Frats Start Long Fight For Jack Best Trophy

War is not confined to the European continent. Many may not realize it, but there is a battle being fought on the campus. The fraternities have started their annual battle for the Jack Best award for supremacy in athletics. Touch football, tennis and golf are the first sports on the 1941-42 menu. The Alpha Tau Omega swept the first tennis match to be played from Theta Xi. The Sigma Alpha Epsilon golf team took care of the Alpha Sig's, and Beta Theta Pi defeated the ATO's on the links.

Overtime Contests.

Three overtime touch contests played are: AGR's 1, Kappa Sig's 0; Sigma Nu 1, D. U.'s 0; and Alpha Sig's 1, SAM 0. All overtime games are given to the team that can gain the most yardage in four extra downs following the game.

Other touch scores are: Phi Gams 13, Alpha Sig's 6; Betas 12, Phi Psi's 6; Sig Eps 29, Delta Sig's 0; Farm House 7, Phi Delt's 0; Farm House 6, AGR 0; Delta Tau Delta 6, Phi Psi 2; Phi Gams 2, ATO's 0; Beta Sig's 19, Sigma Chi 0; Kappa Sig's 19, Theta Xi 0.

Barb touch is tentatively scheduled to begin Thursday, Oct. 9. This year there are nine barb touch teams. This does not compare too favorably with the 21 clubs represented last year in the sport for unaffiliated students, according to intramural heads.

Grote, Champion Javelin Thrower, Goes Into Army

From Phi Gams to "Bye Fems," is the simple story of Big Six champion javelin thrower, Herb Grote.

Herb, who has been Nebraska's Big Six champion javelin thrower for the past two years, leaves to join the army on Oct. 24, with one year of eligibility left.

The loss of Grote will greatly hurt Ed Weir's track team. Herb holds the conference record of 216 feet and 4 inches.

'Bums' on the Spot as . . . Yankees, Led by Russo, Edge Dodgers in Subway Series

Marius Russo, a Brooklyn boy, came back to his home district to pitch the invading Yanks to a 2-1 victory over the battling Brooklyn Dodgers in the third game of the 1941 subway series.

The game had been a scoreless pitchers' battle between Russo and "Fat" Freddy Fitzsimmons of the Bums, going into the first of the eighth. Fitz had to leave the game after the seventh after being hit on the knee by a line drive off Russo's bat. He is in a New York hospital with a possible chipped knee bone.

French Too Late

The Yanks teed off in their half of the eighth by getting two runs and four hits off relief hurler Hugh Casey, before Lefthander Larry French could quell the rally. The damage had been done. Brooklyn scored one tally off a double by Walker and Reese's single but could show nothing more.

Rolfe started it all for the victors. His single was followed by Henrich's one-bagger. A line drive by DiMaggio brought in Rolfe and left runners on first and third. Keller brought Henrich in with the last hit of the game. Dickey hit into a double play to end the Yank scoring.

Casey the Loser

Russo and Allen, the fourth Dodger pitcher, set down each side in order in the ninth to bring the game to an end. Russo was the winning pitcher, allowing but four hits and striking out five. Casey was blamed for the loss.

The victory gave the Bronx team a two to one lead in the series. The broadcasting of the fourth game will begin at 12:45 (c. s. t.) Sunday.

Schwartzkopf, Behm, Dobson Get Honors

Honors are still being heaped upon members of the Rose Bowl contingent of Cornhuskers.

Eddie Schwartzkopf, guard who pushed Warren Alfson for top honors last year, was named on a United Press All America defense team. Schwartzkopf is now serving in the national guard.

Forrest Behm, Husker tackle for last year, has been named coach of the freshman squad at Harvard. Behm, winner of a scholarship to that school, is the second Husker to land a part time coaching position with an eastern university while completing his education.

Adna Dobson is an assistant at Cornell. Both Behm and Dobson won the Big Six scholarship award which goes to the outstanding scholar of the conference in his senior year.

Camera Club Has Exhibit At Morrill

Lincoln Camera club members will exhibit 50 photographs at a display in Gallery A of Morrill hall beginning Sunday.

This showing, which will continue until Oct. 15, is one of a series planned for the first two weeks of October, November, February, April, and May by the group.

Exhibitions including the ones being shown here are circulated throughout the United States by various organizations belonging to the Photographic Society of America. Lincoln Camera club will hold its annual display of work by members in December.

UN Powerhouse Scores 14-0 Win

ing brought the ball to Iowa's 38. Francis went thru center for four, Zikmund got two and then Bradley drove over his own right side for 16 yards down to the opponent's 16. Zikmund broke loose on one of the famed reverses for which he is known and traveled down to the one yard line where Darling knocked him out of bounds.

Bradley Scores.

There were approximately eight minutes gone in the first quarter. From that time on the ball traded hands with the Huskers controlling the majority of the time for the rest of the half.

The Scarlet and Cream scored again after ten minutes were gone in the third stanza. The drive started as soon as Iowa State kicked to the Huskers but faltered on the Cyclone 29 when Vike punted over the goal. On the first Cyclone play from their own 20, Royal Lohry quick kicked to Debus who ran back 12 yards to Iowa State's 43.

Debus took the ball close to 10 yards on the next play and Francis, four. Debus got 11 in two tries, and Francis four in two. At this point in the proceedings it looked like the Husker attack was finally bogging down.

Fake Lateral Scoring Play.

It was fourth down on the opponent's 19 and there were 5 yards to a first down. Freddy Metheny came in and on the next play Bradley faked a lateral to Zikmund and went around the weak side for 10 yards and the second tally. This time Schleich converted and the score read, Nebraska 14, Iowa State 0.

Iowa State's major threat to the Nebraska goal line came late in the fourth quarter when desperation passes began clicking. The Cyclones traveled from their own 50 after Schalk had recovered a fumble by Debus.

Tippee, left-handed field general, began tossing and the passes began counting. This drive took them down to Nebraska's five yard line and then Wayne Blue darted out to intercept a pass and downed it. There were 45 seconds left in the game and two line plays with Metheny falling on the ball both times took up the time.

Second Team Outstanding.

Standouts for Nebraska included Von Goetz, Meier, Abel and Hernon in the first line on defense. When the seconds took over standouts were more noticeable.

Marv Thompson, end, was the big noise with his vicious tackling getting thru the interference to make five tackles around his end. Debus and Sindt were going well with fumbles marring Debus' performance to some extent.

For Iowa State, it was Lohry and Darling all of the way in the backfield both on offense and defense. Tippee and Heggen were good in the pinches by being the long end in the completion of many passes. Kirkpatrick, center, was strong on defense, breaking thru time and again. Lange at end was constantly showing up well.

Iowa State got more first downs than did the Huskers by a 12-11 count. The Huskers were best in rushing by 146 yards to 23 while the Cyclones showed passing superiority completing 14-20 aeriels. Total yardage revealed Nebraska rolling up 204 yards to Iowa State 153.

Tanksterettes Hold Tryouts

All members and all persons interested in joining Tanksterettes should be out for tryouts Monday and Wednesday at 4 p. m. at the university pool.

To place something of a quietus on all talk by the scribes of the nation, blaspheming the efforts of Art Donovan a few nights ago in the big fight featuring Louis and Nova, "Sec" Taylor of the Des Moines Tribune gives a ringside view of the matter...

Says Sec, "Poor Lou not only was helpless and badly whipped but he indicated by his actions, whether intentionally or not I have no means of knowing, that he had had enough.

Donovan, of course had no way of knowing how many seconds remained in the sixth round, and when he saw that Louis was ready to throw another right at the half-unconscious gelatine-legged challenger, he intervened."

All of which supports a conclusion that was submitted by this column several issues past that no blame should and could be placed upon Donovan as the referee in this fight...

Even Cy Sherman in his column in the Star supports the position to which we had subscribed when he stated, "Now that a few days have elapsed for calmer judgment to assert itself, the conviction comes to this column that Donovan, being smack in the middle of things, where he was in position to see and know better than anyone else, seemingly was justified in calling a halt on the slaughter..."

Since 1896 with the exception of 11 seasons, Nebraska and Iowa State have played ball together... Yesterday marked the 36th game between the two and since this column is being written before we make our way to Clyde Williams Field we still don't know how it is going to turn out...

Up until the game yesterday, at any rate, the Huskers have tamed the Cyclones on 29 different occasions seeing the procedure reversed on but five afternoons... There has been one tie and that was the 6-6 deadlock of 1911...

The largest score that the Nebraska gridgers have ever run up on the fellows from the tall corn state was a 54-6 final decision in 1922... Closest win was the 7-6 deal in 1934...

Disregarding the number of wins that have been reaped at Iowa State it still goes without saying that the Cyclones always

Girls' Sport
By Susan Shaw

Don't forget, all you girls interested in selling candy at the football games, to call at the WAA lounge, 10 to 11 a. m. or 3 to 4:30 p. m. before next Saturday. This is definitely an opportunity you can't afford to miss. Besides admission to the game a 10 percent commission on all sales is yours.

Suggestion to University Theatre: Check on WAA prexy Jeanette Mickey's hidden talent of pantomiming nursery rhymes. Her specialties include "Little Jack Horner" and "A Tisket, A Tasket."

Now that practice games are out of the way and no more casualties have been reported, the regular soccer baseball tournament will begin Monday. Two games will be played each evening so promptness is stressed. Should a team fail to be there on time its game will be forfeited.
