Two Heads

Are Better...

Hard, isn't it, to settle back into the ole' groove and forget the frivolous activities of the week-end... The DUs have settled down in their usual surroundings minus the glitter and sparkle of a Hollywood studio set, which comprised the theme of their houseparty of Saturday night... Leonard Dunker, we heard, kept all the brothers busy in their search for him and their dates... By way of explanation, "Dunk" came dateless and with his eyes open for someone else's desirable date... Saturday night took in the AKK party in Omaha... The ACBC party was ever so well attended... Jerry Skoog, ACBC social chairman, was seen tripping the light fantastic with Dorothy Dworak, Towne Club... Betty Larsen, Towne Club, who is trying so hard to remain faithful to one in New York, broke her good intentions and attended with ACBC Bill Lowery... One steady, steady couple seen at the Turnpike was Mary Ericson and Warren Curry...

Steadily Growing Unsteady.

An unsteady steady couple that seems to be growing more unsteady of late is Mary Ellen Bonebright, AOPI, and Phi Gam Augie Gilmour... Rumored: The Mortar Board party is to be extra special good this year... And what's more, it's all a secret... Can't get a bit of advance information on it, can you?... Congratulations to more fall initiates, and there are many more of them... AGRs Wayne Blue, Wilmer Hansen, Jim Burgess, Melvin Kuska, Don Pelkey, Don Tracy, Dick Kennedy, and Lloyd Fortna... New active members at the AOPI house include Viola Moyer, Frances Gunderson, and Helen Gogela... At the Chi O house Marilyn Dale and Edna Mae Neidermeyer were initiated...

Kappa Sig Bob Flory is looking for someone—someone on this column so that he can tell them "I don't need the rag for my John Alden. Give me a chance"... So we're giving him a chance to do his own courting... And with Jodie Beltzer, Dee Gee, brother, that ain't bad... Climax to a long romance came Saturday night for Kappa D Ann Koenig and Beta John Weingarten when Johnny came down from Omaha to hang the diamond and three stars... Spiking the rumors: Delt Jack Parker didn't hang his badge on the hometown girl... Quite to the contrary, he sent AOPI Helen Gogela a dozen roses on her initiation day and journeyed to Omaha with her to take in the Phi Rho party Saturday night...

Fire in the Beta's Backyard.

Some of the Beta brothers and dates got together that same night and burned down the aged tree in back of the chapter house... Good riddance, so say the brothers... Kappa Helene Marcy is following in big sister's footsteps... She's steady, too, and with Phi Psi pledge Tunk Schulte... But some people who aren't steady, as Sunday's Daily reported they were, are Alpha Phi Rebecca Ely and Delt Warren Van Norman... Our pardons, of course, but wouldn't it be nice?... Any one interested in joining a new club recently formed and aptly named "Society For The Prevention Of Cruelty To The Male Species By The Female" or SPCMSF club apply to Paul Svoboda, Bill Stuhrt, or Kenny Holm, Sigma Nus... Remembers the Humane Society with their slogan 'Be kind to dumb animals,' doesn't it... All's well that prints well...

tain that the game is too dangerous, pointing out that serious injuries and even deaths result every year. Of the validity of this argument the American student body is even less convinced:

Believe football too dangerous 9%
Believe it is not too dangerous 91%

But, as an Oregon student pointed out, "It's easy to say it is not dangerous because most of us don't get tackled out on the field."

Nearly three years ago, when Dr. Hutchins began his fight against football, the surveys found that only 24 percent of the students believed professional football would "someday become more popular than college football." And only 15 percent at that time wanted colleges to give up
