

Simmons Elected To Take Coin-Caller's Spot Saturday

With the announcement that Kenny Simmons, slippery senior back, would captain the Huskers in their fourth conference game against K State on Saturday, the gridgers celebrated by holding a scrimmage terminated only by darkness Tuesday afternoon.

Having a private celebration of his own, Kenny mowed through when the B team was on offense for repeated gains to show that the major had done the right thing in selecting him to call the toss.

Freddie M... was still at the guard spot when he was for the Mizzou game and Forrey Boehman was at the first string center with Howard Kelly keeping out of the fray to protect his shoulder.

Battle Looms As Teams Set For Two Mile

... Ginn Favored

While the Husker football squad is engaging Minnesota on Nov. 8, another phase that is fully as important as the grid sport will be taking place down at Columbia, Mo.

The two-mile run; an event that has been on the Big Six all-sports docket since 1911, will be the feature of the day with every one of the Big Six schools slated to enter strong competition with Oklahoma, given the outside favorite's position.

Important for Crown.

The meet counts as much toward the all-sports trophy in the conference as does football altho it draws little attention in comparison and was won by Nebraska, last year.

Headlining the meet again this year will be Bob Ginn, Husker distance star, Ginn won the run last year and has won all of his starts so far this year, giving him the favorite's position for the race this year.

Ginn best at distances.

Bobby is one of the best distance men ever turned out by the Husker cinder coaching staff. He led the Nebraska team all during the past indoor and outdoor season by winning the half mile and the mile run. Ginn lead the entire nation for some time last spring when he turned in a 4:10 mile for the fastest mile that a Husker runner has placed on the score book.

His stiffest competition will come from Bill Lyda, Oklahoma distance star, who lost by a half yard to Ginn when the two met several weeks ago before the Kansas U. game. The time for the winner was 9:45.1 with Lyda .2 of a second behind him.

Mizzou falls in duel.

Last Saturday, the Husker two mile team tripped up Missouri 13-23 in a duel meet. Ginn was again the winner in a 9:48.1 effort to nip Rayl for the Tigers at the tape. Larry Inman of Iowa State also established himself as another threat on the basis of his victory over Ray Edwards of Kansas in a close battle that turned out a 9:45.4 time.

Pressing these winners will be Dick Smethers of Oklahoma, who has yet to get into the best shape of which he is capable but who showed plenty of run last year to place high among the leaders.

Others who will more than likely be near the front when the eighth lap is completed will be Rues and Borthwick of Kansas State; Warren Lehman and Hoyt Burns of Oklahoma.

Interference? We Say Yes

Courtesy Sunday Journal Star

The above picture shows clearly the play that has been causing so much argument around about Nebraska and Missouri. Harry Ice seems to be crawling over Kenny Simmons, Husker game captain against K State, in an attempt to knock down the ball that is shown on its way in front of Simmons. It looks like Ice is touching the latter on the play and according to rules that constitutes interference. What do you think?

We suggest Arrow Hitt, with a non-wilt collar, Arrow Gordon, a sporty oxford, and Arrow Trump with a long-wearing soft collar. Each is $2.

"I'm in favor of a required course in fur buying. I just happened to learn what to look for in furs! My old fur coat (the one that still makes 'em look twice) was getting a new lining and the furrier showed me the Hollander stamp on the back of the pelts—the reason my coat wore so well, kept its beauty longer."

AND WHEN YOU BUY NEW FURS your retailer will be glad to show you, on pelt or tag, this famous Hollander mark. The price of furs depends on quality of skins and workmanship, but whether you pay much or little, the Hollander stamp tells you your furs will keep their beauty longer.
