Shucks

By Helen Kelley

Maybe it was the draft and maybe it was just natural but whatever it was the diamonds and pins given out this summer far exceeded those taken back. And by the way, if you have a chance you had better get one while you can. The report is that girls will outnumber the fellows two to one.

Marjorie Bruning, Alpha Chi, got her Acacia pin before school was out last spring but managed to keep it out of this column. The man in the case is Buzz Dalton.

Mortar Boards are certainly popular, so—Ruth Clark, Alpha Xi Delt, got herself a diamond from Bob Griffith, Chi Phi.

Jean Elam, Kappa, has the Beta pin of Stan Huffman; Polly Jo Taylor, Alpha Chi, and Phil Ford, ATO, have decided to seal it with his cross, and Dick Miller has given his Phi Gam pin to Margaret Hopper, AOPi.

Pledges pinned.

Two of the new pledges have managed to get themselves pinned. They are Carol Robinson, DG pledge, to Bill Flory, Kappa Sig, and Genevieve Roberts, Tri Delt pledge, to Sig Alph Bob Heinzelman.

This summer Beanie Allen went to school in Wisconsin and came back with a pin from Tom Mudge, med student at Northwestern.

Betty Gleason and Ray Tomes passed candy at Towne Club this summer. He is a second lieutenant in the marine air corps.

Another diamond from far away is the one belonging to Georgia Swallow, Pi Phi. Hers was a little token from Kenny White, Sigma Nu at Boulder.

Mary Fredenahagen, Tri Delt, took Don Pollack's Phi Gam pin this summer.

Farm House loses pins.

The Farm House lost two pins when Charles Vette gave his to Betty McFarlan and Dale Weibel hung his on Ardith Hackman.

Jo Duree, Chi O, gave back Joe Dye's Sig Alph pin. Then she took a trip back east and stopped to see Merrill Englund, Kappa Sig.

Then there is the purely platonic friendship between Joan Macoy, Chi O, and Ray Prochaska. He is in Cleveland and they have decided to be friends again.

June Morrison, KD, has Hub Ogden's Kappa Sig pin and Charlotte Peck brought another pin to the KD house. She is now wearing Del Lignamann's Beta Sig badge.

Marvin Thompson, who is out for end on the team this fall, has his Phi Gam pin back from Kay Hanley, but they are still going together.

That draft again.

Emily Hess, Theta from Iowa State, was to have been married to Brandy Bachlin, Chi Delt, yesterday, but he was on maneuvers so the wedding will be sometime in November.

This weekend Selma Hill, SDT and Mortar Board of two years ago, will marry Bob Cohn, ZBT. The ceremony will be held in Lincoln.

Did you know that Bill McKearney, Sigma Chi, has settled down and hung his pin on Maryellen Robison, Gamma Phi. The sisters are laying bets on how long it will last, they tell me.

A rumor in the Gamma Phi house has it that Trena Mutchmore is wearing the Beta pin of Frank Mattoon inside her shirt pocket.

Bobbie Stout has a new diamond from Paul Skinner. Bobbie is a KKG and brought it back as a surprise to the sisters.

Just one more item: Ardis Lyman, Theta, has a Xi Psi Phi pin from Max Corey.

Hopkins receives Ferris position

Howard Hopkins, who received his M. Sc. degree from the university in June of 1940, has just been named dean of the college of pharmacy at Ferris Institute, Big Rapids, Mich., according to word received by Dr. R. A. Lyman, dean of the university college of pharmacy.

Dean Hopkins majored in pharmaceutical chemistry at the university. He received his bachelor's degree from the college of pharmacy at Purdue university.
