullman, as Don Jose, and Olesio de Paolis, are included in the cast. The opera will be sung in French, and will be aired over KOWH.
