Two Heads

Are Better...

We've always wanted to go to a girls' school anyway, and now it seems our wish is going to be granted, what with the Betas planning to flap "wings over the Burma road" and people singing old beaten up war songs... But to the news of the moment and reverberations of the week-end... Now on the steady list are Pi Phi Jane Moyer and SAE John Herrington, as of Saturday night... Alpha Phi Polly Petty dined with Phi Psi Ben Clark and family Sunday.

Yes, and Sigma Nu Piggie Dinner was terrific—what with an elegant band and everyone having fun—need we say more!... Maybe Art Lincoln, Delt, needs a social secretary, for it seems this week-end he completely over-looked his Saturday night date with Pi Phi Ruth Holland, who we might add did not spend the evening at home or alone.

Alpha Tau Omega initiated Harold Hunt, Jim Critchfield, Sam Seifert and Ferdinand Braun—to whom, congratulations... Alpha Chi Marty Reed is most happy because Sigma Nu Bob Ford will be coming home from camp in two weeks... We're hearing all sorts of reports that the men are afraid to file for King of Hearts—have no fears, we can't do more than rush you off your feet... Phi Psi Dick Harnsberger's losing little time with Kappa Judy O'Conner Coke dates, and all the rest... A singing telegram from the D G's thanking him for the use of his car was Kappa Sig Bill Flory's Sunday morning present... One way of showing appreciation, but we can't quite figure out how they managed the greeting... Alpha Sig's Ed Lof and Bob Gritzfeld received legal documents from AOP's Doris Marshall and Betty Harmen formally inviting them to be guests at the Mortar Board party.

Advance dates for the Gamma Phi formal Friday night: Nancy Coe and Sig Chi Harry Morehead; Helen Jean Shornberger and ATO Jack Cannell... Pledges of the Palladians barred from the initiation Friday night, held their own exclusive party, while Kieth Robinson and Ruth Riisn were formerly initiated... Hardly amusing is the situation of Sig Ep Bob Searle, who can't recall whether Gamma Phi Jeannie Hofacre invited him to the Gamma Phi formal or the Mortar Board party... This announcement should bring some sort of results.

Congratulations to Alpha Phi Marion Bremers now in Denver wearing the diamond of Phi Delt Chick McGee... Steering clear of predictions, but merely mentioning the rather frequent dating of Phi Mu Eleanor Veith and Baldwin Hall Ellis Ruby... Washington D. C. has claimed Sig Ep Dick Jones for the federal bureau of investigation... Who knows he might run into a classmate someday... Last night's Pi Phi theme was "Sweet Sue" as Susan Shaw and Delt Bernie Buell doled out candy to the sisters and cigars to the Delta Taus... Well, all's well that prints well.

University Singers Present Successful Carol Concert

. . . In Union Sunday

By Dieter Kober.

Annual presentation of Christmas Carols by the University Singers has not only become traditional by its establishing a true Christmas atmosphere and spirit, but also thru an exhibition of a guest at the meeting of the charm school sponsored by the Coed Counselors Tuesday night from 7 p. m. to 8 at Eljen Smith.

superior voice blending and general quality of choral singing as such. Sunday afternoon's concert in the Union proved again that under the able direction of Dr. Arthur E. Westbrook, director of the school of fine arts, the group of some fifty singers can offer a musical achievement highly enjoyable to the most severe critic.

Of the twenty carols performed each one had its particular attraction or point of interest, as Dr. Westbrook chose a wide variety of Christmas songs from all over the world. The effect of the precision of the group under the perfect control of the conductor was indeed refreshing; this was particularly apparent in the carols by Palestrina and in the Bohemian and French folk songs.

Extremely well done was the better known English carol: "The First Noel." Many of the carols had solo parts which were very well sung by various members of the choir. The program closed with a traditional melody from Hayti, one of the most beautiful numbers of the afternoon, extremely adequate for the conclusion of the group.

Two brass quartets helped to establish a Christmas mood by introducing the concert with Christmas chorals. Miss Lela Lyne assisted as organist.
