Husker Injuries Hamper Attack

Sophs Leave Relay Champs Well in Rear

powerhouse four plays to make the necessary yardage, and it was Hillenbrand who crashed over from the half to even things up. A moment later Gene White put the visitors ahead by a one point margin.

Indiana struck quickly after the teams resumed the field to start the third canto. They kicked off to the Huskers and then forced Bradley to kick from his own 24 and Hillenbrand got back to Nebraska's 48.

They Do It Again.

Using power for four plays and 12 yards, Hillenbrand assumed the passer's role. He whipped a perfect strike to Jacoby and the 176 pound sophomore carried it over. Pass and run were good for 36 yards and again White converted.

Seven minutes later saw Nebraska and Indiana exchanging quick kicks with the Hoosiers gaining possession on Husker property, the 41 to be exact. Hillenbrand hit the right side for 15 yards, Jacoby slipped through for 12 and then for 4 to put the ball on the 10-yard line.

Hillenbrand Tosses Last One.

Hillenbrand struck again for 10 yards with Kenny White on the receiving end. Again White converted. At that point the score stood 21 to 6.

This ended the Hoosiers' scoring for the day, and they sat back to take it easy. They took it too easy and let the ball slip on their own 47; it flew into the brawny hands of Vic Schleich and the tables had suddenly turned. Fred Metheny passed swiftly to Bob Ludwig for 11 yards down to Indiana's 36, and then Howard Debus shifted back into the tail spot from whence he fired an aerial bomb to Fred Metheny who went all the way down to the 1-yard line.

Blue Scores.

In two plays Wayne Blue parted the Hoosier line and scored. This time Schleich split the uprights and the scoring was all over with seven minutes missing in the last period.

The Indiana team was down on men at tagging the elusive Hoosiers. Allen Zikmund, heretofore noted as a key offensive threat, checked in a top defensive job.

Halftime Color.

Intermission entertainment featured the Husker band, led smartly by DeWayne Wolf. The Husker bandmen danced to music, formed a huge heart, and even sang during their versatile performance.

the Husker 10-yard line when the final gun sounded, and both teams knew that they had spent the afternoon well. As a final evaluation, it was the Hoosier speed concentrated in two sophomores, Hillenbrand and Jacoby, and their superior down field blocking that spelled disaster for Nebraska.

Injuries Hurt.

The Huskers were handicapped by injuries, with Clarence Hernon carried from the field; with Zikmund roughed up; with Abel limping and with Debus favoring his back. But the Huskers still put up a good fight. One decided weakness, as was apparent on Indiana's wide sweeps, lay in the ends.

Stars for Indiana included Hillenbrand and Jacoby in two foot high letters and Kenny Smith along with Gene White in the line. Nebraska put Zikmund, Debus and Metheny in the same category with George Abel sharing best lineman honors. Fred Meier gave everything he had to turn the defeat into victory but failed.

A dropped baton midway during the race forced Nebraska's Big Six champion mile relay team to accept defeat from a Husker sophomore quartet between the halves of the Indiana-Husker battle.

Despite the presence of Red Littler, national 440 luminary, an anchor man, the upperclassmen combine couldn't make up the 40 yard deficit. Al Brown finished 36 yards ahead of the coasting Littler, who found the soph's lead too great to argue with.

Bill Smutz, Arden Kersey and Don Morris completed the upperclass quartet; Bill Connor, a Pul Davidson and William Rhiel preceded Brown for the sophomores.

Huskers Drop From Heights

Hillenbrand Impressive Along with Other Soph

By Norris Anderson.

Memorial Stadium, Oct. 18.—The high hopes built up for Nebraska's Cornhuskers vanished here today before the speed and deception of the Indiana Hoosiers. Seemingly at ease from start to finish, the somber-clad invaders revealed class and power to triumph on a sun-drenched gridiron, 21 to 13.

Led by the prodigious Billy Hillenbrand, Indiana rode the air lanes for two touchdowns that punctured Nebraska's victory bubble, grown fat and glossy with easy triumphs over Iowa State and Kansas.

Huskers Score First.

Husker Allen Zikmund brought the colorful homecoming crowd on its feet late in the first quarter by romping 36 yards to pay dirt in one of the day's offensive gems. Zikmund found a wide hole thru the middle, sidestepped several would-be tacklers, and sped down the east sidelines to score standing up.

A startling soph upstart turned the rejuvenated Husker fans' victory dream into a nightmare. Bill Hillenbrand, heralded as the top prep backfielder in the nation two years ago, can assume major credit for the Husker downfall.

Hillenbrand's slouchy gait, which assumes lightning proportions when used for ball advancing purposes, dominated the scene. He constantly spun thru the entire Husker line toward pay dirt, only to be dragged down by George Abel or Allen Zikmund, fastest Husker gridmen.

Hillenbrand Passes.

Charley Jacoby, another soph back, picked up Hillenbrand's burden at times and found the Husker line equally vulnerable. Hillenbrand's 36 yard flip to Jacoby provided the first Hoosier marker.

Husker play was brilliant at times, mediocre at others, with the latter variety more popular. Big Howard Debus tossed 36 yards to Fred Metheny to set the pins for the second Husker marker. Debus twice penetrated the Hoosier forwards for gains exceeding 40 yards. Heroic in defeat was crippled George Abel, who literally tackled everything that trotted from the Hoosier bench during the third period.

Pivot Fred Meier, End Marv Thompson, and Tackle Joe Byler appeared most adept of other line-
