

Flannel for Dating...

Kappa Kappa Gamma pledge Nancy Newbranch follows the trend toward pastel flannels for the winter dating season, and steps out in an original Mary Muffet two piece light blue Botany flannel from Gold's. Nancy's hat is a black felt pillbox with a perky little bow and yards of veil which she wears off her face. Her purse, gloves and shoes are also black.

Attraction: It's Legs Again For This Year

Legs have long been the center of much attention but this year they are attracting even more. To the many and varied things that are being worn such as rubber boots, riding boots, majorette boots, knee socks and anklets, brilliantly colored long silk stockings have been added. From an observer's standpoint we might remark that we'd much rather look at pretty faces any day than these blatant stockings on pretty legs. They change delightfully contoured limbs into something grotesque.

What to Wear to the TP...

Saturday night in the TP finds Phi Gam Norris Anderson escorting Beldora Cochran, lovely member of the Pi Phi trio. Bel, who knows what's best to wear with her long, red hair and luscious complexion, has chosen a black crepe date dress with natural pleats in front, and sequin trim around the V neckline. She wears a black felt hat, also trimmed in sequins, which has the over-the-face veil with a sequin beauty spot. Her sandals are black faille, and she carries a silver fox chubby. The entire ensemble is from Ben Simon and Son's.

"Smooth" is the word for Norris in his black and gray chalk stripe suit from Simon's. As any well dressed college man, he wears a good looking felt hat, and carries a tan camel's hair topper.

Fashion Centers Have the Clothes For Sports, Bring on the Weather

BY MAXINE LYNN.

Nebraska coeds, bawling the circumstances which caused the disappearance of snow, hope that within a few days or weeks more snow and cold weather will happen along. For the alluring new winter sports clothes are arriving at the stores round-about-town. Basically the styles remain unchanged, that is, all the clothes are made for utmost warmth and comfort. But beyond that the similarity ceases. Everything is as new and excitingly different as each year's Nebraska football team.

For skiing the snow-suits gain the upper hand. Fashion dictates the material to be durable gaberdine, sleek calvary twill, or cuddly wool. Official trim-fitting ski-pants are very much the thing, and many of the jackets, some of which are reversible and others lined with sheepskin capable of being zipped in and out, have flattering shirred backs.

The tiny lassies may choose the bulkier wool suits with quaint, embroidered designs done on the jackets. More subdued colors, such as tan, grey-blue, wine, brown and navy, are going to win recognition along this line.

Sonja Henie Influences.

The up and coming Sonja Henies will be able to choose their apparel from a brilliant and daring array of costumes. Perhaps a black velveteen circular skirt lined with scarlet and a short, white, quilted, form-fitting jacket embroidered with some zestful holiday motif would please milady. Or maybe she would prefer a white, turtle-neck sweater knitted of heavy wool and paired with red, narrow-whale, corduroy skirt lined with white satin. For a more reserved ensemble gabardine will be worn but the ice-skaters' tastes turns to the dazzling and unique.

Accessories are delightful, to say the least, this year. Headgear has taken a turn for the little-girl styles. White, scarlet, royal blue and green satin parkas will frame sweet, young faces. Youthful beanies and the much relied upon roller-brims in all colors are made to suit the more conservative desires. Gay plain or flowered, wool bandanas know no equal.

Mittens for Color.

Mittens, which will be a treat to wear, are made of white bunny fur, angora and wool in all shades, and ready-to-take-what-one-might give-it leather fashioned after boxing gloves. Shoes are durable and mannish with the heavy ski-shoes being worn for that sport and causal rubber, riding, or majorette boots for others sports or for campus wear.

This is a wonderful year for sports clothes so let's make it a wonderful year for sports.

William Lyon Phelps, Yale university author and lecturer, recently gave 47 new editions to the Friends of the Middle Border treasury room at Dakota Wesleyan university, Mitchell, S. D.

Flowers and Formals

Flowers are as much a part of the costume as the formal. Only the beauty of Eiche's flowers will add that exquisite touch necessary to her formal.
