Weirmen take first Minnesota meet

Saturday against Minnesota and 6 inches.

sota's 52.

Gene was timed in 9.9 seconds in the century, 22 seconds flat in the 220 and 49.1 in the quarter mile.

Ginn loses shoe.

Ginn loses shoe.

Bob Ginn won the mile in 4:22.1 but lost in the half mile as he lost a shoe and came in half barefooted. Vic Schleich took first in the shot put with a toss of 49 feet 7½ inches and placed fourth in the javelin.

Ralph King won in the 120 yard high hurdles with a speed of 14.9, inches with a speed of 14.9, inches with a speed of 14.9, inches with a speed of 14.9, ing all the resources of the scientific method to bear on wildlife problems, Elkins pointed out that misdirected energy is wasteful and that no amount of enthusiasm can offset proper training and knowledge. He complimented the university for its graduates in the science of ecology or the relationships of plants and animals.

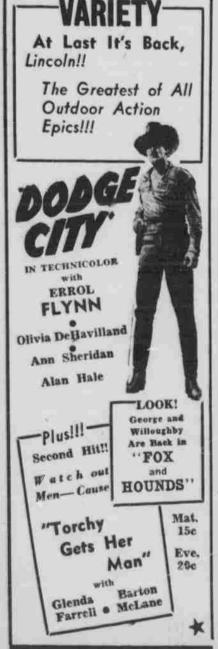

"Of all the ecologists I have known in my work in the forest service and in the fish and wildlife service, 99 percent of them have hailed from Nebraska," he stated. Before a joint session of chemistry, biology, and earth science sections, Saturday morning, Dr. O. R.

try, biology, and earth science sections, Saturday morning, Dr. O. R. Sweeney of Iowa State College declared that the middlewest can play an important role in the present national war emergency. The ent national war emergency. The recently developed soybean has great military possibilities and the development of its cultivation in this country places the United States in a valuable economic position.

Saturday afternoon's academy program featured a forum in the Union of "The Analysis of the Aptitudes, Interests, and Achievement of Entering College Students." Participants from the university faculty were Prof. H. M. Cox, chairman; Prof. C. E. Rosenquist, biology; Prof. B. C. Hendricks, chemistry; Prof. F. S. Hardricks, chemistry; Prof. F. S. Harper, mathematics; and Prof. R. C. Martin-Spencher, physics.

William E. Jackson, son of the attorney general, recently won a $100 award at Yale university for 'superiority in English compositon and declamation."

Grabbing 9 of 15 firsts, three of garnered fourth in the 220 lows which were contributed by Gene and fifth in the high jump. Harold Littler, Nebraska won a triangu- Hunt pole vaulted into a three way lar track meet at Minneapolis tie for first at a height of 13 feet

Bill Smutz went over the 220 Littler led the way in the 100 low hurdles in 25 seconds to grab yard dash, 220 and 440 as the first and came up with second Huskers scored 64 5-6 to Wiscon- place in the 120 highs. Ray Prosin's 57 1-3 and Minnesota's chaska threw the discus 146 feet 39 5-6. Also scored as a dual meet, 21/2 inches to win second in the the Huskers made 78 to Minne- discus and heaved the iron ball to third place in the shot.

Dale Garrels won the two mile for the Cornhuskers in 9:56, and Herb Grote threw the javelin 209 feet 3% inches for another first.

Summaries:

1:56.8.

220 yard dash: Won by Littler, (Neb.);
second, Novak (Wis.); third, Evans
(Minn.); fourth, Johnson (Minn.); fifth,
Soergal (Wis.); sixth, Abel (Neb.). Time

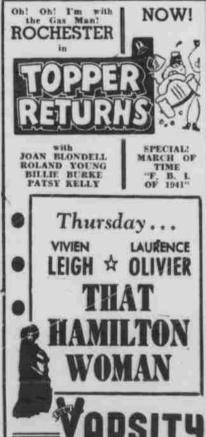

Two mile: Won by Garrels (Neb.); second, Pitts (Wis.); third, J. Gill (Minn.); fourth, Knox (Wis.); fifth, Sorenson (Minn.); sixth, Johnke (Wis.). Time of reporting the world situation and accounts for it because they have recognized propaganda as it has come into their hands, they have maintained a large corps of workers in Europe and they have had correspondents in Washington, D. C., with access to foreign information coming into the capital. spent.

(Continued from Page 1.)

The job of the press from now on is to keep the public informed about world events, to present an impartial interpretation of the news, to intelligently inform the public about foreign and domestic problems and to present an intelligent interpretation of the news.

In closing Dean Martin said that there has been, is now and there always will be a free press as long as there is room for it in this

Sooners down UN baseballers

Still on the short end of the scoring, the Husker baseball team went down, 3-1, before the 1940 Big Six champions, Oklahoma, in a battle played on the Husker field Friday afternoon. Second game Saturday was called because of rain.

Angelo Ossino pitched for the Huskers, giving up eight scat-tered hits while Nebraska batters could gain only four blows off Sooner hurler Johnny Heath.

The boys from Norman tallied in the first inning as the No. 1 batter walked, advanced on a single and went home on John Fitzgibbons' throw attempting to halt a double steal.

Ryan singles.

In the same inning Husker Joe Ryan singled. He was followed by Buck Gabelman who sent him home with a long double. Sid Held got an infield hit which put Gabelman on third. The threat ended as Oscar Tegtmeier bunted into a double play.

Sooners added another run in the seventh and one in the eighth. Dwight Collins scored on a single, a steal to second base and a double by Stephenson. A single and a Nebraska error brought the fi-

Griswold-

(Continued from Page 1.)

of carrying factual and even opin-This is the duty of editors and re- of place. Talk it up, gang! porters."

carries information on government schools are jumping at each othto the people and gives citizens a er's throats. In the Tulane Hulatant issues, "This function is the very essence of democracy.'

Griswold was introduced by Arthur Sweet of Nebraska City. This ger. The Tiger is coming here for first Journalism Day was dedicated a bath, and he will get one. The to the memory of M. M. Fogg. Tiger is coming down with tennis founder of the School of Journal-

Following the welcome address, Lincoln Star, presided over a rathey set down the first two men dio round table, "Can We Have on the Tulane team while losing, a Really Free Press?" and then 2 to 3. the delegates split up into groups to hear speakers on special topics Three of these took place at the Awardsame time.

Ralph Cox, Nebraska secretary of agriculture spoke on "Publicity for Nebraska," summarizing the position of the afternoon's events. work of the Nebraska advertising commission and explaining how the $50,000 advertising fund had been Addressing a large group of women journalists, Florence Swihart spoke on the subject "Women in Journalism." The biggest problem women face in competition with men she said is not only to be as good as men, but to convince men that they are as good.

"News is of utmost importance in a newspaper," George Grimes, managing editor of the Omaha World Herald, declared at a 3:30 meeting. "But I don't decry the importance of the amusing features and comics which come over the wire. However, newspapers shouldn't surrender their own interest to the interest of syndicated columns."

As an example for this latter theory, Mr. Grimes pointed out that the World Herald always reserves space on the front page for news other than foreign, even when the war news greatly overshadows everything else.

Other speakers in the discussion groups and their topics were:

Fred Arnold, "News Photography;" Foster May and Bruce Wallace, "Radio News;" Prof. F. C. Blood, "Advertising;" Mrs. Ruth Donovan, "Free Lancing;" E. W. Huse, "Country Editing."

Displays-

(Continued from Page 1.)

meats and an exhibit of the byproducts of the packing industry. A special array of farm machinery and a brooder in operation comprised the special display of the agricultural engineers.

Rural chemistry was exhibited paperweight divis in the experiment station. Live- fought to a draw. stock composed of the university's prize horses and beef animals was Kenny Greenwood and his orcheson display east of the activities tra played from 9 'till 12 to climax

By Bill Palmer.

"It looks like a happy Veishea for Cyclone baseballers as they meet Nebraska. The Cornhuskers have compiled an amazing string of losses in their opening tilts and are rated as the conference's weak sister."

The above quotation is from the sports column of the Iowa Daily Student, Iowa State paper. Here's hoping that Husker diamond dusters read this item and knock down the confident Cyclones when they play during the annual ag festival at Iowa State. One of the things lacking in the playing of the Nebraska nine as seen thru these eves is team spirit. Earnest deon the part of each player that the whole team was behind him ably improve batting, fielding and pitching.

No noise arises from the Cornhusker bench during a game. In ionated news to the people so that fact, in one game a player yelled chorus in the Union ballroom. Sevthey may know what is going on something and then looked around in the government they make, as if he felt embarrassed and out

Scanning other college sports The press, Griswold continued, pages we noticed that some of the ana State tennis matches, "Tomor- posit not later than May 26. row, the Wave will wash the Tia bath, and he will get one. The raquets. We believe that he will be lucky if he even has strings left when he goes home." The L. S. U. James E. Lawrence, editor of the paper was just as vindicative when

(Continued from Page 1.)

Gay Nineties Revue. Harold Bacon, decked in 1890 clothes, and sporting a handlebar mustache was master of ceremonies. First on the Gay Nineties Revue was "Take Me out to the Ball Game" sung by the audience, followed by "Casey Ran off with the Strawberry Blond" by Ardith Hackman.

Other numbers equally as well presented and received by the au-dience, were "Sweet Adeline" by the Barbershop Quartette; "Merry Oldsmobile" by Harold Bacon; "Alice Blue Gown" and "April Showers" (very appropriate) by the sextette, "Bicycle Built for Two," an act with a real two-seated bicycle, ridden on the stage was followed by a Jenny Lind solo by Marion Swanson and finally the featured act by the Floradora Girls which prompted whistles from the boys, gasps from the girls and blushes from the photographers on the peanut row as they kicked high and often.

There were punches pulled in the wrestling and boxing last night in the Farmers Fair arena.

In the first wrestling match, George Cockle of Omaha won the decision of the judges over Dick Smith of Callaway. Bill Rumbolz of Lincoln pinned Bill Markey of Callaway in the second match. Although Rumboltz had a 20 lb. advantage he came back to win after being thrown out of the ring into the spectators. Bob, "I hate politics," McNutt, Husker footballer, pinned Dick Peters, heavyweight grappler of Omaha, in the third and lats match.

One of the scrapiest of the boxing bouts of the evening took place between Alvin Dejaynes of Omaha and Bob Deveny of Omaha in the paperweight division, as they

Following the Athletic Show, the day's events.

Husker golfers beat Kansas U, State

Despite the loss of their No. 1 golfer, By Adams, who sprained an ankle Thursday, Nebraska set down Kansas State, 101/2 to 71/2, and Kansas U., 14-4 in matches on the Lincoln Country club links played Friday and Saturday after-

Altho playing in a driving rain Saturday, Frank Vette scored a 41-36 for a 77 for the Huskers. Low for the Jays was Bill McElhenv's 79.

Mac Dow and Jack Hyland set the pace as the Cornhusker golfers beat K. State Friday.

ourse-

(Continued from Page 1.)

dormitories if possible, said Dr. Westbrook, but where this is impracticable the fee for the session will be $16.50.

All university facilities will be open to students, including the colsire to win, coupled with a feeling iseum swimming pool, tennis courts, and the air-conditioned Union. All meals will be taken in and a lot of chatter would prob- the Union, and a number of parties, picnics, and sports events are planned. A series of Sunday afternoon public concerts will be presented by the band, orchestra, and eral broadcasts are planned and students will be free to use the university's recording room for a nominal fee.

Application blanks may be secured from local high school authorities or from the department fair view of both sides of impor- baloo, sports columnist McMillan of music. Blanks should be sent says concerning the Tulane-Louisi- to Dr. Westbrook with a $5 de-

LINCOLN'S LEADING THEATRES!

NOW!

It was a Raw. Romping. Frontier Town! . . . 'til a gal in a Low Cut Gown stepped in—to make it wilder and fundier!

"The Lady From Chevenne"

LORETTA YOUNG ROBERT PRESTON EDWARD ARNOLD

All Seats Till 6 P. M. 28c TUART

Starting Today at 12 Noon!

Star-Studded . . . Girl-Gargeouv . . Melody-Perfect . . , a Wonder Show!

ZIEGFELD GIRL' Starring

JAMES STEWART JUDY GARLAND HEDY LAMARR LANA TURNER

And Featuring 200 of the most beau-tiful girls in the world!

NOW SHOWING The Lovable Aldrich Family

"THE LIFE OF HENRY"

JACKIE COOPER

2nd Big Hit Street of Memories"

with Lynn Roberts-Guy Kibbee NEBRASKA