

Bradley Drives to 11 Yard Line . . .

In the first quarter the Huskers threatened when Dale Bradley carried the ball to the Missouri 11 yard line on the play pictured above which netted five yards. After four plays the Tigers took the ball on their own 20 after a Husker pass flew into the end zone, unheeded.

Husker Throng Takes Part In Lusty Display at Mizzou

By Paul E. Svoboda.

MEMORIAL STADIUM, Columbia, Mo. (By Special Wire). The citizens of the "show me" state were really living up to their reputation of taking a look, this time at the annual grid spectacle between the Missouri Tiger and the Nebraska Cornhuskers.

Fans from the entire midwest with a goodly smattering of Husker rooters streamed into this little college town of Columbia by car, bus, train, anything, creating one continuous traffic jam from Friday night until kickoff time at 2:30. Fraternity and sorority houses resembled the lobby of the Waldorf at convention time.

Twenty-seven thousand vocal giants made their way with elbow and shoulder into Memorial stadium where the Golden Clad Missourians made a 70 some odd yard touchdown dance and eked out a 6-0 win over a struggling eleven from Nebraska.

Dedication.

At the half time Fredrick A. Middlebush dedicated the game to the boys in the Khaki and Blue of Uncle Sam. Following his short address the University of Missouri mentor presented Governor Forest C. Donnell of Missouri and former Governor Roy L. Cochran of Nebraska, who also spoke briefly. Immediately after the dedication the two senior honoraries of Nebraska and Missouri met at mid-field where the president of Qebh presented the traditional victory bell to the Innocent's society for the 20-7 win of the Huskers of last year.

Taking up the cause of the Scarlet and Cream were the blue-coated cadets from Wentworth Military Academy who lent their voices to the appeal of Husker rooters who were doing everything they could from the stands to erase the black mark on the Nebraska record put there by the Husky Hoosiers.

A few of the more ardent rooters in the stands for Nebraska were Mary Aileen Cochran, Betty Klopp, Dorothy Weirich, all from the Theta house. A former Nebraska student and a Kappa Kappa Gamma Mary Ella Bennett came up from the University of Arkansas to watch the game and cheer for what would have been her Alma Mater.

Phi Psi's and ATO's came down in bunches. Making the trip from Phi Kappa Psi were Ky Romans, Jim Selzer, Jim Townsend and a host of others. A few of the ATO's were Bob Sandberg, Ed Calhoun and Jack Higgins. Jean Porter, a Nebraska Pi Phi, took in the gridiron festival with her companion Jack Stevenson, UP correspondent and Missouri Delt, whose job it is to report the happenings of such events.

Riding Club Plans Picnic at WAA Cabin Tuesday

Council Judiciary Committee Announces Interpretation of Rules for Fall Election

Ed's Note:

These are the rules governing student election proceedings. They were formulated by the judiciary committee of the Student Council and will be rigidly enforced in the coming fall campaign.

The committee agrees on the following definitions and interpretations of Article IV of the rules of student elections:

Article IV.

No vote shall be solicited at the polls or in the building in which election is being held during election day. No money shall be spent in behalf of any candidate. No printed, mimeographed, typed, or otherwise published material in behalf of any candidate shall be permitted except the impartial announcements of the candidates appearing in the press. Any candidate violating these rules either in person or thru his supporters shall thereby become ineligible.

No Solicitation of Votes.

"No vote shall be solicited" shall mean: No person eligible to vote for any candidate shall be influenced in any way at the polls or in the building in which the election is being held by means of the spoken or written word or any other means, to cast his or her vote for any particular candidate; nor shall any such person be influenced in any means to vote at all.

"At the polls or within the building in which the election is being held" shall mean: Any place within said building or within one hundred feet from any part of the building. Exception: Any regularly assigned offices on the third floor of the Union for Interfraternity and Barb Council. The phrase "at the polls" shall mean: At the place, or places, where passing out of ballots to voters, marking of ballots by voters, and placing of ballots in the ballot boxes is taking place.

"During the election day" shall mean: Shall be exchanged at any time from 12 midnight of the day preceding the election to the time that the polls are officially closed.

Money Interpretation.

"No money" shall mean: No cash, checks, mail orders, drafts, stamps, credit or any other article of value.

"Shall be spent" shall mean:

SPECIAL

LOWELL'S
JEWELRY STORE
143 So. 12th Phone 2-1330

Shall be exchanged, traded or given away in any manner.

"In behalf of any candidate" shall mean: No money shall be spent which would in any way influence the results of the election, or in any way influence a voter to cast his vote for any particular candidate, or candidates, whose name or names appear on the ballots. The term candidate shall include both persons whose names appear on the ballots, and also the political parties with which they may be affiliated. This definition of candidate shall be followed wherever the term appears in this article. A person whose name is to appear on the ballot shall be considered a candidate from the day of his filing for office.

"No printed, mimeographed, typed, or otherwise published material" shall mean: No handbills, posters, papers, newspaper or any other type of materials or advertising on which appears any writings, typing, printing, cartoons, drawings, photographs or any other type of pictorial representation of thought, which material is to any voter by any means whatever or is posted in any place except the inside of a private home, boarding house, rooming house, fraternity house or sorority house, except the official posters of the elections committee of the Student Council. Any such material posted in the university residence halls for women except official publicity of the elections committee shall be considered "published material."

Ink Must Be Same.

"Impartial announcements" shall mean: A list of all candidates for all offices to be filled by the elections, in which list the candidates' names must all appear correctly spelled, in the same kind of type, in the same color and shade of ink with no extra markings of any sort beneath, over, around, or beside any particular names which markings does not appear in the same way by all the names in the list. Such lists may contain the political affiliations of all candidates but no other information about them. Official posters by the elections committee of the Student Council shall be considered impartial announcements.

"The press" shall mean: Any publication which has the approval of the University of Nebraska publications board. In all cases the editors of the publications shall be held directly responsible for what appears in the publication.

"Violating these rules" shall mean: In any way causing the rules of this article to be broken or infringed.

Ignorance No Excuse.

"Either in person or thru his supporters" shall mean: Either by a personal action or by the action of anyone of his supporters or by any member of the political faction with which he affiliated, no matter whether or not he knows such action will be taken, is being taken or has been taken.

In considering the definition of the term candidate the penalty of violation of a rule shall apply only to the individual with whom the violation is concerned. If the violation is concerned with a political party, then the penalty shall apply to all nominees affiliated with that party.

Ignorance of this article and its interpretation shall not be considered a valid excuse for the violation of the rules of this article either by an individual, a group of individuals or a political faction.

Regular news items appearing in the press (defined above) and concerning any candidate shall not be considered as violations of this article unless they contain editorial comment about the candidate or unless they are not impartial.

UN Religious Group Takes Campus Study

In an attempt to learn more about the religious life of university students, the faculty representatives of the Council of Religious Welfare will contact as many as possible in a two week survey upon the suggestion of Chancellor Boucher. Freshman students will be contacted in their orientation classes while upperclassmen will be reached through the organized houses and groups. It is requested that the questionnaires be answered completely and truthfully as the information received will be considered impersonally. Religious beliefs, church relationships and ethical activities will be the basis of the questions asked.

The Millsaps college is supported by the Methodist church, its Baptist union, only denominational organization on the campus has a membership of 108 out of student body of 600.

Motion picture actor Dana Andrews is a graduate of Sam Houston college.
