Alpha Taus Take Lead In Volleyball

Phi Psis Share Spotlight As IM-Leaders Prepare To Battle for Top Position

ATO's and Phi Psi's were able to gain undisputed championship of their volleyball leagues in Tuesday's final games. The Kappa Sig's, SAE's and Sig Ep's came out in a three-way tie for league two, with three wins and one loss each. League four found the DU's and Beta Sig's tied for first.

The Phi Psi's took the AGR's into camp 2-0 in Tuesday's final for league one. The ATO's took care of the Sammy's by the 2-0 count. These victories gave the two teams definite claim to the league titles and puts them in the playoffs.

Kappa Sigs Out.

The Kappa Sig's lost a chance to go through league play undefeated when the Sig Ep's blanked them 2-0. The SAE's made it a crowd in league two by taking the Alpha Sig's 2-1.

Beta Sigma Phi defeated the Sigma Chi's 2 to 1 Tuesday night to give them a possible chance for a tie. The intramural heads are settling a dispute between the Fiji's and Beta Sig's of the scheduled game between the two teams that was not played. The records show a forfeit by the Phi Gam's, but the game may be replayed. If the game is replayed, the winner will tie with the DU's. As the records stand now, the Beta Sig's and DU's are deadlocked for the title.

Playoffs on Tuesday.

Volleyball league playoffs will be Tuesday. The schedule of games will not be set until the settlement of the Phi Gam-Beta Sig dispute. The championship bracket will probably begin a week from Thursday.

The first matches of the badminton round will be played next Tuesday night. After the first round of play, each team must designate its players as to ability and these men will keep the same positions throughout the tournament. Failure to adhere to this rule will result in forfeiture of the match.

All-American Trouble.

All-American lists are hitting the news stands with rapidity these days... This has been a year when teams of high national rating have met their Waterloo in small and comparatively unknown schools... A glance at the roster of undefeated and untied teams will substantiate this... All in all, this has been a season with few undefeated teams but at the same time there have been many individual standouts... Trying to pick the best eleven of the bunch becomes quite a muddle.

We Picked One.

For the Associated Collegiate Press survey, we sent in the top eleven as we believe they rank... All of the picking was done on a basis of writeups thruout the season from the major papers over the country... This was the result: Ends: Johnny Rokisky, Duquesne, and Dave Schreiner, Wisconsin; tackles: Dick Wildung, Minnesota, and Gene Flathmann, Navy; guards: Ray Frankowski, Washington, and Endicott Peabody, Harvard; center: Don Snavelly, Cornell; backs: Frank Albert, Stanford, Bruce Smith, Minnesota; Derace Moser, Texas A. & M., and Frank Sinkwich, Georgia.

Player of the Year.

On the same poll was a place for the player of the year... This was a tough one to fill in... Altho he had to sit out several games due to injuries, Bruce Smith got the nod at this place... Smith demonstrated his worth to the Gopher team at all times, even when he was sitting on the bench... Several occasions saw him providing the margin between victory and loss for his team and every minute that he was in the ball game there was a fear present on the part of the opposing players that Smith would break away to pay dirt... Several days ago he was awarded the title of best in the conference, which was followed by his award of the Heisman memorial trophy.

A Second Team.

Competition for a place on the top team was so close that we sent in a second team for good measure... Ends: Dove, Notre Dame, and Blacock, Clemson; tackles: Blandin, Tulane, and Bauman, Northwestern; guards: Daniel, Texas, and Melton, Purdue; center: Darold Jenkins, Missouri; backs: Layden, Texas; Lach, Duke; Westfall, Michigan, and a tie between Hillenbrand, Indiana, and Jones, Pitt.

versity. Detailed information is now being gathered by the group, headed by Dorothy Filley.

Work of Other Groups.

The Scholarship committee will have as its work the setting up of scholarships for underprivileged students, and the purpose of the Foundation Ball will be to raise money for the work of the organization.

Eugene Reece, newly elected sophomore class president, appeared before the Council and gave a brief outline of the activities which the sophomore class will undertake under a sophomore cabinet, to be set up in the near future. At the next Council meeting, Reece will submit a detailed report for approval by the Council. Burton Theil and Ruth Iverson, secretary of the Council, were unanimously elected as delegates to attend the National Student Federation convention to be held in Minneapolis during Christmas vacation.

Other business of the Council included the approval of a constitution committee to investigate the constitution and compile the by-laws. Personnel of the committee has not yet been announced. Becky Wait, Marian Cramer Aden and Roy Byram were appointed to serve as student members of the Honors Day Convocation Committee.
