Guest Choruses to Sing

In the cast for the 46th annual presentation of the "Messiah" to be given in the coliseum Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, which was announced recently are 12 soloists, two brass quartets, six choruses and the university orchestra.

This presentation of the "Messiah" will also mark the 200th anniversary of the creation of Handel's masterpiece—the only work in musical literature which has remained in continuous popular favor for such a long period.

Beatrice Chorus Guest.

The university has occasionally invited community choruses to join the university choral union in the Messiah concert, and Sunday the Beatrice community chorus will be the guest participating in the performance.

In charge of the oratorio is Dr. Arthur E. Westbrook, head of the school of fine arts.

Members of the university choral union are the agricultural college chorus, Mrs. Altinas Tullis, director; Grieg male chorus, Mrs. A. C. Lovelace, director; The University Singers II, Prof. J. Dayton Smith, director; the Beatrice community chorus; the University Singers I, and the University chorus, Dr. Arthur E. Westbrook.

Members of the two brass quartets are Robert Krejci, David Kinsman, Robert Thatcher, Lyman Lorenson, and Ted Thompson, Carlos Atkison, Omar Jensen, Lester Lock.

Sending Flowers to Friends Assures the Personal Touch

And what, just what, could be as lovely as a nice potted plant for Christmas? Don't send her cut flowers because they wilt in just no time at all and then all she will have left is the memories.

Whereas if you sent her a potted plant, say a bigonia or poinsettia, it will last a long time and even after it has faded and gone she will have the earthly remains to refreshen her memories.

If the recipient in question is to be a man why not send him an African violet, or an Azalia bush? There can be no doubt that he will place it by your picture as a living memorium.

However, there are a few people who are sophisticated and for whom you will have to carefully select your floral gift.
