And in This Corner . . .

Political Science Lecture Versus Library Construction

. . . But Sam Sleeps On

SCENE: Room 104, Sosh, TIME: Almost any.

section.

CHARACTERS: Prof, some two dozen students, including Sam and his pal, and several dozen men working on the new libraray building.

"A complete knowledge of the constitution, combined with Bam!

'ought to win the series in four games. Hey Sam, look at that guy bending steel....

"organizations. Political sciin giving the student a broad outlook on the ....

.. Recer! recer! correct! ... if Pete Reiser had been a Cad. Say Sam, those old power wenches have really got a lift. They could take the top right off

".....the capitol building. Across the parkway, in line with the Washington monument is the Treasury building. Adjacent to the Treasury is the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier. Incidentally if Senator Connally.

Wham! wham! wham! ... had made a better batting average, the Dodgers wouldn't even have gone to the series, eh, Sam? Bet you can't handle a sledge like that guy. . . "Who probably acquired information before the president offi- don't see how you can sleep anycially released it. In that way the construction of a new Army building in Washington, which means Thwack! thwack! thwack! ... the Cards will have to get rid of a few pitchers. Say, do you suppose that guy ever misses one of those spikes, Sam? I saw a guy in a carnival once who tried to . .

Destroy War department opposition to the location. That is a good example of a governmental problem which is entirely out of the scope of constitutional authority. The solution must come from

BZZZZZZZZZZZZ

"The way that guy over there is sawing two-by-fours. Think of approach to a total war economy. how many of those things it will take before they finish the building. Twenty carpenters.....

the information was obtainable, asks.

but just couldn't be found before the deadline. Ordinarily, the com-ACTION: Political science quiz mittee handling the bill may obtain a . . . . . "

Sssssssssssssssssssssssssssss

....from the lumber yard. Right now, it's probably pretty hard for them to get materials. A fellow who has a lumber yard in Omaha told me that a ....."

Thunk! Thunk! Thunk!

".....was the decison reached in the last Senate investigation of the monopoly in the manufacture of army uniforms. Three compan-ies had organized a triple-control Thiessen of Omaha. Lasting ence and related studies do much of army uniforms. Three companstaff whose duty it was to ...... Bang! bang! bang!

....on that scaffold over on the north side of the foundation. You know, Sam, I'll bet that library is finished before .....

.. enough uniforms can possibly be delivered at Fort Benning, and that is just another example of problems brought on by the present emergency which can never be solved by referring directly to the constitution. Now, a Thunk! Bang! Sssssss! Wham! Brerrerrer!

... ought to wake up Sam. The bell is going to ring in a couple of minutes, and between those guys building that new library and the prof up there talking, I

Taxation Hits Private Schools Hard, Says Prof

NEW YORK, N. Y. (ACP), Dr. Rufus D. Smith, provost of New York university, says a "breakthe-rich" taxation policy of the federal government may result in closing of private schools.

The pending tax bill is an application of the policy, he believes, and exemplifies the United States' "chaotic, political and haphazard Private education in America has already been hard hit by lessened endowments and lower in-.hidden away in some desk come returns. Must it now face a in the White House. In this case depleted middle class income?" he

Morrill Art Galleries Devote Exhibitions of Nebraska Artists

Will Also Feature Loan Displays

Complete exhibition schedule for Morrill art galleries, announced for the 1941-42 season by Prof. Dwight Kirsch, will include in its progra ma number of opportunities for art patrons to acquaint themselves with art being produced in various Nebraska communities.

Now showing in gallery B is a preview exhibition of drawings and watercolors by Professor Kirsch, Miss Kady Faulkner of through Monday, this group of some 50 pieces will then tour art galleries, art centers, colleges and universities in Iowa and Illinois during the year. A second section of works by the same Nebraska artists will tour southern Kansas and Texas.

For three weeks, opening Oct. 1, a group of celebrity caricatures executed by Aline Fruhauf will be shown. From Oct. 22 to 27, an exhibition of public school art by grade and high school students will be a feature of the state teachers' convention,

DWIGHT KIRSCH . . . Announces Schedule

Annual exhibition sponsored by uled for Nov. 1 to 24. In this show 2 to 5.

spectacinary week,

even note;

My jurrier teleo showed me the keeps its reason why it keeps its color and tustre.

for the display each year. Work of students in the New York School of Fine and Applied Art will be on display Nov. 19 to Dec. 4 in a loan exhibition. A show of silk screen prints will be included in December's calendar. In January, Omaha artists will be invited to submit works for a group show, and the Grand Island sketch club will furnish pieces for a similar show Feb. 1 to 21.

Nebraska artists provide the works

March will bring the annual exhibitions of the Nebraska Art association, featuring the works of contemporary American artists. This month-long show will be the association's 52nd. The last two weeks of April will be devoted to a display of water colors in the galleries by eight Syracuse, N. Y., water colbrists.

High School Display

Senior and junior high school students from all sections of Nebraska will show their artistic productions in a public school art display in May. Closing the season will be the annual exhibition of art by faculty members and students from May 23 to June 8.

The art galleries are open daily the Lincoln Artists Guild is sched- from 8 to 6, and on Sundays from

Library Exhibit Features Books On Vocations

Do you want a job?

If you do, the new exhibit on vocational guidance placed on the home reading list of the library this week should be of interest. The display includes a series of 20 pamhlets supplying helpful information on occupational opportunities.

Jobs discussed in detail include printing, advertising, teaching, transportation, radio, military service, foundry work, household experience, horticulture, journal-ism, forestry, unskilled trades, clerical positions, statistical fields, farm labor, and consumer co-operation.

Additional booklets deal with choosing a career and actually getting a job. A special pamphlet tells how the war and present-day conditions have affected many occupations.

These books may be checked for the regular two-week periods at the circulation desk in the main

Vogue Sponsors College Senior Photo Contest

Offering two seniors in the nation a career in photography, the Vogue magazine is now sponsoring its second annual photographic

The contest is open to men and woman, offers two prizes, each consisting of a six months' apprenticeship with salary, in the Conde Nast studios in New York.

Last year's winners, one a graduate of Iowa State college, are now full-fledged members of Cone Nast photographic staff. Eight cash prizes will also be given for honorable mention winners. More information and contest blanks may be secured in the Daiily of-

Ruth Ann Sheldon Wins This Year's Literary Contest

Ruth Ann Sheldon, 1941 graduate and now home economics teacher at Harvard, was named winner of the annual literary contest sponsored by the Native Sons and Daughters of Nebraska at a banquet yesterday at the Corn-husker hotel.

Subject for the contest was a history of a Nebraska community. Her manuscript will be published by the Nebraska State Historical society in its quarterly magazine.

Dentistry College Profs Lecture in Sioux City

Prof. D. A. Keys and Dr. G. W. Ferguson of the college of dentistry will speak in Sioux City Sept. 29 and 30 before the north-west district dental society of Iowa. Dr. Keys will give a lecture demonstration on gold inlays, and Dr. Ferguson will present a lecture demonstration on amal-

The Nebraska Student's Soliloquy

"My furrier was replacing the old lining when he showed me the famous Hollander stamp on the back of each pelt. I learned then and there that this small, but important sign means furs keep their bear y longer. I know now why Hollandermarked furs are bought and worn magna cum lande!"

At the big game or the big dance later, wear, Hollander Featherlite Persian Lamb.

PERSON

And when you buy new furs, your retailer will be glad to show you, on pelt or tag, this famous Hollander mark . . . for over 50 years this mark has meant long-lasting color and lustre. The price of furs depends on * quality of skins and workmanship, but whether you pay much or little, the Hollander stamp tells you your furs will keep their beauty longer. 4

You'll find the HULLANDER mark on The that keep their beauty longer

YOUR LAUNDRY THIS YEAR?...

MARIO OUTCO

A better method is to send it home regularly by RAIL-WAY EXPRESS-and have it returned the same way.

Our service is fast, sure-and convenient. Economical rates include pick-up and delivery at no extra charge within our regular vehicle limits in all cities and principal towns. Your choice of prepaid or collect charges.

Just as convenient too, for 'most any shipment: Baggage, gifts, cake or a pet elephant.

NATION-WIDE RAIL-AIR SERVICE