Sassy Items

Candy, Candy, Candy.

Sorry fellows . . . Betty Cox passed candy to her friends at the dorm last night. The fellow is Pete Brolsma, Phi Chi, med student at Omaha.

The Kappa Sigs really had fun Monday night. That is, they all had fun but Paul Matthews, prexy, and Bill Flory. Paul and Joan Long, Chi O, passed candy and he had to stand by while the brothers kissed his girl. Bill got tubbed, just because he and Carol Robinson, DG pledge, seem to need encouragement to pass the longed for chocolates . . . A DG who did come thru was Jessie Moore.

The Betas came enmasse to help Bob Lichty celebrate. They got rewarded . . . The little Alpha Xi Delt who was kissed and kissed was Charlotte Peck; the lucky boy is Del Lunemann, Beta Sig. The theme of their candy passing was "Bundles for Britain." The bundle was Del, who was carried to the Alpha Xi Delt house, in a basket, because he was a little reluctant . . . AGR's at last got those stogies from Rex Brown. He bought Peg Sherburne a sparkler this summer . . .

The Chi O's will be getting bad complexions if they aren't careful. Not only did Joan Long pass candy, but so did Joan Green, and Grant Howard, Alpha Sig. However, Joan Green didn't get her due share of the kisses because the Delta Sig pledges had sneaked. The third box of candy at the Chi O house came from Mr. and Mrs. Bill Johnson. She was the former Marjorie Brown.

Of all the people that were seen at Magee's style clinic probably no one made himself more evident than Jim Selzer, Phi Psi as he stumbled up the steps and . . . may we add, embarrassed Becky Wait, Theta . . .

Ruthie McMillan and Carl Harnsberger have something new in tantalizing tid-bits. As they described it, Grant Reed, Phi Gam prexy, has quite a desire for hats, soft hats if you please, for after all, he eats them . . .

Darn It!

The Sigma Nus were certainly disappointed Monday night. They had luscious banana cream pie for dinner and were planning a pie race, but had to think better of it. Mrs. Verna Boyles, dean of women, and Miss Elsie Ford Piper, her assistant, were dinner guests. Now who do you think they're going to rush next? . . . The Betas are really in there, too. They entertained the Innocents at dinner last night. Hear the Innocents (?) are planning to take dinner with a few of the sororities this fall . . .

Football, Hurray!

The first football game of the season is practically upon us and with the weather as it is the excitement is running high . . . Going to the game will be lots and lots of people, including AGR's Arlo Wirth, Otto Pfeiffer, Max Laughlin, and Dwight Sloan . . . We don't mind a trio, we don't even mind a mixed up foursome.

Alpha Chi Omega . . . Honors New Dean at Tea

Alpha Chi Omega will entertain with a tea in honor of Mrs. Verna Boyles, dean of women, this afternoon at the chapter house.

In the receiving line will be Mrs. Verna Boyles, Mrs. Ruth Cushing, Mrs. John G. Mason, Mrs. Clark Jeary and Jean Holtz. Presiding at the tea tables will be Mrs. Arthur Westbrook and Mrs. T. T. Bullock.

Invited guests include the dean of women's staff, housemothers of sororities and fraternities, chaperones from Carrie Belle Raymond and Love Halls, alumni Pan-Hellenic delegates, members of Mortar Board and presidents of sororities.

but when a fifth one gets in there—we're confused.

You all heard about the four-some involving one of the Krauses. Now it's another one, Betty Krause, Pi Phi, who will be making the trip to the Ames game with Jim Nicols, ATO. As soon as it is all straightened out we'll let you know. A hint as to the solution. Rosey's beaux will be in town for the weekend so the Kappa Krause will be taken care of . . .

Miscellaneous:

To be seen at the AGR house-party this Saturday will be Johnny Schick and Max Keller with Gamma Phi Helen Keisselbach and Janet Gibson. Pledge Dauane Munter will be present with Chi O Millicent Stalder . . .

Peg Jones, Alpha Xi Delt, and Bob Henderson, Sig Ep, are dating frequently, such as the Turnpike last Saturday, brunch at the Cornhusker Sunday, coking dates scattered here and there, etc. . . . "Sweets" Campbell, KKG, and Don Engdahl, Sigma Nu, are getting pretty "sweet" on each other . . .

Taking their tumbling in good grace last weekend were Marie Anderson, Paul Svoboda, Doc Yates, Kenny Newhouse and Bel-dora Cochran, besides Jim Shelley and Betty Krause. Here is a repeat act from last year . . . Barbara Moorehouse, Alpha Phi pledge, goes to Omaha Friday to meet pledge, goes to Omaha Friday Bill Koopman, ATO from Ames. Then they are going home for the weekend. Wonder if that is why she has eyes for none of the Nebraska boys? . . . Ruth Clark, Alpha Xi Delt, and Bob Griffith, Chi Phi, have set the date for their wedding sometime in October . . .

Have to run, now, and get my Xmas shopping done early. Early enough to beat the ten percent tax.

Presbyterians Hold Luncheon

The first luncheon of the Presbyterian students will be held at the Presbyterian student center, 1333 N. 14th st., at noon today.

Lucille Thomas will tell of her experiences at the international student camp at Cleveland, which she attended last summer. Jim Newcomer is in charge of the program. Richard Johnson is president of the Presbyterian student fellowship.

Theatre Holds 'East Lynne' Tryouts Today

First tryouts for parts in "East Lynne" will be held tonight in room 201 of the Temple beginning at 7:30. All students interested have been invited by Director Paul Bogen to try out.

Students may bring prepared readings or use those provided by the Theater. A three minute limitation has been placed on each try-out.

Musical ability, either vocal or dancing, as well as dramatic ability will be considered, as there are about six singing and dancing parts, according to Bogen.

Only requirement is that students have athletic eligibility with freshmen and ineligible students given an opportunity to try out for the experimental theater at the same time.

Engineers Elect Board Officers

Exec Group Has Charge Of College Activities

Members of the engineering exec board will meet today at 5 p. m. in E E building, room 111. Election of a chairman, vice chairman, and secretary-treasurer will be the first item of business taken up by the group this year.

The board includes the chairman and secretary of the six different engineering societies on this campus, and the editor in chief and manager of the Blue Print, engineering magazine. The two student council members from engineering college are also on the board.

Campbell Speaks At Law Smoker

Clinton Campbell, Lincoln attorney, will speak on "Law As An Opportunity for Service" before members of the law college at the annual smoker Thursday night. This first smoker will welcome new members of the law college.

Bob Flory is chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements. The Pi Phi trio will sing and football movies will be shown.

um for American intervention in the present crisis.

Student representative will be Marion Axford, who has attended youth conventions as a representative of the Trinity Methodist church. Her topic will be "The Women and the War." An open discussion will follow the meeting and an opportunity will be given for those who wish to sign the petition.

In Waterloo, Iowa . . . Ag College Team Wins Second At Dairy Cattle Congress

. . . K-State Takes First

Representing Nebraska at the dairy cattle congress in Waterloo, Iowa, the ag college judging team won second place in dairy cattle judging Monday. Eleven teams competed, with the team from Kansas State college placing first.

Members of the Nebraska team were Jack Paulson, Don Tracy, and Harold Hansen. George Trimmer, instructor in dairy husbandry at the college of agriculture, was the coach.

Nebraska's team placed third in judging of Holsteins, third on Ayrshires, fifth on Guernseys, fifth on Jerseys, and fifth on Brown Swiss. In individual judging, Jack Paulson was second and was awarded an overnight suitcase, a Parker pen and pencil set, and a showman's cane. Paulson placed second in judging Holsteins, second on Brown Swiss, third on Guernseys, and sixth on Ayrshires. Hansen was seventh in judging Jerseys and tenth on Ayrshires.

The contest drew teams from most of the Mississippi valley states. The complete standing of teams was: Kansas State, Nebraska, Wisconsin, Iowa State, Missouri, Purdue, Oklahoma A. & M., Michigan State, Illinois, Minnesota and South Dakota State.

Barb Council Names New Committees

To guarantee a well rounded activity program for all unaffiliated students and to insure that all activities carried on under the name of "barb" are in accord with barb ideals, a committee system was inaugurated at the Barb Council meeting Monday night.

The committees, headed by the council members, work in conjunction with students from the other barb organizations. Students interested in working in barb activities are urged to contact the committee chairmen or the council president, Harold Alexis.

Committees and chairmen are: Social, Frank Smith and Fern Wilterdink; publicity and promotion, Marjorie Holmes and Mary Ellen Sim; political, Dave Marvin; finance, Bob Dewey; student welfare, Jerry Skoog; athletic, Dave Marvin; secretarial, Dorothy White and Fern Wilterdink.

Home Ec Group Sponsors Frolic For Ag Women

Freshman Frolic, sponsored annually by the Home Economics association, is scheduled for today from 5 to 7 p. m. on lower ag campus. Intended primarily to interest freshman home economics students in this national professional organization, the program will include a short summary of the group and its work. Upperclassmen also are urged to attend.

Beginning Monday morning and lasting until Tuesday evening, the ticket sale will be conducted at tables placed in the home economics building. Ticket price will be ten cents for new students; 25 cents for old members.

Entertainment will consist of games and will be followed by a picnic supper. Betty Ann Tisthammer, social chairman of the organization, will be in charge of the frolic.

Deans . . .

noon sessions will combine secondary and college groups for a panel discussion on the topic "The Relationship of Deans and Counselors to Education for Citizenship." Mrs. Mabel Thompson of Lincoln Northeast high school and Mrs. Ada Westover, assistant to the dean of women at the university, are arranging the afternoon.

Mrs. Verna G. Boyles, dean of women, will be the first speaker on the afternoon panel. Her subject is "The American Girl in the Current Crisis."

Other speakers on the panel will be: Miss Olivia Pound, adviser to girls, Lincoln high school, "Qualities Essential to the Development of Responsible Citizens"; Miss Virginia Crawford, student, Nebraska Wesleyan university, "Extra-Curricular Activities"; Mrs. Roy M. Green, mother, Lincoln, "The Home and School Cooperate for Good Citizenship"; Mrs. Gladys Van Camp, adviser to girls, Everett junior high school, Lincoln, "The Dean's Program for Developing Responsible Citizens"; Miss Ethel Tilley, dean of women, Hastings college, "Building for Tomorrow." Mrs. Boyles will conclude the discussion with a summary of talks.

Meeting will be held in Ellen Smith hall. Miss Elsie Ford Piper, assistant dean of women, is in charge of luncheon reservations.
